INTERIOR BOARD OF LAND APPEALS

4015 WILSON BOULEVARD

ARLINGTON, VIRGINIA 22203

AMOCO MINERALS CO.

IBLA 83-919

Decided May 15, 1984

Appeal from a decision of the Arizona State Office, Bureau of Land Management, declaring mining claims null and void ab initio, some in part and some in whole. A MC 144903, A MC 144904, A MC 144910, A MC 144911, A MC 144917, A MC 144918, A MC 164428, A MC 164439, A MC 164448, A MC 187304 through A MC 187330.

Affirmed in part, reversed in part.

1. Mining Claims: Lands Subject to--Mining Claims: Withdrawn Land--School Lands: Indemnity Selections--State Selections

A mining claim wholly located on land which has been segregated from mineral location by the filing of a state school land indemnity selection application is properly declared null and void ab initio.

2. Applications and Entries: Amendments--Applications and Entries: Filing--Mining Claims: Lands Subject to--School Lands: Indemnity Selections--Segregation--State Selections

When Arizona filed its original application for selection of land as part of its entitlement to compensation for deficiencies for school trust lands pursuant to its enabling act, the Department did not have segregation authority to protect the selections. During the promulgation of 43 CFR 2091.2-6, Arizona submitted a request to have the previous applications withdrawn, consolidated, and amended to include additional lands. This will be deemed a reapplication under the circumstances of this case, the filing of which enabled the Department to segregate the lands described therein under 43 CFR 2091.2-6. Mining claims subsequently initiated on lands that were segregated by the reapplication were properly declared null and void ab initio.

3. Mining Claims: Lands Subject to--Mining Claims: Location--Mining Claims: Lode Claims

If the discovery on which location of a lode mining claim is based is on unappropriated land, exterior boundary lines may be laid within or across the surface of withdrawn or segregated land, solely for the purpose of claiming unappropriated ground within the end lines to secure the extralateral rights to lode deposits apexing in the unappropriated portion of the claim. Therefore, those portions of the claims thus situated on the segregated lands are not properly declared null and void ab initio.

APPEARANCES: Ralph W. Godell, Esq., Englewood, Colorado, for Amoco Minerals Company, appellant; Fritz L. Goreham, Esq., Department of the Interior, Office of the Field Solicitor, Phoenix, Arizona, for the Bureau of Land Management.

OPINION BY ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGE STUEBING

Amoco Minerals Company (Amoco) appeals from a decision of the Arizona State Office, Bureau of Land Management (BLM), dated July 25, 1983, declaring certain of its Copperstone mining claims null and void ab initio, some in part and some in whole, because they are situated on land which became segregated from entry under the mining laws by the filing of State school land indemnity selection application A 17000 prior to the location of those claims.

This appeal involves lands within secs. 6 and 7, T. 6 N., R. 19 W., Gila and Salt River meridian, La Paz County, Arizona. On February 20, 1981, the State of Arizona filed, pursuant to 43 U.S.C. §§ 851, 852 (1976), a school land indemnity selection application, A 16473, which included the two subject sections. Under the provisions of the statutes, a state may acquire public lands in lieu of certain school lands which were encumbered by other rights or reservations before the state's title could attach, or were otherwise unavailable. Prior to August 1981, while such indemnity applications were being processed, the lands selected were considered open to application or entry under the various public land laws. To eliminate situations where conflicting rights could be established before the selected lands were clear listed to the state making application, the Department promulgated 43 CFR 2091.2-6, effective August 27, 1981. See 46 FR 38508 (July 28, 1981). The regulation provides in pertinent part:

The filing of an application for selection under the provisions of Subpart 2621 of this title [State indemnity selections] shall segregate the lands described in the application from settlement, sale, locations or entry under the public lands laws, including the mining laws * * * The segregative effect of the selection applications on the public lands shall terminate upon issuance of a document of conveyance to such lands, or upon publication in the Federal Register of a notice of termination of the segregation or the expiration of 2 years from the date of the filing of the selection application, whichever occurs first.

Notice of application A 17000, consolidating lands listed in some previously filed applications, including A 16473, with other selected lands, and its August 27, 1981, segregation was provided in 46 FR 49953-49955 (Oct. 8, 1981). On November 24, 1981, BLM posted on the appropriate public land tract index that secs. 6 and 7 were segregated from the mining laws. On certain BLM records the application's filing date was designated as October 31, 1980, which is the date of the first filing made by Arizona.

Meanwhile, Amoco entered upon the subject lands. On September 14, 1981, it located Copperstone 120, 121, 127, 128, 134, and 135, and filed with BLM the recorded notices on December 9, 1981. Copperstone 121, 128, and 135 are situated wholly within sec. 7, while Copperstone 120, 127, and 134 are partially within the section.

On February 25, 1982, Amoco located Copperstone 172 through 183 and 192 through 209, and filed the recorded notices on April 26, 1982. Of these claims, Copperstone 172, 183, and 192 are partially within secs. 6 and 7, while the remainder are totally within their boundaries.

