PHELPS DODGE CORP.

IBLA 89-91

Decided July 3, 1990

Appeal from a decision of the Arizona State Office, Bureau of Land Management, declaring mining claims A MC 289505 through A MC 289523 null and void ab initio.

Reversed.

1. Classification and Multiple Use Act of 1964--
Courts--Mining Claims: Lands Subject To--Public Lands: Classification--Public Lands: Disposals Of:
Generally--Segregation

The Federal District Court injunction issued in National Wildlife Federation v. Burford, 676 F. Supp. 280 (D.D.C. 1986), aff'd, 835 F.2d 305 (D.C. Cir. 1987), cert. granted sub nom., Lujan v. National Wildlife Federation, 58 U.S.L.W. 3449 (U.S. Jan. 16, 1990) (No. 89-640), is without effect as to land for which BLM issued a purported Oct. 29, 1981, termination of classification, when the classification had in fact automatically terminated pursuant to sec. 4 of the Classification and Multiple Use Act of 1964 prior to the effective date of the injunction.

2. Classification and Multiple Use Act of 1964--Mining Claims: Lands Subject To--Public Lands: Classification--Public Lands: Disposals Of: Generally--Public Records--Segregation

Pursuant to the Classification and Multiple Use Act of 1964 the segregative effect of a disposal classification for a tract of land larger than 2,560 acres terminated automatically 2 years after publication of the notice of proposed classification, unless a continuance was obtained. This Board will not apply the "notation" or "tract book" rule in a manner which thwarts this clear congressional intent.

APPEARANCES: Jerry L. Haggard, Esq., and H. Barry Holt, Esq., Phoenix, Arizona, for appellant.

OPINION BY ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGE KELLY

Phelps Dodge Corporation (Phelps) has appealed an October 17, 1988, decision of the Arizona State Office, Bureau of Land Management (BLM), declaring null and void ab initio mining claims A MC 289505 through A MC 289523. ^{1/} The appealed decision states that the lands were closed to mineral entry pursuant to the injunction ordered in National Wildlife Federation v. Burford (NWF), 676 F. Supp. 280 (D.D.C. 1986), aff'd, 835 F.2d 305 (D.C. Cir. 1987), cert. granted sub nom., Lujan v. National Wildlife Federation, 58 U.S.L.W. 3449 (U.S. Jan. 16, 1990) (No. 89-640).

Notice of proposed classification for exchange (A-450) pertaining to the subject lands was published at 31 FR 15493 (Dec. 8, 1966) pursuant to the Classification and Multiple Use Act of September 19, 1964 (CMUA), P.L. 88-607, 78 Stat. 986, as amended by P.L. 90-213, 81 Stat. 660 (1967) (formerly codified at 43 U.S.C. §§ 1411-1418 (1970)). Notice of classification for exchange (A-450) was published at 33 FR 4528 (Mar. 14, 1968) pursuant to CMUA. Both notices segregated the described lands from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws, including the mining and mineral leasing laws, except private exchanges. Both notices stated that the described land constitutes 14,593.10 acres of public land.

The subject lands were segregated and classified pursuant to CMUA which required the Secretary to review public lands and determine which were suitable for disposal and which were suitable for retention in Federal ownership. 43 U.S.C. § 1411 (1970). A decision to classify a tract of land in excess of 2,560 acres for sale or other disposal required public notice, including, inter alia, publication in the Federal Register. 43 U.S.C. § 1412 (1970). Section 4 of CMUA provided in part:

Lands classified for sale or other disposal shall be offered for sale or such other disposal within two years of the date of publication of the proposed classification and if not so offered for sale or other disposal the segregative effect shall cease at the expiration of two years from the date of publication. The proposed classification or proposed sale or other disposal may be continued beyond the two-year period if notice of such proposed continuance, including a statement of necessity for continued segregation, is submitted to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives and published in the Federal Register not more than ninety days nor less than thirty days prior to the expiration of the two-year period specified herein; and thereupon the segregative effect shall be extended for such additional period as is specified in the notice, not exceeding two years, unless Congress or the Secretary of the Interior terminates the segregation at any earlier date.

^{1/} The claims are lode claims located in S $\frac{1}{2}$ SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 1 and NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 12, T. 6 S., R. 26 E., and SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 7 and N $\frac{1}{2}$, SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of sec. 18, T. 6 S., R. 27 E., Gila and Salt River Meridian, Graham County, Arizona. The subject claims were located between July 18 and Aug. 10, 1988, and the notices of location were filed with BLM on Oct. 13, 1988. Notices of location for A MC 289500 through A MC 289504 and A MC 289524 through A MC 289528 were simultaneously filed, but were not included in the appealed decision. The record contains a copy of a second decision also dated Oct. 17, 1988, declaring null and void ab initio A MC 289524 through A MC 289528; however, Phelps has apparently not appealed that decision.

43 U.S.C. § 1414 (1970). 2/ Nonetheless, BLM published a document with an effective date of October 29, 1981, purportedly terminating classification A-450. 46 FR 49649 (Oct. 7, 1981).

In response to a suit filed by NWF, a preliminary injunction, dated February 10, 1986, was issued by the district court in NWF. 3/ Pursuant to the injunction, terminations of classifications occurring since January 1, 1981, under the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976 (FLPMA), 43 U.S.C. §§ 1701-1784 (1982), were suspended pending further action by the court.

In its statement of reasons (SOR) on appeal, Phelps argues the NWF injunction has no effect on the subject mining claims. Appellant contends the injunction only applies to classifications in effect on January 1, 1981, and, therefore, has no effect on the CMUA segregation which terminated automatically no later than December 8, 1970. Phelps also contends the notation rule does not operate to segregate the subject lands from mineral entry. 4/

[1] Lands which have been closed to entry under some or all of the public land laws remain closed to entry until formally opened; the mere passage of time cannot serve to open lands closed to entry. Harry J.

2/ The regulation outlining procedures for disposal classifications of more than 2,560 acres states that:

"The segregative effect of a classification for sale or other disposal will terminate in one of the following ways:

"(1) Disposal of the lands;

"(2) Publication in the Federal Register of a notice of termination of the classification;

"(3) An Act of Congress;

"(4) Expiration of 2 years from the date of publication of the proposed classification without disposal of the land and without the notice of proposed continuance as prescribed by the Classification and Multiple Use Act; or

"(5) Expiration of an additional period, not exceeding 2 years, if the required notice of proposed continuance is given."

43 CFR 2462.4(c).

3/ The injunction was also published at 51 FR 5809-10 (Feb. 18, 1986).

4/ Appellant presents various other reasons it believes the NWF injunction does not have the effect claimed by BLM. Given our finding below, it is unnecessary to address those other arguments.

Ayala, 99 IBLA 19 (1987). The case before us, however, involves not the mere passage of time but the passage of time coupled with a statute clearly specifying that the passage of time does serve to terminate the segregative effect of the classification. 43 U.S.C. § 1414 (1970); Buch v. Morton, 449 F.2d 600, 607 (9th Cir. 1971).

The statute alone was adequate to formally terminate the classification and open the land to entry 2 years after the notice of proposed classification, unless the continuance described in the statute was obtained. The record contains no evidence that the continuance described in CMUA was obtained. However, pursuant to the statute the maximum time for a continuance was 2 years, 43 U.S.C. § 1414 (1970). Thus, even if the continuance were obtained, the segregative effect must necessarily have terminated no later than December 8, 1970.

Although BLM issued its purported termination of the relevant classification in 1981, we find the BLM termination was without effect as the clear wording of the statute was adequate to formally open the lands to mineral entry. The NWF injunction clearly does not apply to terminations of classifications which occurred before January 1, 1981, and therefore does not reinstate the segregation set forth in A-450.

[2] Furthermore, we find that the "notation" or "tract book" rule does not justify the declaration that appellant's claims are null and void ab initio. Pursuant to that rule if a notation on the public land records indicates that land is closed to entry, the land is closed to entry even if the notation was erroneously made, or the segregative effect is void, voidable, or has terminated or expired. B. J. Toohey, 88 IBLA 66, 77-81, 92 I.D. 317, 324-26 (1985); Shiny Rock Mining Corp., 75 IBLA 136, 138 (1983). However, it is clearly erroneous to apply the notation rule where to do so thwarts the will of Congress. John J. Schnabel, 90 IBLA 147, 150 (1985); B. J. Toohey, supra at 96-97, 92 I.D. at 335. Thus, we find that the notation rule is not a basis for declaring appellant's claims null and void ab initio.

Therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to the Board of Land Appeals by the Secretary of the Interior, 43 CFR 4.1, the BLM decision of October 17, 1988, is reversed.

On November 16, 1988, Phelps Dodge Corporation, appellant, appealed the decision of the Arizona State Office of the Bureau of Land Management dated October 17, 1988, declaring the above-captioned lode mining claims null and void, ab initio. Appellant appealed the October 17, 1988, decision on the ground that it is contrary to law and policy of the United States Department of the Interior as more fully set forth in the following Statement of Reasons in Support of Appeal.

1 Action No. 85-2238, lawsuit. That Preliminary Injunction states
2 in part:

3 (1) Defendants [Director of the Bureau
4 of Land Management, Secretary of the Interior
5 and Department of the Interior], their offi-
6 cers, agents, servants, employees, and attor-
7 neys and those persons in active concert or
8 participation with them are hereby enjoined
9 from:

7 (a) modifying, terminating, or
8 revoking in full or in part, under the Federal
9 Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA), any
10 withdrawal or classification that was in
11 effect on January 1, 1981; or

10 (b) taking any action inconsistent
11 with the specific restrictions of a withdrawal
12 or classification in effect on January 1,
13 1981, including, but not limited to, the issu-
14 ance of leases, the sale, exchange or disposal
15 of land or interests in land, the granting of 16 rights-of-way, or the approval of any plan of 17 operations;

14 (2) Terminations or modifications under
15 the FLPMA of classifications and revocations
16 or modifications under the FLPMA of with-
17 drawals occurring since January 1, 1981, are 18 hereby suspended until further action by this
19 court;

18 (3) Nothing in this order shall be con-
19 strued to prohibit or affect:

19 (a) The acceptance by the Depart-
20 ment of the Interior of filings required to be
21 made by federal law

22 Although the Preliminary Injunction was in effect on the 23 date when the Subject Claims were located, that injunction has
24 since been vacated by the Court's Order dated November 4, 1988.
25 Exhibit 1. The appellant asserts that the National Wildlife
26 Federation injunction does not apply to the Subject Claims, and

1 the BLM decision of October 17, 1988 is in error for the reasons
2 set forth below.

3 II. Legal Argument

4 A. The Preliminary Injunction Does Not Apply to Lands
5 Included in Land Classification A 450.

6 1. The Segregative Effect of A 450 Expired By 7 Operation of Law.

8 The 1966 Notice of Proposed Classification (A 450)
9 recites that, pursuant to the Act of September 19, 1964 (43
10 U.S.C. § 1412, now expired) (the Classification and Multiple Use
11 Act, "C&MUA") and to the regulations in 43 C.F.R. § 2410.1-3
12 (1969), it is proposed to classify the lands for disposal through 13 exchange under the Act of June 28, 1934 (43 U.S.C. § 315g, 14 repealed in 1976) (the Taylor Grazing Act). The notice states
15 that its publication will segregate the lands from all other
16 forms of appropriation including location under the mining laws.
17 The 1968 order classified the lands pursuant to the C&MUA for 18 disposal through exchange under the Taylor Grazing Act.

19 Section 1(b) of the C&MUA required the Secretary to 20 determine which public lands shall be classified as suitable for 21 disposal and which lands are more suitable for retention in fed-
22 eral ownership. Section 4 of the C&MUA provides in part:

23 Lands classified for sale or other disposal
24 shall be offered for sale or such other dispos-
25 al within two years of the date of publication
26 of the proposed classification and if not so offered for sale or other disposal the segregative effect shall cease at the expiration of two years from the date of publication. The

1 proposed classification or proposed sale or
2 other disposal may be continued beyond the two-
3 year period if notice of such proposed continu-
4 ance, including a statement of necessity for
5 continued segregation, is submitted to the
6 President of the Senate and the Speaker of the 7 House of Representatives and published in the 8 Federal Register not more than ninety days nor 9 less than thirty days prior to the expiration of the two-year period specified herein; and thereupon the segregative effect shall be extended for such additional period as is specified in the notice, not exceeding two years,
unless Congress or the Secretary of the Interior terminates the segregation at any earlier date.

10 The termination provisions in section 4 of the C&MUA were ex-
11 plained in simple terms in the Senate Committee Report:

12 Lands classified for disposal shall be offered
13 within 2 years after the date of publication of 14 the proposed classification, and if not of-
15 fered, the segregation effect shall cease. A
16 disposal classification may be extended beyond
2 years, however, for not to exceed 2 additional years upon notification spelled out in the Act.

17 S. Rep. No. 1506, 88th Cong., 2d Sess. (1964), reprinted in 64
18 U.S. Code Cong. & Admin. News 3755, 3757.

19 The regulations in effect prior to the subject classifi-
20 cation orders (43 C.F.R. § 2411.1-2(e)(3) (1969)) and the present
21 regulations (43 C.F.R. § 2462.4(c) (1988)) provide that the segre-
22 gative effect of a classification under the C&MUA for sale or 23 other disposal "will terminate" in one of the following ways:

- 24 (1) Disposal of the lands;
- 25 (2) Publication in the Federal Register of the notice of 26 termination of the classification;

- 1 (3) An Act of Congress;
- 2 (4) Expiration of 2 years from the date of publication
- 3 of the proposed classification without disposal of
- 4 the land and without the notice of proposed con-
- 5 tinuance as prescribed by the Classification and
- 6 Multiple Use Act; or
- 7 (5) Expiration of an additional period, not exceeding
- 8 two years, if the required notice of proposed con-
- 9 tinuance is given.