On November 12, 1982, BLM received from Amoco recorded amended notices for Copperstone 172, 183, and 192 (thereafter designated 172A, 183A, and 192A) and recorded notices for Copperstone 173R through 182R and 193R through 209R. The lands located under Copperstone 173R through 182R and 193R through 209R are the same lands as located under Copperstone 173 through 182 and 193 through 209, respectively, but the notices differ in that the stated date of location for the latter claims is November 1, 1982. These latter notices did not mention the former locations and, consequently, they were assigned separate claim numbers. The amended notices for Copperstone 172A, 183A, and 192A were filed for the stated purpose of including additional lands. However, none of these differed from the original notices in their land descriptions.

On July 25, 1983, BLM declared Copperstone 121, 128, 135, 173 through 182, 193 through 209, 173R through 182R, and 193R through 209R null and void ab initio, and Copperstone 120, 127, 134, 172A, and 192A null and void in part as to those portions located on lands within secs. 6 and 7. ^{1/} Its decision was based on all the claims having been located after the subject lands were closed to mineral entry on August 27, 1981. The subject lands were "clear listed" (conveyed) to the State of Arizona on August 23, 1983.

[1] It is well established that mining claims wholly located on lands which were segregated and closed to entry under the mining laws are properly declared null and void ab initio. O. Glenn Oliver, 73 IBLA 56 (1983); J & B Mining Co., 69 IBLA 73 (1982).

^{1/} Appellant and BLM stipulated that the following claims are properly the subject of this appeal:

Copperstone 120 - A MC 144903	Copperstone 121 - A MC 144904
Copperstone 127 - A MC 144910	Copperstone 128 - A MC 144911
Copperstone 134 - A MC 144917	Copperstone 135 - A MC 144918
Copperstone 172A - A MC 164428
Copperstone 173R through 182R - A MC 187304 through A MC 187313
Copperstone 183A - A MC 164439
Copperstone 192A - A MC 164448
Copperstone 193R through 209R - A MC 187314 through A MC 187330

While it is not disputed that the subject lands were at some time closed to mineral entry, Amoco challenges BLM's decision that the segregation under 43 CFR 2091.2-6 remained effective beyond October 31, 1982. ^{2/} Amoco and BLM's respective arguments focus on a particular date when the subject lands, they assert, would have reopened to entry under the provisions of the regulation. Amoco relies on one record which reflects the application date of A 17000 as October 31, 1980. Another record indicates that the first application covering secs. 6 and 7, A 16473, was received on February 20, 1981. Yet, BLM argues that the 2-year segregation expired August 27, 1983.

[2] When the Department promulgated 43 CFR 2091.2-6, effective August 27, 1981, it explained, "The intent of the rulemaking is to expedite the in-lieu selection program through early segregation of lands desired by the State." 46 FR 38508 (July 28, 1981). The language of the regulation is clearly designed to apply the 2-year segregation period prospectively, for as of August 27, 1981, the Department was authorized to segregate lands upon the filing of an application for state in-lieu selections. See Leo Rhea Partnership, 80 IBLA 1 (1984).

The action of the Department in this case also reveals that the Department thought it appropriate to apply the segregation authority to pending applications which had been consolidated and amended. There is some precedent for the Department's posture. In State of Alaska, 73 I.D. 1 (1966), aff'd sub nom. Udall v. Kalerack, 396 F.2d 746 (9th Cir. 1968), cert. denied, 393 U.S. 1118 (1968), the Department determined that where an amendment to an Alaska selection application was made during a time period when the lands applied for were open to selection, even though the original application had been filed when the land was withdrawn, the amended application could be deemed the refiling of the original selection and the State's rights were determined as though the original selection had been filed then. The Department looked to the fact that the State had at all times shown its intention to acquire the selected lands, while also looking at the public policy and public interest involved.

In the subject case, the State of Arizona filed applications for selection beginning in October 31, 1980, and extending over a staggered period as particular area determinations were made. All of those applications were filed prior to the promulgation of 43 CFR 2091.2-6. Thus, the Solicitor's office accurately noted that the Arizona in-lieu selection program was operating "at a peril since right up to the date of 'clear list' an entry could be made on the selected lands and deter the selection program" (Answer at 1). Then, during the time the segregation regulation was being promulgated, Arizona requested that all but five of the previous applications be withdrawn and consolidated with additional lands into a new application A 17000. On October 8, 1981, BLM published the notice of A 17000, which had consolidated the previous applications with additional lands. 46 FR 49953 (Oct. 8, 1981).

^{2/} Amoco bases its appeal of BLM's decision on its assertion that "the Copperstone mining claims in question were located on or after November 1, 1982." That statement is only partially correct. While Copperstone 173R through 182R, and 193R through 209R were located on that date, all the other claims in question were located prior in time.

The notice stated that the lands described, which included the subject lands, had been segregated from settlement, sale, locations, or entry under the public land laws, including the mining laws, as of August 27, 1981.

Under the circumstances of this case, application A 17000 is deemed a reapplication, a refiling of the original applications which enabled the Department to segregate the lands described therein under 43 CFR 2091.2-6. The publication of the notice of application A 17000, and the segregation of the described lands, properly complied with the requirement of the regulation.

To construe the circumstances of this case and the segregation regulation in this manner comports with the intent of the Department when it promulgated the segregation regulation to protect the in-lieu selection program. Further, it promotes the sound policy consideration of meeting the Federal Government's obligation to the State of Arizona. In 1980 Arizona was entitled to several hundred thousand acres in deficiencies for school trust lands pursuant to its enabling act. The Federal Government, committed to resolve the deficiency, was able to "clear list" the subject lands to Arizona on August 23, 1983. This conveyance was part of an effective transfer program which resulted in the Department meeting its commitment by giving Arizona title to 187,930 acres in 1981-83. It obviously is in the public interest for the Department to meet its obligations to a sovereign State in satisfaction of the State's lawful entitlement.

Since the transfer occurred on August 23, 1983, the segregation ended at that time. ^{3/} See 43 CFR 2091.2-6. Amoco located the subject mining claims between September 14, 1981, and November 1982, during the time the ^{3/} A regulation should be construed in a way which provides for its utilization. Applying the segregative effect of 43 CFR 2091.2-6 retroactively to the date an in-lieu selection application was originally filed, could interfere with valid rights established by third parties in the interim when the lands were, in fact, open. Or, saying, as do appellants, that the regulation applies back to the 1980 application to start the running of time on the 2-year segregation, but that the segregative effect can only operate as of Aug. 27, 1981, would result in a segregation of the involved lands for less than 2 years, and would frustrate its intended purpose. Both constructions reach equally unacceptable results—one eliminates third party rights and the other ignores the language of the regulation, and allows the very kind of pre-emption that the regulation was written to prevent. The comments written with the final rulemaking confirm that the public is advised of the 2-year segregation at the beginning of the period of segregation and, therefore, publication at the expiration of that 2-year period is unnecessary since the public can figure the 2 years from the segregation date published in the notice. See 46 FR 38508 (July 28, 1981). The notice in the subject case identified the segregation date as Aug. 27, 1981. Therefore, the 2-year segregation ends 2 years from the August date unless, as occurred in the subject case, the land is conveyed prior to the expiration of 2 years or a Federal Register notice which terminates the segregation is published prior to the running of 2 years.

land was segregated. Accordingly, BLM properly held them null and void to the extent they were wholly situated on the segregated lands. 4/

[3] BLM, however, also declared Coppertone 120, 127, 134, 172A, and 192A null and void ab initio as to those portions of the claims on the segregated lands within secs. 6 and 7. This Board has recently held that a different rule applies where lode mining claims are only partially located on lands which were segregated and closed to entry under the mining laws. We ruled that "a locator whose discovery is on lands open to location may extend the end lines and side lines of his claim across patented or withdrawn land to define the extralateral rights to lodes or veins which apex within the claim." Marilyn Dutton Hansen, 79 IBLA 214 (1984). See Santa Fe Mining Co., 79 IBLA 48 (1984). This principle permits development of appropriated minerals in irregular parcels of land in compliance with the statutory requirement for parallel end lines (30 U.S.C. § 23 (1976)). See The Hidee Gold Mining Co., 30 L.D. 420 (1901). See Del Monte Mining Co. v. Last Chance Mining Co., 171 U.S. 55 (1898). The exterior boundary lines may be laid within or across the surface of withdrawn (or segregated) land, however, solely for the purpose of claiming unappropriated ground to secure the extralateral rights to the lode deposit. Consequently, BLM improperly held those claims null and void ab initio as to those portions of the claims situated on the segregated lands within secs. 6 and 7. However, it must be understood that appellant has acquired no rights in the surface or mineral estate of the land segregated and conveyed to the State of Arizona.

BLM, therefore, should not attempt to adjudicate the validity of such partially projected lode claims, except in the context of a mining claim contest.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to the Board of Land Appeals by the Secretary of the Interior, 43 CFR 4.1, the decision is affirmed as to those claims located entirely within the area affected by the segregation, and reversed as to those claims only partly intruding the segregated area.

4/ In order for a mining claim to be valid the discovery upon which the claim is based must be on lands open to mineral entry. If none of the lands are open to mineral entry the claim was never perfected. See El Paso Co. v. McKnight, 233 U.S. 250, 251 (1914).

Re: Appeal of Amoco Minerals Company, Mining
Claim A MC 144903 et al, IBLA 83-919

Dear Judge Stuebling:

Please find enclosed a Stipulation of Counsel which is hereby being filed in this matter. The effect of this Stipulation is to withdraw the partial withdrawal of appeal which was previously filed; to include the Copperstone 183A; to drop the Copperstone 173-182 from the appeal; and to drop the Copperstone 193-209 from the appeal.

Inasmuch as we do not know which date the Board will determine as the segregation date in this case, we are maintaining our appeal as to several claims located prior to November 1, 1982, even though we have not made an argument for such in our appeal. In the event that the segregation date is determined to have occurred after the date of location of these claims, then they should be held to be valid claims.