10 Therefore, under the express provisions of both the C&MUA and the

11 regulations, it is clear that the latest date to which this segre-

12 gation could have extended would have been December 7, 1970, four

13 years after the date of publication of the notice, even if there

14 had been a continuance of the segregation as provided for in the

15 C&MUA. At least by December 8, 1970, this segregation terminated

16 by operation of the C&MUA and the regulations.

17 The Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals has observed that a

18 segregation by classification for disposal under the C&MUA expires

19 automatically at the end of the periods provided for in the sta-

20 tute. In Buch v. Morton, 449 F.2d 600 (9th Cir. 1971), the court

21 compared the language of the C&MUA with the Recreation and Public

22 Purposes Act which later Act provides that if, within eighteen

23 months following such a classification, no application has been

24 filed for the purpose for which the lands have been so classified,

25 then "the Secretary shall restore such lands to appropriation

26 under the applicable public land laws." 43 U.S.C. § 869(a). The

1 court held that under this language, it would be necessary for the 2 Secretary to take some action to terminate the segregation. In
3 contrast, the court observed that if Congress had intended to make
4 the termination of a segregation self-executing it could have said
5 so and referred to the C&MUA Act as a statute in which the expira-
6 tion of the segregation is automatic at the end of the periods
7 prescribed by that statute. 449 F.2d at 607. The court stated
8 that section 4 of the C&MUA "declares in unambiguous terms that if 9 the land is not offered for sale or other disposal under the Act,
10 'the segregative effect shall cease at the expiration of two years
11 from the date of publication.'" Id.

12 The segregative effect of land classification A 450 seg-
13 regating the lands from all appropriations including location
14 under the mining laws terminated by operation of law no later than 15 December 8, 1970. BLM's termination of land classification A 450
16 in 1981 was unnecessary and had no effect, since the segregation
17 had expired at least eleven years earlier. Thus, on January 1, 18 1981, the land was not segregated or classified for disposal and 19 was open for location under the mining laws.

20 The court's order in National Wildlife Federation v.
21 Burford, 676 F. Supp. 280 (D.D.C. 1986) enjoined the BLM only from 22 modifying or terminating, under FLPMA, any classification "that 23 was in effect on January 1, 1981" or taking any action
24 inconsistent with the specific restrictions of a classification
25 "in effect on January 1, 1981." In explaining its order, the court
26 stated only that the classification savings provision in section

1 701(c) of FLPMA extended all "existing classifications 'until
2 modified under the provisions of this Act [FLPMA] or other appli-
3 cable laws.'" Id. at 284-85 (emphasis added). The classification
4 of the lands on which the Subject Claims are located is not an
5 "existing classification" because it terminated at least by 1970
6 "under the provisions of . . . other applicable laws" found in
7 section 4 of the C&MUA and 43 C.F.R. § 2462.4(c) (1988).

8 The injunction applies solely to the BLM affirmatively
9 terminating, or taking any action inconsistent with, any with-
10 drawal or classification that was "'in effect on January 1981'."
11 Id. at 286 (emphasis added). The order suspends classification
12 terminations or modifications under FLPMA "occurring since
13 January 1, 1981." Id. (emphasis added). The injunction could not 14 apply to classifications terminated at any time by operation of an 15 act of Congress and the injunction, by its terms, does not apply 16 to terminations of classifications which were not "in effect on 17 January 1, 1981." The A 450 classification expired by operation
18 of law, and not through any BLM action, no later than December 8, 19 1970, and was not in effect on January 1, 1981. Any BLM action
20 since 1970 involving those lands could not have been inconsistent
21 with this nonexistent classification. Therefore, for these rea-
22 sons alone, the BLM Decisions should be reversed.

23 2. The National Wildlife Federation Litigation Is 24 Not Directed Toward Land Disposal Classifica-
25 tions.

25 The National Wildlife Federation asserted that it and its 26 members are suffering continued injury in fact as the result of

1 BLM's terminating "protective land use restrictions." It further
2 asserted that these objectionable terminations will result in
3 development or disposal of the involved lands, eliminating their
4 use by National Wildlife Federation members for fishing, hunting,
5 and other recreational activities. National Wildlife Federation
6 Amended Complaint, page 3. Exhibit 2. The Complaint was filled
7 with references to protective land classifications and the 8 irreparable injury arising out of termination of those
9 classifications.

10 The National Wildlife Federation suit is directed against 11 termination of classifications whose purpose is to retain public
12 lands and affirmatively manage them for some public resource use.
13 Clearly, the National Wildlife Federation injunction should not be 14 applied to land disposal classifications. Such classifications
15 are not protective of the public lands, but are for the purpose of 16 allowing certain lands to be conveyed from federal ownership into 17 private or state ownership for use with no federal land management
18 protective regulation. If land classification A 450 had not auto-
19 matically expired, and if the Preliminary Injunction were applied
20 to those lands within which the Subject Claims are located, it
21 would, in effect, reestablish the land disposal classification
22 which was terminated in 1981. This would result in the land being 23 transferred from a more protected classification category of 24 retention in federal ownership to a less protected classification
25 category for disposal from federal ownership. Such a result would 26

1 run counter to the purpose of the National Wildlife Federation
2 lawsuit and the Preliminary Injunction.

3 The National Wildlife Federation asserted standing to 4 bring its complaint because:

5 NWF and its members are suffering and will
6 continue to suffer injury in fact as a result
7 of the challenged actions. Members of NWF use
8 and enjoy the environmental resources that will
9 be adversely affected by the challenged actions
. . . . These persons' use and enjoyment of these resources will be irreparably injured if the defendants are permitted to terminate protective land use restrictions. . . .

10 National Wildlife Federation Amended Complaint, page 3. Not only
11 is land classification A 450 not a "protective land use restric-
12 tion," but the National Wildlife Federation failed to assert facts
13 demonstrating that its members would suffer irreparable injury if 14 the classification of these lands for disposal were terminated.
15 Consequently, the National Wildlife Federation would not have had 16 standing to seek injunctive relief against the Bureau of Land
17 Management regarding land disposal classification A 450.

18 Because the National Wildlife Federation Complaint was 19 not directed toward retaining BLM disposal classifications, and
20 because the National Wildlife Federation has not shown the injury
21 necessary for standing to seek injunctive relief with respect to 22 the lands involved in this case, the Preliminary Injunction should 23 not be applied to lands included in land classification A 450, and 24 the BLM decision declaring the Subject Claims null and void, ab
25 initio, should be reversed.

3. The Location of Mining Claims Is Not Conceptually Inconsistent With Land Classifications For Disposal.

Land classification A 450 classified lands for disposal of complete fee title. The location of mining claims is initially only a disposal of a possessory interest which may revert to the United States or which may only possibly result in the eventual disposal of fee title. The location of the Subject Claims created a mere possessory interest in some of the lands classified for complete fee disposal under land classification A 450. Such a partial disposal would not be inconsistent with the complete fee disposal purposes of A 450, and should not violate the Preliminary Injunction. Although in a different context, the district court itself recognized that even a classification for retention could allow some forms of limited disposal which would be consistent with the purposes of that retention classification. 676 F. Supp. at 285. If a partial disposal of title can be consistent with a retention classification, clearly allowing the disposal of a mere possessory interest would be conceptually consistent with a complete fee disposal classification. Because partial disposal through disposal of a mere possessory interest in a mining claim would not be inconsistent with the complete fee disposal authorized by land classification A 450, the Preliminary Injunction should not apply and the BLM decisions should be reversed.

1 B. Even If the Preliminary Injunction Applies, the BLM
2 Decisions Should Be Reversed and the Subject Claims
3 Reinstated because BLM Acceptance of the Subject
 Claims Location Notices Is Not Prohibited By the Terms of The Preliminary Injunction.

4 The National Wildlife Federation Preliminary Injunction
5 enjoins the actions only of the federal government, and does not
6 apply to the actions of private parties. 676 F. Supp. at 284.
7 Consequently, the district court did not enjoin third parties from 8 locating mining claims. Once an unpatented mining claim has been 9 properly located on the ground, "[t]he owner . . . shall file
10 within 90 days after the date of location of that claim or site in 11 the proper BLM office, a copy of the official record of the notice
12 or certification of location of that claim or site that was or 13 will be filed under state law." 43 C.F.R. § 3833.1-2(a). Failure
14 to file such a notice of location is deemed a conclusive abandon-
15 ment of the mining claim. Id. § 3833.4.

16 The Preliminary Injunction states specifically that 17 "[n]othing in this order shall be construed to prohibit or affect 18 . . . [t]he acceptance by the Department of the Interior of fil-
19 ings required to be made by Federal law." 24 Env't Rep. Cas.
20 (BNA) 1082, at 1088 (D.D.C. Feb. 10, 1986). Because filing a 21 notice of location is required by federal law for the owner of an 22 unpatented mining claim to retain his interest, the Preliminary
23 Injunction specifically does not prohibit the claim owner from 24 making such filing or the BLM from accepting such filing. Id. No
25 action beyond the acceptance of that filing is required of BLM.
26 Thus, BLM's acceptance of the notice of locations filings for the

1 Subject Claims would not have violated the Preliminary Injunction.
2 Because the BLM's acceptance of the notice of location filings for
3 the subject claims is not prohibited by the terms of the Prelimi-
4 nary Injunction, the BLM decisions should be reversed.

5 C. Notation Rule Issues.

6 Although there is nothing clearly explicit in the BLM
7 decisions that the BLM relied upon the notation rule to hold the 8 Subject Claims invalid, in anticipation of the possibility that
9 the BLM may raise this issue in its answer and that appellant may 10 not have the opportunity to reply to such answer, the notation
11 rule will be addressed here. It is appellant's position that (1)
12 the notation rule does not apply to segregations terminated by 13 force of law and (2) even if the notation rule did apply (a) it
14 was satisfied in this case and (b) the National Wildlife
15 Federation Preliminary Injunction applies only to the termination
16 of classifications and withdrawals and has nothing to do with 17 segregations being extended by the notation rule.

18 1. The Notation Rule Does Not Apply in This Case.

19 By way of introduction, the notation rule has been
20 applied to prevent any appropriation of public lands when the BLM
21 land office records reflect a segregation of those lands from 22 appropriation regardless of whether the basis for the segregation
23 is void or voidable. See B. J. Toohey et al., 88 IBLA 66, 77
24 (1985). The Preliminary Injunction did not stay the effect of the 25 notice of Termination of Classifications published on October 7,
26 1981 because that notice had no effect. As discussed in section

1 A.1, supra, classification and segregation of the lands on which
2 the Subject Claims are located were terminated automatically by
3 the provisions of the C&MUA and the regulations thereunder. This 4 Board has held clearly that the notation rule does not apply in
5 instances where a segregation has terminated automatically by
6 statute or by regulation. In Toohy et al., supra, this Board
7 dealt with automatic terminations of segregations under FLPMA.
8 The applicable section in FLPMA provides:

9 The segregative effect of the application [for
10 a withdrawal] shall terminate upon (a) rejection
11 of the application by the Secretary, (b)
12 withdrawal of lands by the Secretary, or (c)
13 the expiration of two years from the date of 14 the notice [published in the Federal Register].

15 43 U.S.C. § 1714(b)(1). In dealing with this automatic statutory 16 termination of a segregation, this Board held:

17 Apparent from the above is that Congress
18 has mandated specific moments when the segregative
19 effect of withdrawal applications shall 20 terminate by operation of law. Pertinent to 21 this case, that moment would be 2 years from
22 the date of the Federal Register notice regard-
23 ing the filing of Forest Service withdrawal
24 application AA-23139. The required Federal
25 Register notice for this withdrawal application
26 published December 5, 1978, at 43 FR
27 57134-57137. Hence, in the absence of
28 rejection or approval of the application, its 29 segregative effect automatically terminated on
30 December 5, 1980. The Departmental regulations
31 which implement the withdrawal provisions of 32 section 204 of FLPMA are found at 43 CFR Part 33 2300.

34 Against this backdrop, appellants contend
35 that the Department is in violation of the will
36 of Congress in permitting a continuing MTP
37 notation of Forest Service withdrawal applica-
38 tion AA-23139 to preclude other appropriation
39 of the public lands subsequent to December 5,

1 1980, the date the segregative effect of AA-
2 23139 terminated by statute. We agree. While
3 we have held that the notation rule represents
4 a valid administrative device for managing the 5 status and disposition of public lands, we have
6 also noted that the Department can regulate it
7 out of existence whenever it desires. So, of
8 course, may Congress and it has done this by,
9 inter alia, precluding any segregative effect
10 to withdrawal applications filed after
11 October 21, 1976, after 2 years from the date
12 such applications are noted in the Federal 13 Register. It was therefore error for BLM to 14 extend application of the notation rule to
15 Forest Service withdrawal application AA-23139
16 as grounds for rejecting appellants' mining
17 claim locations effected in 1981.

18 88 IBLA at 96. (emphasis added). Similarly, as discussed in 19 section A.1 above, the segregative effect of the classification of 20 the lands on which the Subject Claims are located expired auto-
21 matically by operation of law both by virtue of section 4 of the 22 C&MUA and the regulations in 43 C.F.R. § 2462.4(c). Therefore, it
23 is clear that the notation rule could not have operated in this 24 case to continue the segregation of the subject lands beyond the 25 latest date provided for by Congress and the regulations, i.e.,
26 November 13, 1973.

2. The Segregation of The Subject Lands Would Not Continue Even if the Notation Rule Applies.

Assuming arguendo, that the notation rule applied to the lands on which the Subject Claims are located, this rule was satisfied by the notice of Termination of Classification published on October 7, 1981. The notation rule has been described as an equal protection doctrine grounded in fairness by giving the pub-

1 lic at large equal notice of the opening of public lands. Toohey
2 et al. at 78. This purpose was carried out by the notice of
3 Termination of Classification published on October 7, 1981. The 4 public was advised by that notice that, "on October 29, 1981,
5 these lands will be open to location under the United States min-
6 ing laws." Therefore, even though this notice of termination of 7 segregation was not necessary because these lands had already
8 opened in 1970 by operation of law, the Subject Claims were locat-
9 ed on these lands after the date on which the public had notice of 10 the segregation termination.