3. Amoco Minerals Company hereby continues its appeal as to the following described claims:

BOARD OF LAND APPEALS

Pursuant to 43 CFR Section 4.412, Appellant Amoco Minerals Company ("Amoco"), a Delaware corporation, owner of certain Copperstone mining claims A MC 144903, et al., hereby files this Statement of Reasons appealing the decision rendered July 25, 1983, by the Arizona State Office of the Bureau of Land Management ("BLM"), declaring the above-named mining claims to be null and void ab initio in whole or in part. The Board should reverse the decision of the BLM and declare the above-named mining claims valid for the following reasons:

1. Pursuant to a notice which appeared in the Federal Register Volume 46 No. 195 on October 8, 1981 those lands which are described in the above BLM decision, were segregated from settlement, sale, locations, or entry under the public land laws including the mining laws effective August 27, 1981. A copy of this Federal Register notice is attached.

2. Paragraph 4 of this notice, appearing on page 49955 states, in part; "The segregation [sic] of the above described public lands shall terminate upon issuance of a document of conveyance of such lands or upon publication in the Federal Register of a notice of termination of the segregation or the exploration of 2 years from the date of the filing of the selection application, whichever occurs first."

3. The date of the filing of the selection application was October 31, 1980, as stated in the above BLM decision. This fact is also reflected in the serial register page, a copy of which is attached.

4. The expiration of 2 years from the date of the filing of the selection is October 31, 1982. All of the Copperstone lode mining claims in question were located on or after November 1, 1982.

5. Paragraph 4 of the above Federal Register notice providing for termination of the segregative effect is self executing and nothing more need be done to restore such lands to appropriation under the applicable land laws. Buch v. Morton, 449 F. 2d 600 (1971).

6. Accordingly, the public land upon which the subject claims are located became open to location under the mining laws on November 1, 1982. As the Copperstone mining claims in question were located on or after November 1, 1982, the Board should reverse the decision of the BLM and hold that the above named claims are valid and existing.

Dated this 22nd day of September, 1983.

Gentlemen:

I am writing to inform you of a typographical error contained in the Statement of Reasons. Specifically, the word "exploration" should be "expiration" in paragraph two, line 6 of the Statement of Reasons dated September 22, 1983.

RECEIVED

BOARD OF LAND APPEALS

Pursuant to 43 CFR Section 4.412, Appellant Amoco Minerals Company ("Amoco"), a Delaware corporation, owner of certain Copperstone mining claims A MC 144903, et al., hereby files this Statement of Reasons appealing the decision rendered July 25, 1983, by the Arizona State Office of the Bureau of Land Management ("BLM"), declaring the above-named mining claims to be null and void ab initio in whole or in part. The Board should reverse the decision of the BLM and declare the above-named mining claims valid for the following reasons:

1. Pursuant to a notice which appeared in the Federal Register Volume 46 No. 195 on October 8, 1981 those lands which are described in the above BLM decision, were segregated from settlement, sale, locations, or entry under the public land laws including the mining laws effective August 27, 1981. A copy of this Federal Register notice is attached.

2. Paragraph 4 of this notice, appearing on page 49955 states, in part; "The segragation [sic] of the above described public lands shall terminate upon issuance of a document of conveyence of such lands or upon publication in the Federal Register of a notice of termination of the segregation or the ~~exploration~~ ^{expiration} of 2 years from the date of the filing of the selection application, whichever occurs first."

3. The date of the filing of the selection application was October 31, 1980, as stated in the above BLM decision. This fact is also reflected in the serial register page, a copy of which is attached.

4. The expiration of 2 years from the date of the filing of the selection is October 31, 1982. All of the Copperstone lode mining claims in question were located on or after November 1, 1982.

5. Paragraph 4 of the above Federal Register notice providing for termination of the segregative effect is self executing and nothing more need be done to restore such lands to appropriation under the applicable land laws. Buch v. Morton, 449 F. 2d 600 (1971).

6. Accordingly, the public land upon which the subject claims are located became open to location under the mining laws on November 1, 1982. As the Copperstone mining claims in question were located on or after November 1, 1982, the Board should reverse the decision of the BLM and hold that the above named claims are valid and existing.

Dated this 22nd day of September, 1983.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIORBureau of Land Management*43 CFR Part 2090*Amendment To Provide Segregation for State Indemnity Lands

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Interior.

ACTION: Proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: The Department of the Interior, in close cooperation with the affected States, has developed a new State indemnity selection process that will expedite the selection by the States of their remaining in-lieu selection rights. This proposed rulemaking will amend the existing regulations to provide for the segregation of lands applied for by a State as part of the indemnity selection process. This change will facilitate the expedited process.

DATES: Comments by June 1, 1981.

ADDRESS: Comments should be sent to: Director (650), Bureau of Land Management, 1800 C Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20240.