11 Further, assuming arguendo that the notation rule re-
12 quired this segregation to be eliminated by the notice of Termina-
13 tion of Classification, the Preliminary Injunction did not stay
14 the effect of publishing that notice of termination. The Prelimi-
15 nary Injunction had nothing to do with the segregation being con-
16 tinued by the notation rule. The injunction, by its own terms, 17 applies only to any "withdrawal or classification that was in 18 effect on January 1, 1981." 24 Env't. Rep. Cas. (BNA) at 1088.
19 As discussed above, the classification of the lands on which the 20 Subject Claims are located expired by operation of law in 1970.
21 Therefore, the Preliminary Injunction did not apply to stay the 22 effect, under the notation rule, of the superfluous notice of
23 Termination of Classification published on October 7, 1981.

3. The Notation Rule Does Not Apply to the Federal Register Publication of the Preliminary Injunction Order.

The district court's February 10, 1986 Preliminary Injunction Order was published in the Federal Register on February 18, 1986. 51 Fed. Reg. 5809. However, that notice cannot be construed as a notation on the public lands records giving the public notice of the court's reinstatement of the segregative effect of land classification A 450. The scope of "public lands records," for the purpose of applying the notation rule, is limited to the master title plat, historical index and other use plats located in BLM state offices. David Cavanagh, 89 IBLA 285, 297 n.7 (Nov. 8, 1985). Consequently, even if the notation rule applied to the Subject Lands, the notation rule would not apply to the Federal Register publication of the Preliminary Injunction Order.

III. Conclusions.

In light of the foregoing it is clear that the BLM decision dated October 17, 1988, should be reversed and the Subject Claims reinstated. This Board is hereby respectfully requested to enter its order accordingly.

No. 85-2238

AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

INTRODUCTION

1. This case challenges the Department of the Interior's conduct of its "land withdrawal review program." Under that program, the defendants have revoked withdrawals involving over 170 million acres of public lands. Another 50 million acres remain to be reviewed. This suit alleges, among other things, that the defendant's land withdrawal review program unlawfully fails to require analysis of proposed withdrawal revocations in land use plans and environmental impact statements, is being conducted without regulations, fails to provide for public participation in decisionmaking, and fails to provide for Congressional and Presidential review of proposed withdrawal revocations.

2. This suit is brought under provisions of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, 42 U.S.C. §§4321 et seq.; the Federal Land Policy and Management Act, 43 U.S.C. §§1701 et seq.; and the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. §§551 et seq.

JURISDICTION

3. This Court has jurisdiction of this action under 28 U.S.C. §1331(a) (federal question jurisdiction) and 28 U.S.C. §1346 (suits against agencies and officers of the United States).

4. The claims raised in this suit arise under provisions of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), 42 U.S.C. §§4321 et seq.; the Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA), 43 U.S.C. §§1701 et seq.; and the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), 5 U.S.C. §§551 et seq. The relief sought is authorized by 28 U.S.C. §2201 (declaratory judgments) and 28 U.S.C. §2202 (injunctive relief). Venue is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. §1391(e). There is a present and actual controversy between the parties to this action.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff National Wildlife Federation (NWF) has over 4.5 million members and supporters and is the nation's largest non-profit private conservation organization. Incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia in 1939, NWF is dedicated to the wise use and management of the nation's natural resources. NWF has affiliate organizations and individual members in each of the 50 states and the District of Columbia.

6. NWF and its members are suffering and will continue to suffer injury in fact as a result of the challenged actions. Members of NWF use and enjoy the environmental resources that will be adversely affected by the challenged actions. They regularly use these resources for fishing, hunting, bird and wildlife watching, canoeing, and boating, hiking, camping, and other similar activities. These persons' use and enjoyment of these resources will be irreparably injured if the defendants are permitted to terminate protective land use restrictions and thereby open up public lands to exploration, development, and disposal, without the development of land use plans, without prior preparation of adequate environmental impact statements, and without compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and procedures. Among other things, the challenged actions will adversely affect plaintiff and its members by destroying fish and wildlife habitat, and by impairing natural beauty.

Further, NWF and its members suffer injury in that they have been and continue to be denied information on the potential impacts of, and alternatives to, defendants' actions and have been denied the opportunity to participate in defendants' decision-making. Further NWF and its members have suffered injury by reason of their elected representatives, including the President of the United States and members of Congress, having been denied the opportunity and responsibility to participate in defendants' decision-making.

7. Plaintiff and its members are within the zone of interests sought to be protected by the Federal Land Policy and Management Act, the National Environmental Policy Act, and the Administrative Procedure Act.

8. Defendant, Donald P. Hodel is the Secretary of defendant United States Department of the Interior and is charged by law and regulations with the responsibility of administering and enforcing the Federal Land Policy and Management Act and complying with the provisions of the National Environmental Policy Act and the Administrative Procedure Act. He is sued in his official capacity.

9. Defendant Robert F. Burford is the Director of the Bureau of Land Management. Defendant Burford is charged by law and regulations with the responsibility for managing the public lands in compliance with the Federal Land Policy and Management Act, the National Environmental Policy Act, and the Administrative Procedure Act. He is sued in his official capacity.

10. Defendant, United States Department of the Interior, including therein the Bureau of Land Management, is a department and agency of the United States.

11. Plaintiff has made several attempts to resolve the claims raised in this Complaint. On August 14, 1984, plaintiff delivered a letter to Secretary Clark setting forth plaintiff's claims. On January 29, 1985, plaintiff delivered a letter to defendant Hodel substantially setting forth these claims again. On April 2, 1985, plaintiff delivered a letter to defendant Burford setting forth these same claims in additional detail. On April 22, 1985, representatives of the plaintiff met with defendant Burford and members of his staff to discuss these claims. Additional meetings between representatives of both plaintiff and defendants were held on June 5, 1985, and June 19, 1985. Considerable correspondence has been exchanged between the parties. However, no resolution of this case has been achieved as a result of these efforts.

Dear Ms. Brownlee:

As we discussed during our telephone conversation of December 16, 1988, I am today sending by Federal Express an additional copy of the Statement of Reasons in support of the appeal of Phelps Dodge Corporation concerning A MC 289505 to -23 mining claims, Docket No. IBLA 89-91. Unlike the copy received by the Interior Board of Land Appeals on December 16, 1988, this additional copy includes an original signed signature page and exhibits.

For your convenience, we also are delivering to the Interior Board of Land Appeals on this date a telecopy facsimile of the signed signature page and exhibits.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

BOARD OF LAND APPEALS

18 On November 16, 1988, Phelps Dodge Corporation, appel-19 lant, appealed the decision of the Arizona State Office of the 20 Bureau of Land Management dated October 17, 1988, declaring the 21 above-captioned lode mining claims null and void, ab initio.
22 Appellant appealed the October 17, 1988, decision on the ground
23 that it is contrary to law and policy of the United States
24 Department of the Interior as more fully set forth in the follow-
25 ing Statement of Reasons in Support of Appeal.

1 Action No. 85-2238, lawsuit. That Preliminary Injunction states
2 in part:

3 (1) Defendants [Director of the Bureau
4 of Land Management, Secretary of the Interior
5 and Department of the Interior], their offi-
6 cers, agents, servants, employees, and attor-
7 neys and those persons in active concert or
8 participation with them are hereby enjoined
9 from:

10 (a) modifying, terminating, or
11 revoking in full or in part, under the Federal
12 Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA), any
13 withdrawal or classification that was in
14 effect on January 1, 1981; or

15 (b) taking any action inconsistent
16 with the specific restrictions of a withdrawal
17 or classification in effect on January 1,
18 1981, including, but not limited to, the iss-
19 uance of leases, the sale, exchange or disposal
20 of land or interests in land, the granting of 21 rights-of-way, or the approval of any plan of 22 operations;

23 (2) Terminations or modifications under
24 the FLPMA of classifications and revocations
25 or modifications under the FLPMA of with-
26 drawals occurring since January 1, 1981, are hereby suspended until further action by this court;

(3) Nothing in this order shall be construed to prohibit or affect:

(a) The acceptance by the Department of the Interior of filings required to be made by federal law

27 Although the Preliminary Injunction was in effect on the 28 date when the Subject Claims were located, that injunction has 29 since been vacated by the Court's Order dated November 4, 1988.
30 Exhibit 1. The appellant asserts that the National Wildlife
31 Federation injunction does not apply to the Subject Claims, and

1 the BLM decision of October 17, 1988 is in error for the reasons
2 set forth below.

3 II. Legal Argument

4 A. The Preliminary Injunction Does Not Apply to Lands
5 Included in Land Classification A 450.

6 1. The Segregative Effect of A 450 Expired By 7 Operation of Law.

8 The 1966 Notice of Proposed Classification (A 450)
9 recites that, pursuant to the Act of September 19, 1964 (43
10 U.S.C. § 1412, now expired) (the Classification and Multiple Use
11 Act, "C&MUA") and to the regulations in 43 C.F.R. § 2410.1-3
12 (1969), it is proposed to classify the lands for disposal through
13 exchange under the Act of June 28, 1934 (43 U.S.C. § 315g, 14 repealed in 1976) (the Taylor Grazing Act). The notice states
15 that its publication will segregate the lands from all other
16 forms of appropriation including location under the mining laws.
17 The 1968 order classified the lands pursuant to the C&MUA for 18 disposal through exchange under the Taylor Grazing Act.

19 Section 1(b) of the C&MUA required the Secretary to 20 determine which public lands shall be classified as suitable for 21 disposal and which lands are more suitable for retention in fed-
22 eral ownership. Section 4 of the C&MUA provides in part:

23 Lands classified for sale or other disposal
24 shall be offered for sale or such other dispos-
25 al within two years of the date of publication
26 of the proposed classification and if not so offered for sale or other disposal the segregative effect shall cease at the expiration of two years from the date of publication. The

1 proposed classification or proposed sale or
2 other disposal may be continued beyond the two-
3 year period if notice of such proposed continu-
4 ance, including a statement of necessity for
5 continued segregation, is submitted to the
6 President of the Senate and the Speaker of the 7 House of Representatives and published in the
8 Federal Register not more than ninety days nor 9 less than thirty days prior to the expiration
10 of the two-year period specified herein; and 11 thereupon the segregative effect shall be
12 extended for such additional period as is spec-
13 ified in the notice, not exceeding two years,
14 unless Congress or the Secretary of the 15 Interior terminates the segregation at any
16 earlier date.

17 The termination provisions in section 4 of the C&MUA were ex-
18 plained in simple terms in the Senate Committee Report:

19 Lands classified for disposal shall be offered
20 within 2 years after the date of publication of 21 the proposed classification, and if not of-
22 fered, the segregation effect shall cease. A
23 disposal classification may be extended beyond
24 2 years, however, for not to exceed 2 addition-25 al years upon notification spelled out in the 26 Act.

27 S. Rep. No. 1506, 88th Cong., 2d Sess. (1964), reprinted in 64
28 U.S. Code Cong. & Admin. News 3755, 3757.

29 The regulations in effect prior to the subject classifi-
30 cation orders (43 C.F.R. § 2411.1-2(e)(3) (1969)) and the present
31 regulations (43 C.F.R. § 2462.4(c) (1988)) provide that the segre-
32 gative effect of a classification under the C&MUA for sale or 33 other disposal "will terminate" in one of the following ways:

- 34 (1) Disposal of the lands;
- 35 (2) Publication in the Federal Register of the notice of 36 termination of the classification;

1 (3) An Act of Congress;

2 (4) Expiration of 2 years from the date of publication
3 of the proposed classification without disposal of
4 the land and without the notice of proposed con-
5 tinuance as prescribed by the Classification and
6 Multiple Use Act; or

7 (5) Expiration of an additional period, not exceeding
8 two years, if the required notice of proposed con-
9 tinuance is given.

10 Therefore, under the express provisions of both the C&MUA and the 11 regulations, it is clear that the latest date to which this segre-
12 gation could have extended would have been December 7, 1970, four 13 years after the date of publication of the notice, even if there
14 had been a continuance of the segregation as provided for in the 15 C&MUA. At least by December 8, 1970, this segregation terminated
16 by operation of the C&MUA and the regulations.

17 The Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals has observed that a
18 segregation by classification for disposal under the C&MUA expires
19 automatically at the end of the periods provided for in the sta-
20 tute. In Buch v. Morton, 449 F.2d 600 (9th Cir. 1971), the court
21 compared the language of the C&MUA with the Recreation and Public
22 Purposes Act which later Act provides that if, within eighteen
23 months following such a classification, no application has been 24 filed for the purpose for which the lands have been so classified,
25 then "the Secretary shall restore such lands to appropriation
26 under the applicable public land laws." 43 U.S.C. § 869(a). The

1 court held that under this language, it would be necessary for the
2 Secretary to take some action to terminate the segregation. In
3 contrast, the court observed that if Congress had intended to make
4 the termination of a segregation self-executing it could have said
5 so and referred to the C&MUA Act as a statute in which the expira-
6 tion of the segregation is automatic at the end of the periods
7 prescribed by that statute. 449 F.2d at 607. The court stated
8 that section 4 of the C&MUA "declares in unambiguous terms that if
9 the land is not offered for sale or other disposal under the Act,
10 'the segregative effect shall cease at the expiration of two years
11 from the date of publication.'" Id.

12 The segregative effect of land classification A 450 seg-
13 regating the lands from all appropriations including location
14 under the mining laws terminated by operation of law no later than 15 December 8, 1970. BLM's termination of land classification A 450
16 in 1981 was unnecessary and had no effect, since the segregation
17 had expired at least eleven years earlier. Thus, on January 1, 18 1981, the land was not segregated or classified for disposal and 19 was open for location under the mining laws.

20 The court's order in National Wildlife Federation v.
21 Burford, 676 F. Supp. 280 (D.D.C. 1986) enjoined the BLM only from 22 modifying or terminating, under FLPMA, any classification "that
23 was in effect on January 1, 1981" or taking any action
24 inconsistent with the specific restrictions of a classification
25 "in effect on January 1, 1981." In explaining its order, the court
26 stated only that the classification savings provision in section

1 701(c) of FLPMA extended all "existing classifications 'until
2 modified under the provisions of this Act [FLPMA] or other appli-
3 cable laws.'" Id. at 284-85 (emphasis added). The classification
4 of the lands on which the Subject Claims are located is not an
5 "existing classification" because it terminated at least by 1970
6 "under the provisions of . . . other applicable laws" found in
7 section 4 of the C&MUA and 43 C.F.R. § 2462.4(c) (1988).

8 The injunction applies solely to the BLM affirmatively
9 terminating, or taking any action inconsistent with, any with-
10 drawal or classification that was "in effect on January 1981'."
11 Id. at 286 (emphasis added). The order suspends classification
12 terminations or modifications under FLPMA "occurring since
13 January 1, 1981." Id. (emphasis added). The injunction could not 14 apply to classifications terminated at any time by operation of an 15 act of Congress and the injunction, by its terms, does not apply
16 to terminations of classifications which were not "in effect on 17 January 1, 1981." The A 450 classification expired by operation
18 of law, and not through any BLM action, no later than December 8,
19 1970, and was not in effect on January 1, 1981. Any BLM action
20 since 1970 involving those lands could not have been inconsistent
21 with this nonexistent classification. Therefore, for these rea-
22 sons alone, the BLM Decisions should be reversed.

24 Not Directed Toward Land Disposal Classifica-
25 tions.

25 The National Wildlife Federation asserted that it and its 26 members are suffering continued injury in fact as the result of

1 BLM's terminating "protective land use restrictions." It further
2 asserted that these objectionable terminations will result in
3 development or disposal of the involved lands, eliminating their
4 use by National Wildlife Federation members for fishing, hunting,
5 and other recreational activities. National Wildlife Federation
6 Amended Complaint, page 3. Exhibit 2. The Complaint was filled
7 with references to protective land classifications and the 8 irreparable injury arising out of termination of those
9 classifications.

10 The National Wildlife Federation suit is directed against
11 termination of classifications whose purpose is to retain public
12 lands and affirmatively manage them for some public resource use.
13 Clearly, the National Wildlife Federation injunction should not be
14 applied to land disposal classifications. Such classifications
15 are not protective of the public lands, but are for the purpose of 16 allowing certain lands to be conveyed from federal ownership into 17 private or state ownership for use with no federal land management
18 protective regulation. If land classification A 450 had not auto-
19 matically expired, and if the Preliminary Injunction were applied
20 to those lands within which the Subject Claims are located, it
21 would, in effect, reestablish the land disposal classification
22 which was terminated in 1981. This would result in the land being 23 transferred from a more protected classification category of 24 retention in federal ownership to a less protected classification
25 category for disposal from federal ownership. Such a result would 26

1 run counter to the purpose of the National Wildlife Federation
2 lawsuit and the Preliminary Injunction.

3 The National Wildlife Federation asserted standing to 4 bring its complaint because:

5 NWF and its members are suffering and will
6 continue to suffer injury in fact as a result
7 of the challenged actions. Members of NWF use
8 and enjoy the environmental resources that will
9 be adversely affected by the challenged actions
. . . . These persons' use and enjoyment of these resources will be irreparably injured if the defendants are permitted to terminate protective land use restrictions. . . .

11 is land classification A 450 not a "protective land use restric-
12 tion," but the National Wildlife Federation failed to assert facts
13 demonstrating that its members would suffer irreparable injury if 14 the classification of these lands for disposal were terminated.
15 Consequently, the National Wildlife Federation would not have had 16 standing to seek injunctive relief against the Bureau of Land
17 Management regarding land disposal classification A 450.

18 Because the National Wildlife Federation Complaint was 19 not directed toward retaining BLM disposal classifications, and
20 because the National Wildlife Federation has not shown the injury
21 necessary for standing to seek injunctive relief with respect to 22 the lands involved in this case, the Preliminary Injunction should 23 not be applied to lands included in land classification A 450, and 24 the BLM decision declaring the Subject Claims null and void, ab
25 initio, should be reversed.

3. The Location of Mining Claims Is Not Conceptually Inconsistent With Land Classifications For Disposal.

Land classification A 450 classified lands for disposal of complete fee title. The location of mining claims is initially only a disposal of a possessory interest which may revert to the United States or which may only possibly result in the eventual disposal of fee title. The location of the Subject Claims created a mere possessory interest in some of the lands classified for complete fee disposal under land classification A 450. Such a partial disposal would not be inconsistent with the complete fee disposal purposes of A 450, and should not violate the Preliminary Injunction. Although in a different context, the district court itself recognized that even a classification for retention could allow some forms of limited disposal which would be consistent with the purposes of that retention classification. 676 F. Supp. at 285. If a partial disposal of title can be consistent with a retention classification, clearly allowing the disposal of a mere possessory interest would be conceptually consistent with a complete fee disposal classification. Because partial disposal through disposal of a mere possessory interest in a mining claim would not be inconsistent with the complete fee disposal authorized by land classification A 450, the Preliminary Injunction should not apply and the BLM decisions should be reversed.

1 B. Even If the Preliminary Injunction Applies, the BLM
2 Decisions Should Be Reversed and the Subject Claims
3 Reinstated because BLM Acceptance of the Subject
 Claims Location Notices Is Not Prohibited By the Terms of The Preliminary Injunction.

4 The National Wildlife Federation Preliminary Injunction
5 enjoins the actions only of the federal government, and does not
6 apply to the actions of private parties. 676 F. Supp. at 284.
7 Consequently, the district court did not enjoin third parties from 8 locating mining claims. Once an unpatented mining claim has been 9 properly located on the ground, "[t]he owner . . . shall file
10 within 90 days after the date of location of that claim or site in 11 the proper BLM office, a copy of the official record of the notice
12 or certification of location of that claim or site that was or 13 will be filed under state law." 43 C.F.R. § 3833.1-2(a). Failure
14 to file such a notice of location is deemed a conclusive abandon-
15 ment of the mining claim. Id. § 3833.4.

16 The Preliminary Injunction states specifically that 17 "[n]othing in this order shall be construed to prohibit or affect 18 . . . [t]he acceptance by the Department of the Interior of fil-
19 ings required to be made by Federal law." 24 Env't Rep. Cas.
20 (BNA) 1082, at 1088 (D.D.C. Feb. 10, 1986). Because filing a
21 notice of location is required by federal law for the owner of an
22 unpatented mining claim to retain his interest, the Preliminary
23 Injunction specifically does not prohibit the claim owner from 24 making such filing or the BLM from accepting such filing. Id. No
25 action beyond the acceptance of that filing is required of BLM.
26 Thus, BLM's acceptance of the notice of locations filings for the

1 Subject Claims would not have violated the Preliminary Injunction.
2 Because the BLM's acceptance of the notice of location filings for
3 the subject claims is not prohibited by the terms of the Prelimi-
4 nary Injunction, the BLM decisions should be reversed.

5 C. Notation Rule Issues.

6 Although there is nothing clearly explicit in the BLM
7 decisions that the BLM relied upon the notation rule to hold the 8 Subject Claims invalid, in anticipation of the possibility that
9 the BLM may raise this issue in its answer and that appellant may 10 not have the opportunity to reply to such answer, the notation
11 rule will be addressed here. It is appellant's position that (1)
12 the notation rule does not apply to segregations terminated by 13 force of law and (2) even if the notation rule did apply (a) it
14 was satisfied in this case and (b) the National Wildlife
15 Federation Preliminary Injunction applies only to the termination
16 of classifications and withdrawals and has nothing to do with 17 segregations being extended by the notation rule.

18 1. The Notation Rule Does Not Apply in This Case.

19 By way of introduction, the notation rule has been
20 applied to prevent any appropriation of public lands when the BLM
21 land office records reflect a segregation of those lands from 22 appropriation regardless of whether the basis for the segregation
23 is void or voidable. See B. J. Toohey et al., 88 IBLA 66, 77
24 (1985). The Preliminary Injunction did not stay the effect of the 25 notice of Termination of Classifications published on October 7,
26 1981 because that notice had no effect. As discussed in section

1 A.1, supra, classification and segregation of the lands on which
2 the Subject Claims are located were terminated automatically by
3 the provisions of the C&MUA and the regulations thereunder. This
4 Board has held clearly that the notation rule does not apply in
5 instances where a segregation has terminated automatically by
6 statute or by regulation. In Toohy et al., supra, this Board
7 dealt with automatic terminations of segregations under FLPMA.
8 The applicable section in FLPMA provides:

9 The segregative effect of the application [for
10 a withdrawal] shall terminate upon (a) rejection
11 of the application by the Secretary, (b)
12 withdrawal of lands by the Secretary, or (c)
13 the expiration of two years from the date of 14 the notice [published in the Federal Register].

15 43 U.S.C. § 1714(b)(1). In dealing with this automatic statutory
16 termination of a segregation, this Board held:

17 Apparent from the above is that Congress
18 has mandated specific moments when the segregative
19 effect of withdrawal applications shall terminate by 20 operation of law. Pertinent to this case, that moment
21 would be 2 years from the date of the Federal Register
22 notice regarding the filing of Forest Service withdrawal
23 application AA-23139. The required Federal Register
24 notice for this withdrawal application published December
25 5, 1978, at 43 FR 57134-57137. Hence, in the absence 26 of rejection or approval of the application, its segregative effect automatically terminated on December 5, 1980. The Departmental regulations which implement the withdrawal provisions of section 204 of FLPMA are found at 43 CFR Part 2300.

 Against this backdrop, appellants contend that the Department is in violation of the will
 of Congress in permitting a continuing MTP
 notation of Forest Service withdrawal application AA-23139 to preclude other appropriation
 of the public lands subsequent to December 5,

1 1980, the date the segregative effect of AA-
2 23139 terminated by statute. We agree. While
3 we have held that the notation rule represents
4 a valid administrative device for managing the
5 status and disposition of public lands, we have
6 also noted that the Department can regulate it
7 out of existence whenever it desires. So, of
8 course, may Congress and it has done this by,
9 inter alia, precluding any segregative effect
10 to withdrawal applications filed after
11 October 21, 1976, after 2 years from the date
12 such applications are noted in the Federal 13 Register. It was therefore error for BLM to 14 extend application of the notation rule to
15 Forest Service withdrawal application AA-23139
16 as grounds for rejecting appellants' mining
17 claim locations effected in 1981.

18 88 IBLA at 96. (emphasis added). Similarly, as discussed in 19 section A.1 above, the segregative effect of the classification of 20 the lands on which the Subject Claims are located expired auto-
21 matically by operation of law both by virtue of section 4 of the 22 C&MUA and the regulations in 43 C.F.R. § 2462.4(c). Therefore, it
23 is clear that the notation rule could not have operated in this 24 case to continue the segregation of the subject lands beyond the 25 latest date provided for by Congress and the regulations, i.e.,
26 November 13, 1973.

2. The Segregation of The Subject Lands Would Not Continue Even if the Notation Rule Applies.

Assuming arguendo, that the notation rule applied to the lands on which the Subject Claims are located, this rule was satisfied by the notice of Termination of Classification published on October 7, 1981. The notation rule has been described as an equal protection doctrine grounded in fairness by giving the pub-

1 lic at large equal notice of the opening of public lands. Toohey
2 et al. at 78. This purpose was carried out by the notice of
3 Termination of Classification published on October 7, 1981. The 4 public was advised by that notice that, "on October 29, 1981,
5 these lands will be open to location under the United States min-
6 ing laws." Therefore, even though this notice of termination of 7 segregation was not necessary because these lands had already
8 opened in 1970 by operation of law, the Subject Claims were locat-
9 ed on these lands after the date on which the public had notice of 10 the segregation termination.

11 Further, assuming arguendo that the notation rule re-
12 quired this segregation to be eliminated by the notice of Termina-
13 tion of Classification, the Preliminary Injunction did not stay
14 the effect of publishing that notice of termination. The Prelimi-
15 nary Injunction had nothing to do with the segregation being con-
16 tinued by the notation rule. The injunction, by its own terms,
17 applies only to any "withdrawal or classification that was in 18 effect on January 1, 1981." 24 Env't. Rep. Cas. (BNA) at 1088.
19 As discussed above, the classification of the lands on which the 20 Subject Claims are located expired by operation of law in 1970.
21 Therefore, the Preliminary Injunction did not apply to stay the 22 effect, under the notation rule, of the superfluous notice of
23 Termination of Classification published on October 7, 1981.

3. The Notation Rule Does Not Apply to the Federal Register Publication of the Preliminary Injunction Order.

The district court's February 10, 1986 Preliminary Injunction Order was published in the Federal Register on February 18, 1986. 51 Fed. Reg. 5809. However, that notice cannot be construed as a notation on the public lands records giving the public notice of the court's reinstatement of the segregative effect of land classification A 450. The scope of "public lands records," for the purpose of applying the notation rule, is limited to the master title plat, historical index and other use plats located in BLM state offices. David Cavanagh, 89 IBLA 285, 297 n.7 (Nov. 8, 1985). Consequently, even if the notation rule applied to the Subject Lands, the notation rule would not apply to the Federal Register publication of the Preliminary Injunction Order.

III. Conclusions.

In light of the foregoing it is clear that the BLM decision dated October 17, 1988, should be reversed and the Subject Claims reinstated. This Board is hereby respectfully requested to enter its order accordingly.