Comments will be available for public review in room 5555 of the above address during regular business hours (7:45 a.m. to 4:15 p.m.) on work days.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Keith Corrigan, 202-343-8693.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This proposed rulemaking is one step in a two step change in the procedures covering the State indemnity selection process. The two proposed changes to the existing regulations will speed up the process of completing the remaining in-lieu selection rights of several of the States. Several administrative changes are being made through a separate final rulemaking. This proposed rulemaking makes one substantive change in the existing regulations on segregation. It adds a new § 2091.2-6 to Subpart 2091 which deals with segregation of lands. The new section provides for the segregation of the lands covered by an application of a State for indemnity lands and requires the publication of notice of the filing of the application. The publication will be made in the Federal Register. The new section also provides the procedure for terminating the segregative effect. Segregating the lands covered by an application for indemnity lands will protect those lands from entry under the public land laws, including the mining laws, during the processing of the application.

The principal authors of this proposed rulemaking are Keith Corrigan, Branch of Land Resources, Division of Land Resources and Realty, Bureau of Land Management, and Robert C. Bruce, Office of Legislation and Regulatory Management, Bureau of Land Management.

It is hereby determined that the publication of this document is not a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and that no detailed statement pursuant to section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. 4332(2)(C)) is required.

The Department of the Interior has determined that this document is neither a major regulatory action requiring the preparation of a regulatory analysis under Executive Order 12291 nor a regulatory action having a significant economic effect on a substantial number of small entities, and does not require a small entity flexibility analysis under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (Pub. L. 96-354).

Under the authority of section 2275 and 2276 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (43 U.S.C. 851, 852), it is proposed to amend Subpart 2091, Part 2090, Group 2000, Subchapter B, Chapter II of the Code of Federal Regulations as set forth below:

A new § 2091.2-6 is added as follows:

§ 2091.2 Upon application for.

* * * * *

§ 2091.2-6 State indemnity selections.

The filing of an application for selection under the provisions of Subpart 2621 of this part shall segregate the lands described in the application from settlement, sale, locations or entry under the public land laws, including the mining laws. The authorized officer shall promptly publish in the Federal Register a notice of the filing of the selection application. Any application, allowance of which is discretionary, shall not be accepted, shall not be considered as filed and shall be returned to the applicant. The segregative effect of the selection application on the public lands shall terminate upon issuance of a document of conveyance to such lands, upon publication in the Federal Register of a notice of termination of the segregation or the expiration of 2 years from the date of the filing of the selection application, whichever occurs first. Where administrative appeal or review actions have been sought pursuant to Part 4 or Subpart 2450 of this title, the segregative period shall continue in effect until publication of a notice of termination of the segregation in the Federal Register.

David C. Russell,

Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

[Circular No. 2488]

Amendment To Provide Segregation for State Indemnity Lands

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Interior.

ACTION: Final rulemaking.

SUMMARY: The Department of the Interior, in close cooperation with the affected States, has developed a new State indemnity selection process that will expedite the selection by the States of their remaining in-lieu selection rights. This final rulemaking will amend the existing regulations to provide for the segregation of lands applied for by a State as part of the indemnity selection process. This change will facilitate the expedited process.

EFFECTIVE DATE: August 27, 1981.

ADDRESS: Suggestions or inquiries should be sent to: Director (650), Bureau of Land Management, 1800 C Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20240.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Keith Corrigan (202) 343-8693.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The proposed rulemaking was published in the Federal Register on April 29, 1981 (46 FR 24139). Comments were invited for 30 days ending on June 1, 1981. Comments were received from 3 different sources, 1 from a business interest, 1 from a Federal agency and 1 from a local government. The discussion of the comments will be in two parts, general and specific comments.

General Comments: One comment was concerned about the increase of Federal ownership in some counties. This amendment will not increase Federal ownership; in fact, the exercise of State in-lieu selection rights will decrease Federal ownership, while increasing State ownership. No change has been made in this rulemaking in response to this comment.

Another comment suggested that this rulemaking might effect a change in the statehood charter and could alter the relationship between the trust lands and school financing. The intent of the rulemaking is to expedite the in-lieu selection program through early segregation of lands desired by the State. This should in no way affect statehood charters or school financing. No change has been made in the final rulemaking in response to this comment.

Specific Comments: A couple of comments raised a question relating to the segregative effect or lack thereof on leasable minerals. Leasable minerals are under the discretionary authority of the Secretary; thus they need not be segregated from application and should remain open for application even after the lands have been segregated for State in-lieu selection. The rulemaking has been amended for clarity by including language expressly excluding the mineral leasing laws and the Geothermal Steam Act from the segregative effect.

One comment questioned why, if segregation took effect upon the filing of an application, notice of it had to be published in the Federal Register. Segregation upon application will preclude nuisance claims and publication in the Federal Register is the most expeditious means of notifying the public of the filing of an application. No changes have been made in the final rulemaking as a result of this comment.

A final comment wanted to know why the rulemaking did not require the publication of a notice of the expiration of the 2-year segregation period in the Federal Register. Since the public is advised of the 2-year segregation at the beginning of the period of segregation, it was felt that publication at the expiration of the period was unnecessary. The final rulemaking has not been changed.