Civil Action
No. 85-2238

AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

INTRODUCTION

1. This case challenges the Department of the Interior's conduct of its "land withdrawal review program.", Under that program, the defendants have revoked withdrawals involving over 170 million acres of public lands. Another 50 million acres remain to be reviewed. This suit alleges, among other things, that the defendant's land withdrawal review program unlawfully fails to require analysis of proposed withdrawal revocations in land use plans and environmental impact statements, is being conducted without regulations, fails to provide for public participation in decisionmaking, and fails to provide for Congressional and Presidential review of proposed withdrawal revocations.

2. This suit is brought under provisions of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, 42 U.S.C. §§4321 et seq.; the Federal Land Policy and Management Act, 43 U.S.C. §§1701 et seq.; and the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. §§551 et seq.

JURISDICTION

3. This Court has jurisdiction of this action under 28 U.S.C. §1331(a) (federal question jurisdiction) and 28 U.S.C. §1346 (suits against agencies and officers of the United States).

4. The claims raised in this suit arise under provisions of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), 42 U.S.C. §§4321 et seq.; the Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA), 43 U.S.C. §§1701 et seq.; and the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), 5 U.S.C. §§551 et seq. The relief sought is authorized by 28 U.S.C. §2201 (declaratory judgments) and 28 U.S.C. §2202 (injunctive relief). Venue is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. §1391(e). There is a present and actual controversy between the parties to this action.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff National Wildlife Federation (NWF) has over 4.5 million members and supporters and is the nation's largest non-profit private conservation organization. Incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia in 1939, NWF is dedicated to the wise use and management of the nation's natural resources. NWF has affiliate organizations and individual members in each of the 50 states and the District of Columbia.

6. NWF and its members are suffering and will continue to suffer injury in fact as a result of the challenged actions. Members of NWF use and enjoy the environmental resources that will be adversely affected by the challenged actions. They regularly use these resources for fishing, hunting, bird and wildlife watching, canoeing and boating, hiking, camping, and other similar activities. These persons' use and enjoyment of these resources will be irreparably injured if the defendants are permitted to terminate protective land use restrictions and thereby open up public lands to exploration, development, and disposal, without the development of land use plans, without prior preparation of adequate environmental impact statements, and without compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and procedures. Among other things, the challenged actions will adversely affect plaintiff and its members by destroying fish and wildlife habitat, and by impairing natural beauty.

Further, NWF and its members suffer injury in that they have been and continue to be denied information on the potential impacts of, and alternatives to, defendants' actions and have been denied the opportunity to participate in defendants' decision-making. Further NWF and its members have suffered injury by reason of their elected representatives, including the President of the United States and members of Congress, having been denied the opportunity and responsibility to participate in defendants' decision-making.

7. Plaintiff and its members are within the zone of interests sought to be protected by the Federal Land Policy and Management Act, the National Environmental Policy Act, and the Administrative Procedure Act.

8. Defendant, Donald P. Hodel is the Secretary of defendant United States Department of the Interior and is charged by law and regulations with the responsibility of administering and enforcing the Federal Land Policy and Management Act and complying with the provisions of the National Environmental Policy Act and the Administrative Procedure Act. He is sued in his official capacity.

9. Defendant Robert F. Burford is the Director of the Bureau of Land Management. Defendant Burford is charged by law and regulations with the responsibility for managing the public lands in compliance with the Federal Land Policy and Management Act, the National Environmental Policy Act, and the Administrative Procedure Act. He is sued in his official capacity.

10. Defendant, United States Department of the Interior, including therein the Bureau of Land Management, is a department and agency of the United States.

11. Plaintiff has made several attempts to resolve the claims raised in this Complaint. On August 14, 1984, plaintiff delivered a letter to Secretary Clark setting forth plaintiff's claims. On January 29, 1985, plaintiff delivered a letter to defendant Hodel substantially setting forth these claims again. On April 2, 1985, plaintiff delivered a letter to defendant Burford setting forth these same claims in additional detail. On April 22, 1985, representatives of the plaintiff met with defendant Burford and members of his staff to discuss these claims. Additional meetings between representatives of both plaintiff and defendants were held on June 5, 1985, and June 19, 1985. Considerable correspondence has been exchanged between the parties. However, no resolution of this case has been achieved as a result of these efforts.

On November 16, 1988, Phelps Dodge Corporation, appellant, appealed the decision of the Arizona State Office of the Bureau of Land Management dated October 17, 1988, declaring the above-captioned lode mining claims null and void, ab initio. Appellant appealed the October 17, 1988, decision on the ground that it is contrary to law and policy of the United States Department of the Interior as more fully set forth in the following Statement of Reasons in Support of Appeal.

6 cers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys and those persons in active concert or participation with them are hereby enjoined
from:

7 (a) modifying, terminating, or
8 revoking in full or in part, under the Federal
9 Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA), any withdrawal or classification that was in effect on January 1, 1981; or

10 (b) taking any action inconsistent
11 with the specific restrictions of a withdrawal
12 or classification in effect on January 1,
13 1981, including, but not limited to, the iss-
14 uance of leases, the sale, exchange or disposal of land or interests in land, the granting of
operations;

15 (2) Terminations or modifications under
16 the FLPMA of classifications and revocations
17 or modifications under the FLPMA of with-

20 (a) The acceptance by the Depart-
21 ment of the Interior of filings required to be made by federal law

22 The appellant asserts that the National Wildlife
23 Federation injunction does not apply to the Subject Claims, and
25 set forth below.

1 II. Legal Argument

2 A. The Preliminary Injunction Does Not Apply to Lands
3 Included in Land Classification A 450.

4 1. The Segregative Effect of A 450 Expired By
5 Operation of Law.

6 The 1966 Notice of Proposed Classification (A 450)
7 recites that, pursuant to the Act of September 19, 1964 (43
8 U.S.C. § 1412, now expired) (the Classification and Multiple Use
9 Act, "C&MUA") and to the regulations in 43 C.F.R. § 2410.1-3
10 (1969), it is proposed to classify the lands for disposal through
11 exchange under the Act of June 28, 1934 (43 U.S.C. § 315g, 12 repealed in 1976) (the Taylor Grazing Act). The notice states
13 that its publication will segregate the lands from all other
14 forms of appropriation including location under the mining laws.
15 The 1968 order classified the lands pursuant to the C&MUA for 16 disposal through exchange under the Taylor Grazing Act.

17 Section 1(b) of the C&MUA required the Secretary to 18 determine which public lands shall be classified as suitable for 19 disposal and which lands are more suitable for retention in fed-
20 eral ownership. Section 4 of the C&MUA provides in part:

21 Lands classified for sale or other disposal
22 shall be offered for sale or such other dispos-
23 al within two years of the date of publication
24 of the proposed classification and if not so
25 offered for sale or other disposal the segrega-
26 tive effect shall cease at the expiration of two years from the date of publication. The proposed classification or proposed sale or other disposal may be continued beyond the two-year period if notice of such proposed continuance, including a statement of necessity for

1 continued segregation, is submitted to the
2 President of the Senate and the Speaker of the
3 House of Representatives and published in the 4 Federal Register not more than ninety days nor
5 less than thirty days prior to the expiration
6 of the two-year period specified herein; and
7 thereupon the segregative effect shall be
8 extended for such additional period as is spec-
9 ified in the notice, not exceeding two years,
10 unless Congress or the Secretary of the 11 Interior terminates the segregation at any 12 earlier date.

15 The termination provisions in section 4 of the C&MUA were ex-
16 plained in simple terms in the Senate Committee Report:

17 Lands classified for disposal shall be offered
18 within 2 years after the date of publication of 19 the proposed classification, and if not of-
20 fered, the segregation effect shall cease. A
21 disposal classification may be extended beyond
22 2 years, however, for not to exceed 2 addition-
23 al years upon notification spelled out in the 24 Act.

25 S. Rep. No. 1506, 88th Cong., 2d Sess. (1964), reprinted in 64
26 U.S. Code Cong. & Admin. News 3755, 3757.

The regulations in effect prior to the subject classification orders (43 C.F.R. § 2411.1-2(e)(3) (1969)) and the present
regulations (43 C.F.R. § 2462.4(c) (1988)) provide that the segregative effect of a classification under the C&MUA for sale or other disposal "will terminate" in one of the following ways:

- (1) Disposal of the lands;
- (2) Publication in the Federal Register of the notice of termination of the classification;
- (3) An Act of Congress;

1 (4) Expiration of 2 years from the date of publication
2 of the proposed classification without disposal of
3 the land and without the notice of proposed con-
4 tinuance as prescribed by the Classification and
5 Multiple Use Act; or

6 (5) Expiration of an additional period, not exceeding
7 two years, if the required notice of proposed con-
8 tinuance is given.

9 Therefore, under the express provisions of both the C&MUA and the 10 regulations, it is clear that the latest date to which this segre-
11 gation could have extended would have been December 7, 1970, four 12 years after the date of publication of the notice, even if there
13 had been a continuance of the segregation as provided for in the 14 C&MUA. At least by December 8, 1970, this segregation terminated
15 by operation of the C&UMA and the regulations.

16 The Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals has observed that a
17 segregation by classification for disposal under the C&MUA expires
18 automatically at the end of the periods provided for in the sta-
19 tute. In Buch v. Morton, 449 F.2d 600 (9th Cir. 1971), the court
20 compared the language of the C&MUA with the Recreation and Public
21 Purposes Act which later Act provides that if, within eighteen
22 months following such a classification, no application has been
23 filed for the purpose for which the lands have been so classified,
24 then "the Secretary shall restore such lands to appropriation
25 under the applicable public land laws." 43 U.S.C. § 869(a). The 26 court held that under this language, it would be necessary for the

1 Secretary to take some action to terminate the segregation. In
2 contrast, the court observed that if Congress had intended to make
3 the termination of a segregation self-executing it could have said
4 so and referred to the C&MUA Act as a statute in which the expira-
5 tion of the segregation is automatic at the end of the periods
6 prescribed by that statute. 449 F.2d at 607. The court stated
7 that section 4 of the C&MUA "declares in unambiguous terms that if
8 the land is not offered for sale or other disposal under the Act,
9 'the segregative effect shall cease at the expiration of two years
10 from the date of publication.'" Id.

11 The segregative effect of land classification A 450 seg-
12 regating the lands from all appropriations including location
13 under the mining laws terminated by operation of law no later than 14 December 8, 1970. BLM's termination of land classification A 450
15 in 1981 was unnecessary and had no effect, since the segregation
16 had expired at least eleven years earlier. Thus, on January 1, 17 1981, the land was not segregated or classified for disposal and 18 was open for location under the mining laws.

19 The court's order in National Wildlife Federation v.
20 Burford, 676 F. Supp. 280 (D.D.C. 1986) enjoined the BLM only from 21 modifying or terminating, under FLPMA, any classification "that
22 was in effect on January 1, 1981" or taking any action
23 inconsistent with the specific restrictions of a classification
24 "in effect on January 1, 1981." In explaining its order, the court
25 stated only that the classification savings provision in section
26 701(c) of FLPMA extended all "existing classifications 'until

1 modified under the provisions of this Act [FLPMA] or other appli-
2 cable laws." Id. at 284-85 (emphasis added). The classification
3 of the lands on which the Subject Claims are located is not an
4 "existing classification" because it terminated at least by 1970
5 "under the provisions of . . . other applicable laws" found in
6 section 4 of the C&MUA and 43 C.F.R. § 2462.4(c) (1988).

7 The injunction applies solely to the BLM affirmatively
8 terminating, or taking any action inconsistent with, any with-
9 drawal or classification that was "in effect on January 1981'."
10 Id. at 286 (emphasis added). The order suspends classification
11 terminations or modifications under FLPMA "occurring since
12 January 1, 1981." Id. (emphasis added). The injunction could not 13 apply to classifications terminated at any time by operation of an 14 act of Congress and the injunction, by its terms, does not apply
15 to terminations of classifications which were not "in effect on 16 January 1, 1981." The A 450 classification expired by operation
17 of law, and not through any BLM action, no later than December 8,
18 1970, and was not in effect on January 1, 1981. Any BLM action
19 since 1970 involving those lands could not have been inconsistent
20 with this nonexistent classification. Therefore, for these rea-
21 sons alone, the BLM Decisions should be reversed.

22 2. The National Wildlife Federation Litigation Is 23 Not Directed Toward Land Disposal Classifica-
24 tions.

25 The National Wildlife Federation asserted that it and its 26 members are suffering continued injury in fact as the result of BLM's terminating "protective land use restrictions." It further

1 asserted that these objectionable terminations will result in
2 development or disposal of the involved lands, eliminating their
3 use by National Wildlife Federation members for fishing, hunting,
4 and other recreational activities. National Wildlife Federation
5 Amended Complaint, page 3. ^{Exhibit 2.} ^ The Complaint was filled with refer-6 ences to protective land classifications and the irreparable
7 injury arising out of termination of those classifications.

8 The National Wildlife Federation suit is directed against
9 termination of classifications whose purpose is to retain public
10 lands and affirmatively manage them for some public resource use.
11 Clearly, the National Wildlife Federation injunction should not be 12 applied to land disposal classifications. Such classifications
13 are not protective of the public lands, but are for the purpose of 14 allowing certain lands to be conveyed from federal ownership into 15 private or state ownership for use with no federal land management
16 protective regulation. If land classification A 450 had not auto-
17 matically expired, and if the Preliminary Injunction were applied
18 to those lands within which the Subject Claims are located, it
19 would, in effect, reestablish the land disposal classification
20 which was terminated in 1981. This would result in the land being 21 transferred from a more protected classification category of
22 retention in federal ownership to a less protected classification
23 category for disposal from federal ownership. Such a result would 24 run counter to the purpose of the National Wildlife Federation
25 lawsuit and the Preliminary Injunction.