Editorial corrections and changes have been made as needed.

The principal authors of this rulemaking are Keith Corrigan, Branch of Land Resources, Division of Land Management, and Robert C. Bruce, Office of Legislation and Regulatory Management, Bureau of Land Management.

The Department of the Interior has determined that this document is not a major rule under Executive Order 12291 and will not have a significant economic effect on a substantial number of small entities under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (Pub. L. 96-354).

Under authority of sections 2275 and 2276 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (43 U.S.C. 851, 852), Subpart 2091, Part 2090, Group 2000, Subchapter B, Chapter II of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended as follows:

Garrey E. Carruthers,

Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

July 9, 1981.

A new § 2091.2-6 is added as follows:

§ 2091.2 Upon application for.

* * * * *

§ 2091.2-6 State Indemnity selections.

The filing of an application for selection under the provisions of Subpart 2621 of this part shall segregate the lands described in the application from settlement, sale, locations or entry under the public land laws, including the mining laws, but not the mineral leasing laws or the Geothermal Steam Act. The authorized officer shall promptly publish in the Federal Register a notice of the filing of the selection application. Any other type of application, allowance of which is discretionary, shall not be accepted, shall not be considered as filed and shall be returned to the applicant. The segregative effect of the selection application on the public lands shall terminate upon issuance of a document of conveyance to such lands, or upon publication in the Federal Register of a notice of termination of the segregation or the expiration of 2 years from the date of the filing of the management categories according to similar resource, economic, and social criteria. Criteria for grouping allotments would be developed through preplanning and scoping meetings at the District level, approved by the Bureau State Director, and made available for public comment before being applied. Other provisions of the proposed policy would affect the Bureau's current inventory program and its strategy for reaching land-use and grazing management decisions. Briefly, the Bureau would no longer conduct vegetation production inventories and propose forage allocations prior to the development of a land-use plan and the associated environmental impact statement. The Bureau would collect general soil mapping and ecological range site data of sufficient detail to arrive at estimated production potential and range condition of allotments. Those data would be used during the planning/environmental impact statement process to group allotments within an environmental impact statement area into management categories and to determine land-use allocations and resource objectives. After the environmental impact statement and land-use plan were made final, the Bureau would conduct production inventories or monitoring studies on those allotments where adjustments in grazing may be necessary. That information would be the basis for grazing use decisions. Grazing use decisions would be issued by management category and as the information necessary to make and support those decisions was collected.

The Bureau of Land Management would continue to reach land-use and grazing management decisions through a rational planning and decisionmaking process. Public involvement in all stages of the process would be encouraged to make full use of the knowledge and experience of those involved or interested in proper management of the rangelands for multiple use and sustained yield.

Copies of the proposed rangeland management policy statement are available from the Director (220), Bureau of Land Management, 18th and C Streets, NW., Washington, D.C. 20240, and from Bureau's State and District Offices.

Dated: July 13, 1981.

Director, Bureau of Land Management.

COPPERSTONE MINING CLAIMS)

VOID AB INITIO IN WHOLE OR IN PART)

BOARD OF LAND APPEALS

Pursuant to 43 CFR Section 4.412, Appellant Amoco Minerals Company ("Amoco"), a Delaware corporation, owner of certain Copperstone mining claims A MC 144903, et al., hereby files this Statement of Reasons appealing the decision rendered July 25, 1983, by the Arizona State Office of the Bureau of Land Management ("BLM"), declaring the above-named mining claims to be null and void ab initio in whole or in part. The Board should reverse the decision of the BLM and declare the above-named mining claims valid for the following reasons:

1. Pursuant to a notice which appeared in the Federal Register Volume 46 No. 195 on October 8, 1981 those lands which are described in the above BLM decision, were segregated from settlement, sale, locations, or entry under the public land laws including the mining laws effective August 27, 1981. A copy of this Federal Register notice is attached.

2. Paragraph 4 of this notice, appearing on page 49955 states, in part; "The segregation [sic] of the above described public lands shall terminate upon issuance of a document of conveyance of such lands or upon publication in the Federal Register of a notice of termination of the segregation or the expiration of 2 years from the date of the filing of the selection application, whichever occurs first."

3. The date of the filing of the selection application was October 31, 1980, as stated in the above BLM decision. This fact is also reflected in the serial register page, a copy of which is attached.

4. The expiration of 2 years from the date of the filing of the selection is October 31, 1982. All of the Copperstone lode mining claims in question were located on or after November 1, 1982.

5. Paragraph 4 of the above Federal Register notice providing for termination of the segregative effect is self executing and nothing more need be done to restore such lands to appropriation under the applicable land laws. Buch v. Morton, 449 F. 2d 600 (1971).