1 The National Wildlife Federation asserted standing to
2 bring its complaint because:

3 NWF and its members are suffering and will
4 continue to suffer injury in fact as a result
5 of the challenged actions. Members of NWF use
6 and enjoy the environmental resources that will
7 be adversely affected by the challenged actions
8 These persons' use and enjoyment of
9 these resources will be irreparably injured if
10 the defendants are permitted to terminate pro-
11 tective land use restrictions. . . .

13 is land classification A 450 not a "protective land use restric-
14 tion," but the National Wildlife Federation failed to assert facts
15 demonstrating that its members would suffer irreparable injury if 16 the classification of these lands for disposal were terminated.
17 Consequently, the National Wildlife Federation would not have had 18 standing to seek injunctive relief against the Bureau of Land
19 Management regarding land disposal classification A 450.

20 Because the National Wildlife Federation Complaint was 21 not directed toward retaining BLM disposal classifications, and 22 because the National Wildlife Federation has not shown the injury
23 necessary for standing to seek injunctive relief with respect to 24 the lands involved in this case, the Preliminary Injunction should 25 not be applied to lands included in land classification A 450, and 26 the BLM decision declaring the Subject Claims null and void, ab initio, should be reversed.

3. The Location of Mining Claims Is Not Conceptually Inconsistent With Land Classifications For Disposal.

Land classification A 450 classified lands for disposal of complete fee title. The location of mining claims is initially only a disposal of a possessory interest which may revert to the United States or which may only possibly result in the eventual disposal of fee title. The location of the Subject Claims created a mere possessory interest in some of the lands classified for complete fee disposal under land classification A 450. Such a partial disposal would not be inconsistent with the complete fee disposal purposes of A 450, and should not violate the Preliminary Injunction. Although in a different context, the district court itself recognized that even a classification for retention could allow some forms of limited disposal which would be consistent with the purposes of that retention classification. 676 F. Supp. at 285. If a partial disposal of title can be consistent with a retention classification, clearly allowing the disposal of a mere possessory interest would be conceptually consistent with a complete fee disposal classification. Because partial disposal through disposal of a mere possessory interest in a mining claim would not be inconsistent with the complete fee disposal authorized by land classification A 450, the Preliminary Injunction should not apply and the BLM decisions should be reversed.

1 B. Even If the Preliminary Injunction Applies, the BLM
2 Decisions Should Be Reversed and the Subject Claims
3 Reinstated because BLM Acceptance of the Subject
 Claims Location Notices Is Not Prohibited By the Terms of The Preliminary Injunction.

4 The National Wildlife Federation Preliminary Injunction
5 enjoins the actions only of the federal government, and does not
6 apply to the actions of private parties. 676 F. Supp. at 284.
7 Consequently, the district court did not enjoin third parties from 8 locating mining claims. Once an unpatented mining claim has been 9 properly located on the ground, "[t]he owner . . . shall file
10 within 90 days after the date of location of that claim or site in 11 the proper BLM office, a copy of the official record of the notice
12 or certification of location of that claim or site that was or 13 will be filed under state law." 43 C.F.R. § 3833.1-2(a). Failure
14 to file such a notice of location is deemed a conclusive abandon-
15 ment of the mining claim. Id. § 3833.4.

16 The Preliminary Injunction states specifically that 17 "[n]othing in this order shall be construed to prohibit or affect 18 . . . [t]he acceptance by the Department of the Interior of fil-
19 ings required to be made by Federal law." 24 Env't Rep. Cas.
20 (BNA) 1082, at 1088 (D.D.C. Feb. 10, 1986). Because filing a
21 notice of location is required by federal law for the owner of an
22 unpatented mining claim to retain his interest, the Preliminary
23 Injunction specifically does not prohibit the claim owner from 24 making such filing or the BLM from accepting such filing. Id. No
25 action beyond the acceptance of that filing is required of BLM.
26 Thus, BLM's acceptance of the notice of locations filings for the

1 Subject Claims would not have violated the Preliminary Injunction.
2 Because the BLM's acceptance of the notice of location filings for
3 the subject claims is not prohibited by the terms of the Prelimi-
4 nary Injunction, the BLM decisions should be reversed.

5 C. Notation Rule Issues.

6 Although there is nothing clearly explicit in the BLM
7 decisions that the BLM relied upon the notation rule to hold the
8 Subject Claims invalid, in anticipation of the possibility that
9 the BLM may raise this issue in its answer and that appellant may 10 not have the opportunity to reply to such answer, the notation
11 rule will be addressed here. It is appellant's position that (1)
12 the notation rule does not apply to segregations terminated by 13 force of law and (2) even if the notation rule did apply (a) it
14 was satisfied in this case and (b) the National Wildlife
15 Federation Preliminary Injunction applies only to the termination
16 of classifications and withdrawals and has nothing to do with 17 segregations being extended by the notation rule.

18 1. The Notation Rule Does Not Apply in This Case.

19 By way of introduction, the notation rule has been
20 applied to prevent any appropriation of public lands when the BLM
21 land office records reflect a segregation of those lands from 22 appropriation regardless of whether the basis for the segregation
23 is void or voidable. See B. J. Toohey et al., 88 IBLA 66, 77
24 (1985). The Preliminary Injunction did not stay the effect of the 25 notice of Termination of Classifications published on October 7,
26 1981 because that notice had no effect. As discussed in section

1 A.1, supra, classification and segregation of the lands on which
2 the Subject Claims are located were terminated automatically by
3 the provisions of the C&MUA and the regulations thereunder. This
4 Board has held clearly that the notation rule does not apply in
5 instances where a segregation has terminated automatically by
6 statute or by regulation. In Toohy et al., supra, this Board
7 dealt with automatic terminations of segregations under FLPMA.
8 The applicable section in FLPMA provides:

9 The segregative effect of the application [for 10 a withdrawal] shall terminate upon (a) rejec-
11 tion of the application by the Secretary, (b)
12 withdrawal of lands by the Secretary, or (c)
13 the expiration of two years from the date of 14 the notice [published in the Federal Register].

15 43 U.S.C. § 1714(b)(1). In dealing with this automatic statutory 16 termination of a segregation, this Board held:

17 Apparent from the above is that Congress
18 has mandated specific moments when the segrega-19 tive effect of withdrawal applications shall 20 terminate by operation of law. Pertinent to 21 this case, that moment would be 2 years from
22 the date of the Federal Register notice regard-
23 ing the filing of Forest Service withdrawal
24 application AA-23139. The required Federal
25 Register notice for this withdrawal application
26 published December 5, 1978, at 43 FR
27 57134-57137. Hence, in the absence of
28 rejection or approval of the application, its 29 segregative effect automatically terminated on
30 December 5, 1980. The Departmental regulations
31 which implement the withdrawal provisions of 32 section 204 of FLPMA are found at 43 CFR Part 33 2300.

34 Against this backdrop, appellants contend
35 that the Department is in violation of the will
36 of Congress in permitting a continuing MTP
37 notation of Forest Service withdrawal applica-
38 tion AA-23139 to preclude other appropriation

1 of the public lands subsequent to December 5,
2 1980, the date the segregative effect of AA-
3 23139 terminated by statute. We agree. While
4 we have held that the notation rule represents
5 a valid administrative device for managing the 6 status and disposition of public lands, we have
7 also noted that the Department can regulate it
8 out of existence whenever it desires. So, of
9 course, may Congress and it has done this by,
10 inter alia, precluding any segregative effect
11 to withdrawal applications filed after
12 October 21, 1976, after 2 years from the date
13 such applications are noted in the Federal 14 Register. It was therefore error for BLM to 15 extend application of the notation rule to
16 Forest Service withdrawal application AA-23139
17 as grounds for rejecting appellants' mining
18 claim locations effected in 1981.

11 88 IBLA at 96. (emphasis added). Similarly, as discussed in 12 section A.1 above, the segregative effect of the classification of 13 the lands on which the Subject Claims are located expired auto-
14 matically by operation of law both by virtue of section 4 of the 15 C&MUA and the regulations in 43 C.F.R. § 2462.4(c). Therefore, it
16 is clear that the notation rule could not have operated in this 17 case to continue the segregation of the subject lands beyond the 18 latest date provided for by Congress and the regulations, i.e.,
19 November 13, 1973.

20 2. The Segregation of The Subject Lands Would Not
21 Continue Even if the Notation Rule Applies.

22 Assuming arguendo, that the notation rule applied to the 23 lands on which the Subject Claims are located, this rule was 24 satisfied by the notice of Termination of Classification published 25 on October 7, 1981. The notation rule has been described as an 26

1 equal protection doctrine grounded in fairness by giving the pub-
2 lic at large equal notice of the opening of public lands. Toohey
3 et al. at 78. This purpose was carried out by the notice of
4 Termination of Classification published on October 7, 1981. The
5 public was advised by that notice that, "on October 29, 1981,
6 these lands will be open to location under the United States min-
7 ing laws." Therefore, even though this notice of termination of 8 segregation was not necessary because these lands had already
9 opened in 1970 by operation of law, the Subject Claims were locat-
10 ed on these lands after the date on which the public had notice of 11 the segregation termination.

12 Further, assuming arguendo that the notation rule re-
13 quired this segregation to be eliminated by the notice of Termina-
14 tion of Classification, the Preliminary Injunction did not stay
15 the effect of publishing that notice of termination. The Prelimi-
16 nary Injunction had nothing to do with the segregation being con-
17 tinued by the notation rule. The injunction, by its own terms, 18 applies only to any "withdrawal or classification that was in 19 effect on January 1, 1981." 24 Env't. Rep. Cas. (BNA) at 1088.
20 As discussed above, the classification of the lands on which the 21 Subject Claims are located expired by operation of law in 1970.
22 Therefore, the Preliminary Injunction did not apply to stay the 23 effect, under the notation rule, of the superfluous notice of 24 Termination of Classification published on October 7, 1981.

3. The Notation Rule Does Not Apply to the Federal Register Publication of the Preliminary Injunction Order.

The district court's February 10, 1986 Preliminary Injunction Order was published in the Federal Register on February 18, 1986. 51 Fed. Reg. 5809. However, that notice cannot be construed as a notation on the public lands records giving the public notice of the court's reinstatement of the segregative effect of land classification A 450. The scope of "public lands records," for the purpose of applying the notation rule, is limited to the master title plat, historical index and other use plats located in BLM state offices. David Cavanagh, 89 IBLA 285, 297 n.7 (Nov. 8, 1985). Consequently, even if the notation rule applied to the Subject Lands, the notation rule would not apply to the Federal Register publication of the Preliminary Injunction Order.

III. Conclusions.

In light of the foregoing it is clear that the BLM decision dated October 17, 1988, should be reversed and the Subject Claims reinstated. This Board is hereby respectfully requested to enter its order accordingly.

Dear Ms. Brownlee:

As we discussed during our telephone conversation of December 16, 1988, I am today sending by Federal Express an additional copy of the Statement of Reasons in support of the appeal of Phelps Dodge Corporation concerning A MC 289505 to -23 mining claims, Docket No. IBLA 89-91. Unlike the copy received by the Interior Board of Land Appeals on December 16, 1988, this additional copy includes an original signed signature page and exhibits.

For your convenience, we also are delivering to the Interior Board of Land Appeals on this date a telecopy facsimile of the signed signature page and exhibits.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

H. Barry Holt

Civil Action
No. 85-2238

AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

INTRODUCTION

1. This case challenges the Department of the Interior's conduct of its "land withdrawal review program." Under that program, the defendants have revoked withdrawals involving over 170 million acres of public lands. Another 50 million acres remain to be reviewed. This suit alleges, among other things, that the defendant's land withdrawal review program unlawfully fails to require analysis of proposed withdrawal revocations in land use plans and environmental impact statements, is being conducted without regulations, fails to provide for public participation in decisionmaking, and fails to provide for Congressional and Presidential review of proposed withdrawal revocations.

2. This suit is brought under provisions of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, 42 U.S.C. §§4321 et seq.; the Federal Land Policy and Management Act, 43 U.S.C. §§1701 et seq.; and the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. §§551 et seq.

JURISDICTION

3. This Court has jurisdiction of this action under 28 U.S.C. §1331(a) (federal question jurisdiction) and 28 U.S.C. §1346 (suits against agencies and officers of the United States).

4. The claims raised in this suit arise under provisions of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA), 42 U.S.C. §§4321 et seq.; the Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA), 43 U.S.C. §§1701 et seq.; and the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), 5 U.S.C. §§551 et seq. The relief sought is authorized by 28 U.S.C. §2201 (declaratory judgments) and 28 U.S.C. §2202 (injunctive relief). Venue is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. §1391(e). There is a present and actual controversy between the parties to this action.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff National Wildlife Federation (NWF) has over 4.5 million members and supporters and is the nation's largest non-profit private conservation organization. Incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia in 1939, NWF is dedicated to the wise use and management of the nation's natural resources. NWF has affiliate organizations and individual members in each of the 50 states and the District of Columbia.

6. NWF and its members are suffering and will continue to suffer injury in fact as a result of the challenged actions. Members of NWF use and enjoy the environmental resources that will be adversely affected by the challenged actions. They regularly use these resources for fishing, hunting, bird and wildlife watching, canoeing, and boating, hiking, camping, and other similar activities. These persons' use and enjoyment of these resources will be irreparably injured if the defendants are permitted to terminate protective land use restrictions and thereby open up public lands to exploration, development, and disposal, without the development of land use plans, without prior preparation of adequate environmental impact statements, and without compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and procedures. Among other things, the challenged actions will adversely affect plaintiff and its members by destroying fish and wildlife habitat, and by impairing natural beauty.

Further, NWF and its members suffer injury in that they have been and continue to be denied information on the potential impacts of, and alternatives to, defendants' actions and have been denied the opportunity to participate in defendants' decision-making. Further NWF and its members have suffered injury by reason of their elected representatives, including the President of the United States and members of Congress, having been denied the opportunity and responsibility to participate in defendants' decision-making.

7. Plaintiff and its members are within the zone of interests sought to be protected by the Federal Land Policy and Management Act, the National Environmental Policy Act, and the Administrative Procedure Act.

8. Defendant, Donald P. Hodel is the Secretary of defendant United States Department of the Interior and is charged by law and regulations with the responsibility of administering and enforcing the Federal Land Policy and Management Act and complying with the provisions of the National Environmental Policy Act and the Administrative Procedure Act. He is sued in his official capacity.

9. Defendant Robert F. Burford is the Director of the Bureau of Land Management. Defendant Burford is charged by law and regulations with the responsibility for managing the public lands in compliance with the Federal Land Policy and Management Act, the National Environmental Policy Act, and the Administrative Procedure Act. He is sued in his official capacity.

10. Defendant, United States Department of the Interior, including therein the Bureau of Land Management, is a department and agency of the United States.

11. Plaintiff has made several attempts to resolve the claims raised in this Complaint. On August 14, 1984, plaintiff delivered a letter to Secretary Clark setting forth plaintiff's claims. On January 29, 1985, plaintiff delivered a letter to defendant Hodel substantially setting forth these claims again. On April 2, 1985, plaintiff delivered a letter to defendant Burford setting forth these same claims in additional detail. On April 22, 1985, representatives of the plaintiff met with defendant Burford and members of his staff to discuss these claims. Additional meetings between representatives of both plaintiff and defendants were held on June 5, 1985, and June 19, 1985. Considerable correspondence has been exchanged between the parties. However, no resolution of this case has been achieved as a result of these efforts.

Memorandum

To: Board of Land Appeals, Office of the Secretary
From: Deputy State Director, Minerals, Arizona State Office
Subject: Transmitting Appeal of: Phelps Dodge Corporation
Kind of Application: Mining Claim Recordation

Referring to the above-cited case, I transmitted a notice of an appeal from the decision of the Chief, Branch of Lands and Minerals Operations _____ dated November 18, 19⁸⁸

- There are no conflicting cases of record.
- The conflicting cases shown on the status sheet have been properly noted as to the appeal and favorable action thereon suspended pending final action on the appeal.
- The records of the conflicting or reference cases identified below are transmitted herewith for use in connection with the appeal:

There were two decisions written in conjunction with these mining claims. One decision, the subject of this appeal, involved the LS-26 through 29; Round Ridge 1R-3R; Gamma 83R, 85R, 87R, 89R, 91R; Betta 81R, 85R, 87R, 90R, 92R, 94R (A MC 289505 through A MC 289523).

No appeal was filed on the second decision, which involved the Consolidated Metals 6R and 7R; Knob Hill 20R, 22R; Luly Belle R; (A MC 289524 through A MC 289528). Therefore, these claims were closed.

MEMORANDUM OPINION

This case, which concerns the status of approximately 180 million acres of public land, was first filed on July 15, 1985, more than three years ago. A brief summary of the ensuing proceedings is appropriate.

On December 4, 1985, this Court granted plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction enjoining any new withdrawal revocations and classification terminations, as well as any activities inconsistent with previous withdrawals and terminations. National Wildlife Federation v. Burford, 676 F. Supp. 271 (D.D.C. 1985). At the same time we denied plaintiff's motion to dismiss. On February 10, 1986, pursuant to the defendants' motion to clarify, the previous injunction of December 4, 1985 was modified to make it clear that it reached only the federal defendants, not the activities of absent third parties, and was not intended "to overturn or in any way to upset

On December 11, 1987, the Court of Appeals for this Circuit in a lengthy split opinion (Judge Williams dissenting), affirmed this court's grant of preliminary relief. National Wildlife Federation v. Burford, 835 F.2d 305 (D.C. Cir. 1987) ("Burford"). It first addressed certain preliminary matters such as the challenge to plaintiff's standing, the effect on absent third parties, plaintiff's failure to exhaust its administrative remedies, and laches. Burford, 835 F.2d at 310-18. Passing to the merits, the Court held that the plaintiff had met the conventional criteria for the grant of preliminary relief and sustained the injunction. It conceded that it was a "close case" but held that this court did not abuse its discretion in holding that the plaintiff had shown a likelihood of success on the merits. Id. at 319, 327.

On April 29, 1988, in a brief slip opinion, the Appellate Court denied defendants' petition for a rehearing. National Wildlife Federation v. Burford, Nos. 86-5239, 86-5240, slip op. (D.C. Cir. April 29, 1988) (per curiam). It noted the seriousness of the case and its belief that "some of the criticisms of the breadth and scope of the preliminary injunction offered in the vigorous dissent are not without force." Id. at 1. Commenting on the far-reaching effect of this court's action in placing the status of vast tracts of land on "hold" and the confusion arising from this unsettled state of affairs, it expressed its belief "that the disposition of these millions of acres should not continue to rest any longer than necessary on the foundation of a preliminary injunction which was entered on consideration of the brief affidavits and cursory materials presented to the court below." Id. (emphasis supplied). We were directed to proceed with this litigation "with dispatch." Id. This admonition was repeated by the Court of Appeals as recently as November 1, 1988, when it denied the defendants' emergency motion for a stay pending appeal. National Wildlife Federation v. Burford, No. 88-5291, slip op. (D.C. Cir. Nov. 1, 1988) (per curiam).

Present Posture

At issue is plaintiff's application for a permanent injunction. Pending before the Court are the motion of the defendants to dismiss and motions for summary judgment submitted by both parties. The matter had been extensively briefed.² Argument was held on July 22, 1988, at the conclusion of which the parties were directed to submit additional memoranda on the issue of plaintiff's standing to bring this suit. Transcript of July 22, 1988 at 91-2. All parties have responded.³

Standing

In its opinion the Court of Appeals, after applying the "injury in fact" analysis required by Section 702 of the Administrative Procedure Act, concluded that based on the allegations of the complaint, "the Federation has alleged facts sufficient to establish injury in fact to its members." Burford, 835 F.2d at 312. In so doing, it pointed out that it had to assume that the allegations of the complaint were true and must be construed in the light most favorable to the organization. Id. (citing Warth v. Seldin, 422 U.S. 490, 501 (1975)). More importantly, the issue of standing arose in the posture of defendant's motion to dismiss, which affected the degree of factual specificity required to be shown in order to establish the likelihood of personal injury to plaintiff's members. This distinction was emphasized in SCRAP,⁴ where a suit alleging injury to members based on their use and enjoyment of natural resources was held by the Supreme Court sufficient to survive a motion to dismiss. At the same time, the highest Court

³ Plaintiff, in addition to its memorandum filed August 22, 1988 has submitted additional evidentiary material, including declarations from four of its members. These submissions are untimely and in violation of our Order. We decline to consider them. See Federal Defendants' Reply to Plaintiff's Statement of Points and Authorities in Support of Its Standing to Proceed, at 1 n.1.

acknowledged that, on a motion for summary judgment, the plaintiff might have to show injury with greater specificity. See SCRAP, 412 U.S. at 689 & n.15. Our Court of Appeals has more recently spelled out the importance of this distinction. See Wilderness Society v. Griles, 824 F.2d 4, 16-17 (D.C. Cir. 1987) (Plaintiff's failure to show specificity of injury in response to defendant's motion for summary judgment precludes their standing, but case was reversed to permit plaintiff an opportunity for further discovery on this issue).⁵ The Court's affirmance of standing in the instant case must therefore be read in the context of the procedural posture of the case when that Court considered this issue. The dissenting opinion, while observing that "[a]t this point in the proceeding the issue of standing is largely academic" and that "the defendants appear to have conceded the bare minimum necessary for standing," emphasized that the "specificity required for standing allegations to secure a preliminary injunction will normally be no less than that required on a motion for summary judgment." Burford, 835 F.2d at 327-28 (Williams, J., concurring and dissenting). This is because plaintiff's burden of showing likelihood of success on the merits presupposes a preliminary finding that plaintiff has standing. See id. at 328. In light of the foregoing, we turn now to reconsider our earlier finding that plaintiff has standing to pursue this litigation. Plaintiff predicates its claim of standing on two types of injury, informational or procedural injury to it as an organization and environmental harm to its members, both caused by defendants' administration of the Land Withdrawal Review Program.⁶ Plaintiff's Memorandum in Support of Standing at 2.

Admittedly, the decisions on standing are not a model of consistency. However, it is generally agreed that, in order to satisfy the "case or controversy" requirement of the Constitution and Section 702 of the Administrative Procedure Act, the plaintiff must both plead and prove that it or its members have suffered some actual or threatened injury as the result of defendants' allegedly unlawful conduct. These requirements have been summarized by the Supreme Court in Valley Forge Christian College v. Americans United for the Separation of Church and State, 454 U.S. 464, 472 (1982), as follows:

at an irreducible minimum, Art. III requires the party who invokes the court's authority to "show that he personally has suffered some actual or threatened injury as a result of the putatively illegal conduct of the defendant," Gladstone, Realtors v. Village of Bellwood, 441 U.S. 91, 99 (1979), and that the injury "fairly can be traced to the challenged action" and "is likely to be redressed by a favorable decision," Simon v. Eastern Kentucky Welfare Rights Org., 426 U.S. 26, 38, 41 (1976).

It is not disputed that an organization may have standing

to bring suit on behalf of its members.⁷ Plaintiff's claim of injury to it as an organization rests upon its alleged inability 1) to obtain information as to the federal defendants' Land Withdrawal Review Program and the actions completed under such program, and 2) to participate in the federal defendants' decision making. It claims that it, as an organization, is entitled "to see and use" the kind of information that would have been available had the federal defendants completed environmental impact statements. Plaintiff's Statement in Support of Standing at 2-3. In sole support of this position, plaintiff has submitted the declaration of Lynn Greenwall, its Vice President for Resources Conservation. An analysis of the Greenwall declaration shows, after a description of the plaintiff's organization and the nature and size of its membership, the plaintiff's educational program to inform its members concerning conservation issues and their financial support for this purpose, a bare claim that plaintiff's ability to meet the obligations to its members has been significantly impaired by the failure of the Bureau of Land Management and the Department of Interior to provide adequate information and public participation with respect to the Land Withdrawal Review Program.

Plaintiff's Statement in Support of Standing at 5.

⁷ To do so, it must meet the three-prong test for representational standing set forth by the Supreme Court. Hunt v. Washington Apple Advertising Comm'n, 432 U.S. 333, 343 (1977). One of these requirements is that one or more of the organization's members has himself standing to sue.

It is apparent on its face that the Greenwall declaration is conclusory and completely devoid of specific facts. Plaintiff has the burden of proof on this issue and has failed to make a showing as to the existence of the elements essential to its case, i.e., its lack of adequate information and opportunity for public participation. See Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317 (1986). It has not done so. Its claim of informational and procedural injury to it as an organization is therefore without merit and provides no basis to support its claim of standing.⁸

Plaintiff's other claim of injury concerns alleged environmental harm to its members. Defendants do not challenge the fact that injury to the environment can support a claim of member standing, but rather they focus their attack on the particular showing of injury made in this case. Some useful guidelines have been set forth in Wilderness Society, 824 F.2d 4. Both Wilderness Society and the instant case concern vast tracts of land⁹ and do not involve allegations by a plaintiff that governmental action will be taken against it. Rather, they both

⁸ Although not required to do so, because defendants did not have the burden to disprove plaintiff's conclusory contention, defendants have advised plaintiff of the environmental documentation and the methodology employed and have made its extensive files containing such information available for plaintiff's inspection. The fact that no individual environmental impact statements were done in individual classification or withdrawal terminations adds nothing to plaintiff's claim of injury.

concern conduct of a third party whose possible response will injure plaintiff. As was said in Wilderness Society:

The standing question in these three-party cases frequently turns not on the issue of personal injury but rather on so-called causation issues, i.e., whether the third-party's decision is sufficiently dependent upon governmental action that the plaintiff's injury is "fairly traceable" to that action and is "likely to be redressed" by an order binding the government. . . . [citing Allen v. Wright, 468 U.S. 737 (1984) and other cases] When personal injury is at issue in a three-party case, it usually depends upon how likely it is that the third-party's response to the challenged governmental action will injure the plaintiff at all.

The Court in Wilderness Society concluded its discussion of this problem with the following language which is particularly relevant to the facts of the instant litigation:

To sum up, whether an allegation of threatened injury suffices for standing turns on the likelihood of the occurrence of that injury. . . . [T]he court must ascertain whether the third party's response to governmental action will . . . affect the plaintiff's intended behavior. Where the alleged injury involves access to land in a three party case, as in Sierra Club, SCRAP, and the case at bar, the judgment regarding the likelihood of injury turns on whether the plaintiff's future conduct will occur in the same location as the third party's response to the challenged governmental action. Otherwise, the threat of injury would be too amorphous or uncertain; it would be no greater for the plaintiff than for any person simply opposed to the governmental action in question. In short, the issue in each case is whether the plaintiff has put forward enough facts to show that his intended behavior will be injured as a direct or indirect result of the challenged governmental action.

Wilderness Society, 824 F.2d at 12 (emphasis supplied).

Plaintiff rests its entire claim of standing to sue for environmental injury on the affidavits of two persons, i.e., Peggy Peterson and Richard Erman. Both of their brief affidavits were filed on May 22, 1986.¹⁰ Neither appears to be referred to in plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment filed on June 23, 1986, which does not consider the question of plaintiff's standing.

The Peterson affidavit claims that she uses federal lands in the vicinity of the South Pass-Green Mountain area of Wyoming for recreational purposes and for aesthetic enjoyment and that her recreational and aesthetic enjoyment has been and continues to be adversely affected as the result of the decision of BLM to open it to the staking of mining claims and oil and gas leasing. Peterson Affidavit, filed May 22, 1986. This decision¹¹ opened up to mining approximately 4500 acres within a two million acre area, the balance of which, with the exception of 2000 acres, has always been open to mineral leasing and mining. See Kelly Affidavit attached to Federal Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment filed September 4, 1986.¹² There is no showing that

¹¹ Termination of Classification No. W-6228 referred to in Federal Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment, Statement of Facts at 6.

¹² The Kelly Affidavit sets forth in great detail the voluminous process started in 1977 and concluded in 1984 that the BLM office in Lander, Wyoming followed in reaching its decision

Peterson's recreational use and enjoyment extends to the particular 4500 acres covered by the decision to terminate classification to the remainder of the two million acres affected by the termination. All she claims is that she uses lands "in the vicinity." The affidavit on its face contains only a bare allegation of injury, and fails to show specific facts supporting the affiant's allegation.

The Erman Affidavit is similarly flawed. Erman asserts that he uses federal lands, including those in the vicinity of the Grand Canyon National Park, the Arizona Strip (Kanab Plateau), and the Kaibab National Forest for recreational purposes and for aesthetic enjoyment. He further asserts that his recreational use and aesthetic enjoyment of federal lands, particularly those in the vicinity of the Grand Canyon National Park and the Arizona Strip have been and continue to be adversely affected in fact by the unlawful actions of the Bureau and the Department, with particular reference to the opening to the staking of mining claims and the failure of the Bureau and the Department to provide notice of their proposals to terminate classifications and other withdrawals and to provide opportunities for public involvement. Erman Affidavit filed May 22, 1986. The magnitude of Erman's claimed injury stretches the imagination. As the affidavit of J. William Lamb shows, the Arizona Strip consists of

to terminate Classification No. W-6228. It completely answers plaintiff's claims of inadequate land use plans, lack of conformance determinations and insufficient opportunities for public participation.

all lands in Arizona north and west of the Colorado River on approximately 5.5 million acres, an area one-eighth the size of the State of Arizona. Furthermore, virtually the entire Strip is and for many years has been open to uranium and other metalliferous mining. The revocation of withdrawal concerned only non-metalliferous mining in the western one-third of the Arizona Strip, an area possessing no potential for non-metalliferous mining. See Lamb Affidavit, attached to Federal Defendant's Motion for Judgment.¹³

Both the Peterson and Erman Affidavits are vague, conclusory and lack factual specificity. They do not and cannot show "injury in fact" with respect to the two specific areas in Wyoming and Arizona in the vicinity of which these affiants claim to be located. More important, standing alone, these two affidavits do not provide any basis for standing to challenge, as violative of the Federal Land Policy Management Act, the legality of each of the 1250 or so individual classification terminations and withdrawal revocations. It should be noted that plaintiff's claims of injury reach hundreds of decisions affecting 180 million acres spread over seventeen states. Since plaintiff lacks standing in the constitutional sense or as an "aggrieved party" under Section 702 of the APA, we lack subject matter jurisdiction and dismiss for lack of standing.

¹³ The Lamb Affidavit also details the history of the several withdrawals and classifications placed on the public lands comprising the Arizona Strip. These commenced in 1930 and were terminated in 1981 after the passage of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act, 43 U.S.C. § 1701, et seq.

Merits

In view of the position taken that this Court lacks jurisdiction for lack of standing, it is not necessary that we reach the merits of plaintiff's claim for injunctive relief. The dissenting opinion of the Court of Appeals has mirrored many of these problems in its discussion of our grant of preliminary injunction presented as it was in response to defendant's motion to dismiss.

An Order consistent with the foregoing has been entered this day.

JOHN H. PRATT
United States District Judge

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management, Interior.

ACTION: Notice of Publication of Court Order.

SUMMARY: On February 10, 1986, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia rendered a memorandum opinion and order in the case of National Wildlife Federation v. Burford, Civil Action No. 85-2238. The court ordered the defendant to publish the order in the Federal Register. In compliance therewith, the order is hereby published:

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Civil Action No. 85-2238

Order

Upon consideration of plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction, defendants' opposition and plaintiff's reply, and

Finding that a preliminary injunction is necessary to preserve the relative positions of the parties until the case can be decided on the merits, and further

Finding that the plaintiff has shown a substantial likelihood of success on the merits, and further

Finding that plaintiff will suffer irreparable harm if the requested injunction is not issued, and further

Finding that issuance of the requested injunction would serve the public interest, it is by the court this 10th day of February, 1986,

Ordered that plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction is granted, and it is Ordered that—

(1) Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys and those persons in active concert or participation with them are hereby enjoined from:

(a) modifying, terminating, or revoking, in full or in part, under the Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA), any withdrawal or classification that was in effect on January 1, 1981; or

(b) taking any action inconsistent with the specific restrictions of a withdrawal or classification in effect on January 1, 1981, including, but not limited to, the issuance of leases, the sale, exchange or disposal of land or interests in land, the granting of rights-of-

way, or the approval of any plan of operations;

(2) Terminations or modifications under the FLPMA of classifications and revocations or modifications under the FLPMA of withdrawals occurring since January 1, 1981, are hereby suspended until further action by this court;

(3) Nothing in this order shall be construed to prohibit or affect:

(a) The acceptance by the Department of the Interior of filings required to be made by Federal law;

(b) State election and conveyance rights afforded to the State of Alaska by § 906 of the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act, 94 Stat. 2371 or

(c) Native conveyance rights afforded to Alaskan natives by the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, 85 Stat. 688, and the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act, 94 Stat. 2371;

(d) The construction of the All American Pipeline project pursuant to a right-of-way grant issued by the Bureau of Land Management on May 17, 1985;

(e) Any transactions or other activity of the Frisco Administrative Site No. 2 S1/2SE1/4, Section 26, Township 5 South, Range 78 West of the Sixth Principal Meridian in Summit County, Colorado.

(4) Defendants shall forthwith cause a copy of this order to be published in the Federal Register and posted and made available to the public in defendants' offices in any State where the order might affect any person.

(5) Pursuant to Rule 65(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, plaintiff shall post security for this injunction in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(6) Nothing in this order shall be construed to affect any party's right to appeal this order.

(7) This preliminary injunction shall take effect upon publication in the Federal Register or on the fifth day after this order is filed, whichever day occurs sooner, and it is

Further Ordered that the parties shall appear for a status call on February 19, 1986 at 9:30 a.m., Courtroom No. 12, United States Courthouse.

Bureau of Reclamation

[INT-DES 86-3]

Stagecoach Reservoir Project, Routt County, CO; availability and Public Hearings—Draft Environmental Statement

Pursuant to section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, as amended, the Department of the Interior has prepared a draft environmental statement on a proposed development that would provide water for agriculture, municipal and industrial uses, hydroelectric power generation, fish and wildlife, and recreation. The draft statement was made available to the public on February 12, 1986.

The draft statement presents a recommended plan and four alternatives. The recommended Stagecoach Reservoir Project would consist of Stagecoach Dam, Reservoir, and Powerplant and related facilities located on the Yampa River about 17 miles south of Steamboat Springs. The alternatives include a smaller and a larger reservoir at the Stagecoach Dam site, a similar reservoir at a different site on the Yampa River, and a no action alternative.

The Upper Yampa Water Conservancy District has applied for a loan and grant under provisions of the Small Reclamation Projects Act of 1956 (Pub. L. 84-984), as amended, to finance about 50 percent of the project costs. The remaining costs would be financed through a loan from the Colorado Water Conservation Board and through District funding. Because the Bureau of Reclamation is processing the Federal loan and grant applications, it has prepared the environmental statement.

Copies of the statement are available for inspection at the following locations:

Director Office of Environmental Affairs, Bureau of Reclamation, Room 7622, Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C. 20240, Telephone: (202) 343-4991

Property and Services Branch, Technical Publications and Library Branch, Engineering and Research Center, Code 960, Denver Federal Center, Denver, Colorado 80225, Telephone: (303) 236-5972

Regional Director, Bureau of Reclamation, Upper Colorado Regional Office, P.O. Box 11568, Salt Lake City, Utah 84147, Telephone: (801) 524-5580

Single copies of the statement may be obtained on request to the Director, Office of Environmental Affairs, or the Regional Director at the above addresses. Copies will also be available for inspection in libraries in the project vicinity.

To obtain views and comments from interested individuals and organizations relating to the environmental impacts of the proposed project, Reclamation will hold a public hearing at 3 p.m. on March 14, 1986, at the Community Center, 12th Street, Steamboat Springs, Colorado.

Oral statements will be limited to 10 minutes each. Speakers may not trade their time to obtain a longer oral presentation; however, the person conducting the hearing may allow any speaker additional opportunity to comment after all scheduled speakers have been heard. Whenever possible, speakers will be scheduled according to the time preference requested. Speakers not present when called will lose their turn in the scheduled order, but will be given an opportunity to speak at the end of the scheduled presentations. Requests for scheduled presentations will be accepted until 4 p.m., March 12, 1986. Subsequent requests will be handled at the hearing on a first-come first-served basis following the scheduled presentations. Organizations or individuals desiring to present statements at the hearings should contact the Regional Director in Salt Lake City by letter or telephone.

Oral and written statements presented at the hearing will be summarized and responded to in the final environmental statement. Written comments for the hearing record from individuals unable to attend and from those wishing to supplement their oral presentations at the hearings should be sent to the Regional Director, Salt Lake City, to be received by April 14, 1986. Written comments received by this date will be printed in full in the final environmental statement.

Dated: February 12, 1986.

C. Dale Duvall,

Commissioner.

(INT FEIS 81-05)

APS/E.D.G. & E. Interconnection
 Project

AGENCY: Bureau of Land Management (BLM), Interior.

ACTION: Notice of availability of the final environmental impact statement.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to section 102(2)(c) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, BLM has prepared a FEIS on a proposal by Arizona Public Service Company and San Diego Gas and Electric Company to construct and operate a 500 KV transmission system interconnecting their power networks. The draft and supplement were released in August 1980, and April 1981 respectively. The California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) was a joint lead agency for the preparation of this combined environmental document. The document also complies with the requirements of the California Environmental Quality Act.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Stan Wagner, Arizona State Office, Bureau of Land Management, 2400 Valley Bank Center, Phoenix, Arizona 85073, Phone: (602) 261-4127.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The BLM and CPUC have prepared a combined environmental document on a proposal by Arizona Public Service Company and San Diego Gas and Electric Company to construct a 500 KV transmission line and ancillary facilities from the Palo Verde Nuclear Generating Switchyard near Phoenix, Arizona, through the Yuma, Arizona area to the Miguel Substation near San Diego, California.

The document analyzes environmental effects of the proposal in addition to alternatives of various route alignments, no action, energy conservation and load management, alternative generating sources, and other transmission systems and technologies.

A limited number of copies are available upon request to the Arizona State Director, 2400 Valley Bank Center, Phoenix, Arizona.

Public reading copies will be available for review at the following locations:

Arizona: Termination of Classifications of Public Lands

September 21, 1981.

1. During the period 1966-1970, the Bureau of Land Management in Arizona made a number of classifications of the public land under the authority of the Act of September 19, 1964, the Classification and Multiple Use Act.

Most of these actions classified public land for retention in Federal ownership for multiple use management, and segregated the lands from application or entry under some or all of the public land laws. Typically, these multiple use management classifications segregated the public lands from application for public sale, and agricultural entry under the Homestead, Desert Land and Indian Allotment laws. Some classifications also excluded land exchanges, state selections, and mining claims.

A second type of classification identified lands as suitable for disposal under a particular public land law or laws such as state selection, exchange or the Recreation and Public Purposes Act.

These classifications also segregated the lands from appropriation under the other public land laws including the mining and mineral leasing laws.

2. These classifications have been determined to be no longer necessary. The Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976 (FLPMA) prescribed that the public lands be retained in Federal ownership and managed for multiple use unless land use planning procedures identify specific parcels for disposal or special management. FLPMA also repealed many of the public land laws that the classifications segregated the lands against. Public land managers now have the discretion to determine through land use planning the suitability of public land for disposal. Also, the surface management regulations in 43 CFR 3600 give the public land manager new authority to protect surface resources during exploration and mining operations.

NOTICE OF CLASSIFICATION OF PUBLIC LANDS FOR EXCHANGE

1. Pursuant to the Act of September 19, 1964 (43 U.S.C. 1411-15), notice is hereby given of the classification of the public lands described below for exchange to acquire privately owned lands within the Sitgreaves National Forest. These exchanges would be made under the authority of section 8 of the Taylor Grazing Act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1272) as amended by section 3 of the Act of June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1976; 43 U.S.C. 315g). As used herein "public lands" means any lands withdrawn or reserved by Executive Order No. 6910 of November 26, 1934, as amended, or within a grazing district established pursuant to the act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269), as amended, which are not otherwise withdrawn or reserved for a Federal use or purpose.

2. Publication of this notice has the effect of segregating the described lands from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws, including the mining and mineral leasing laws, except private exchanges.

3. Information concerning these lands may be received by inquiry at the office of the District Manager, Safford District, 1707 Thatcher Boulevard, Safford, Arizona. The lands affected are covered by pending petition-applications.

MEMORANDUM OPINION

This case, which concerns the status of approximately 180 million acres of public land, was first filed on July 15, 1985, more than three years ago. A brief summary of the ensuing proceedings is appropriate.

On December 4, 1985, this Court granted plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction enjoining any new withdrawal revocations and classification terminations, as well as any activities inconsistent with previous withdrawals and terminations. National Wildlife Federation v. Burford, 676 F. Supp. 271 (D.D.C. 1985). At the same time we denied plaintiff's motion to dismiss. On February 10, 1986, pursuant to the defendants' motion to clarify, the previous injunction of December 4, 1985 was modified to make it clear that it reached only the federal defendants, not the activities of absent third parties, and was not intended "to overturn or in any way to upset

On December 11, 1987, the Court of