6. Accordingly, the public land upon which the subject claims are located became open to location under the mining laws on November 1, 1982. As the Copperstone mining claims in question were located on or after November 1, 1982, the Board should reverse the decision of the BLM and hold that the above named claims are valid and existing.

sec. 7, Lots 1-4, E¹/₂W¹/₂, E¹/₂ (all)

Under the provisions of Sections 2275 and 2276 of the Revised Statutes, the State of Arizona filed State Indemnity Selection application A 17000-B to acquire the above described public lands on October 31, 1980. Effective August 27, 1981, the regulations were amended to provide segregation for State Indemnity Lands. 43 CFR Part 2091.2-6 provides that the filing of a State Selection application shall segregate the lands described in the application from location or entry under the mining laws. A notice of this application was published in the Federal Register Vol. 46 No. 195 on October 8, 1981 describing the lands segregated, effective August 27, 1981.

All of the claims listed on the attached appendix were located after the segregative date of August 27, 1981. The Copperstone 121, 128, 135, 173 through 182, 193 through 209, 173R through 182R and 193 through 209R mining claims are hereby declared null and void ab initio. The Copperstone 120, 127, 134, 172A, and 192A claims are hereby declared null and void ab initio in part as to the W¹/₂ sec. 6 and W¹/₂ sec. 7.

Where the public land records show that the land was segregated at the time the claims were located, there is no question of fact requiring a hearing and the claims may be declared null and void ab initio without a hearing. Jack D. Canon, et al., 30 IBLA 122 (1977); David Loring Gamble and Darrel Houglum, 26 IBLA 249 (1976).

Any void or abandoned claims may be relocated, subject to valid intervening rights of third parties or the United States, if the area concerned is public land which is open to mining location and if the mineral you are locating is subject to location under the mining laws of the United States. A new certificate of relocation may be filed within 90 days from the date of relocation accompanied by a $5 recordation fee per claim.

An appeal from this decision may be taken to the Interior Board of Land Appeals, Office of Hearings and Appeals, in accordance with the regulations in Title 43 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Parts 1 and 4, and the enclosed Form 1842-1. If an appeal is taken, the notice of appeal must be filed in the Arizona State Office of the Bureau of Land Management, 2400 Valley Bank Center, Phoenix, Arizona 85073, within 30 days from the receipt of this decision. Do not send the appeal directly to the Board. The appeal and case history file will be sent to the Board from this office. Within 30 days after filing the notice of appeal, file a complete statement of the reasons why you are appealing. This must be filed with the U. S. Department of the Interior, Office of the Secretary, Board of Land Appeals, 4015 Wilson Boulevard, Arlington, Virginia 22203. If you fully stated your reasons for appealing when filing the notice of appeal, no additional statement is necessary. Additionally, within 15 days after each document is filed, the regulations also require the appellant to serve a copy of the notice of appeal, statement of reasons, written arguments or briefs on the Field Solicitor, U. S. Department of the Interior, 2080 Valley Bank Center, Phoenix, Arizona 85073. To avoid summary dismissal of the appeal, there must be strict compliance with the regulations.

COPPERSTONE MINING CLAIMS)
(SERIAL NO. A MC 144903 NULL AND)
VOID AB INITIO IN WHOLE OR IN PART)

Pursuant to 43 CFR Section 4.412, Appellant Amoco Minerals Company ("Amoco"), a Delaware corporation, owner of certain Copperstone mining claims A MC 144903, et al., hereby files this Statement of Reasons appealing the decision rendered July 25, 1983, by the Arizona State Office of the Bureau of Land Management ("BLM"), declaring the above-named mining claims to be null and void ab initio in whole or in part. The Board should reverse the decision of the BLM and declare the above-named mining claims valid for the following reasons:

1. Pursuant to a notice which appeared in the Federal Register Volume 46 No. 195 on October 8, 1981 those lands which are described in the above BLM decision, were segregated from settlement, sale, locations, or entry under the public land laws including the mining laws effective August 27, 1981. A copy of this Federal Register notice is attached.

2. Paragraph 4 of this notice, appearing on page 49955 states, in part; "The segregation [sic] of the above described public lands shall terminate upon issuance of a document of conveyance of such lands or upon publication in the Federal Register of a notice of termination of the segregation or the exploration of 2 years from the date of the filing of the selection application, whichever occurs first."

3. The date of the filing of the selection application was October 31, 1980, as stated in the above BLM decision. This fact is also reflected in the serial register page, a copy of which is attached.

4. The expiration of 2 years from the date of the filing of the selection is October 31, 1982. All of the Copperstone lode mining claims in question were located on or after November 1, 1982.

5. Paragraph 4 of the above Federal Register notice providing for termination of the segregative effect is self executing and nothing more need be done to restore such lands to appropriation under the applicable land laws. Buch v. Morton, 449 F. 2d 600 (1971).

6. Accordingly, the public land upon which the subject claims are located became open to location under the mining laws on November 1, 1982. As the Copperstone mining claims in question were located on or after November 1, 1982, the Board should reverse the decision of the BLM and hold that the above named claims are valid and existing.

OF A DECISION OF THE ARIZONA STATE)
OFFICE OF THE BUREAU OF LAND) MANAGEMENT DECLARING CERTAIN)
COPPERSTONE MINING CLAIMS)
(SERIAL NO. A MC 144903 NULL AND)
VOID AB INITIO IN WHOLE OR IN PART)

Comes now the undersigned as Attorney for Amoco Minerals Company and submits the following in reply to Appellee's answer.

Appellee argues that the date of filing of the selection application for A-17000(b) which appears in the serial register page is not the correct date. Appellee also argues that Federal Register notice of October 8, 1981 does not really mean what it says as to when the segregative effect terminates. The Bureau should not be allowed to mislead the public in either of these respects.

The consolidated application identified as A-17000 is contained in 26 subfiles numbered A-17000(a) through A-17000(z). Some of these subfiles are contained in more than one voluminous file. Wading through all of these application files together with any earlier application files in order to determine relevant dates still does not let the public know which date is controlling. It is Appellant's argument that if the Bureau consolidated the applications and gave them the date of October 31, 1980, the date which appears in the serial registration page under application A-17000(b), then that should be the official date for all purposes.

Appellee also argues that under Appellant's position, the actual period of segregation would be fourteen (14) months. If the Bureau had chosen to utilize its full two year period, then the October 8, 1981 Federal Register notice should have so stated. Instead, the two year period begins from the date of the filing of the selection application. The Bureau should be bound by what appears in the serial register page and the public should not be required to guess at the date the segregation began. If the Bureau desired a full two year period from August 27, 1981 then it could have easily stated so in the later Federal Register notice. Since it did not do so, we can only presume that a longer period was waived.

Based on the foregoing and upon Appellant's Statement of Reasons for Appeal, it is urged that the Board reverse the July 25, 1983 decision of the Arizona State Office declaring the claims null and void.

Dated this 14th day of November, 1983.

ANSWER

17 Comes now the undersigned as attorney for the Bureau
18 of Land Management and submits the following in reply to the 19 Statement of Reasons submitted in support of AMOCO's appeal
20 from the July 25, 1983, decision of the Arizona State Office,
21 Bureau of Land Management declaring certain mining claims
22 identified therein null and void ab initio because the public
23 land records showed that the land was segregated at the time
24 the claims were located.

25 FACTS

26 In 1980, the State of Arizona was still entitled to 27 several hundred thousand acres in deficiencies for school
28 trust lands pursuant to its enabling act. The present adminis-
29 tration committed to resolve the deficiency and the State of 30 Arizona responded by filing applications for selection pursuant 31 to 43 USC 851-852 over a staggered period as particular area
32 determinations were made. At that time 43 CFR 2091.2-6 had 33 not been promulgated and the program operated at a peril since 34 right up to the date of "clear list" an entry could be made on 35 the selected lands and deter the selection program.

36 In the fall of 1980 the State of Arizona had two old
37 pending applications identified as A-6727 and A-7595. Under

1 the previously referenced commitment, the State of Arizona on
2 appropriate forms filed applications on October 31, 1980,
3 which were identified by the Bureau as A-15984 and A-15985.
4 The applications did not include the lands covered by the 5 subject mining claims. The applications covering said claims
6 were actually filed on February 20, 1981. The State identified
7 it as List No. 55-80205 and the Bureau identified it as 8 A-16473. A copy of the cover page is attached hereto as 9 Exhibit 1. There were subsequent applications and ultimately
10 the State Land Department requested by letter dated June 15, 11 1981, (Exhibit 2) that the applications be withdrawn and 12 consolidated into a new application identified as A-17000.
13 The Bureau complied and gave that application the date of 14 October 31, 1980, the date A-15984 and A-15985 were filed. At 15 that time the date for segregation purposes was not significant 16 because 43 CFR 2091.2-6 had not been promulgated. That 17 regulation was published in the Federal Register on July 28, 18 1981, at 46 FR 38508. Pursuant thereto the Bureau published in 19 the Federal Register on October 8, 1983, as A-17000 and 20 declared that the previously identified lands and lands
21 identified in a subsequent application to be withdrawn as 22 of August 27, 1981. The Bureau believed that the two year
23 segregative effect commenced at that time. The subject lands
24 were "cleared listed" to the State on August 23, 1983, which 25 was prior to the running of the segregation on August 26,
26 1983. The transfer was part of an effective transfer program
27 which resulted in the State of Arizona receiving title to 28 187,930 acres in fiscal years 1981-1983.

1 regulation was to be applied retroactively the claims would still 2 be null and void ab initio since they were located on lands which
3 were the subject of an application dated February 20, 1981,
4 (Exhibit 1) and therefore still subject to the two year segrega-
5 tion. This specifically negates the attempted relocation of 6 Copperstate 173R through 182R (AMC 187304 through AMC 187313) and 7 Copperstate 193R through 209R (AMC 187314 through AMC 187330).
8 The other attempted locations are null and void regardless of what 9 date is used as they were located on September 14, 1981, and 10 February 25, 1982.

11 Based on the foregoing it is urged that the Board affirm
12 the July 25, 1983 decision of the Arizona State Office declaring
13 the claims null and void.

14 RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 27th day of October, 1983.
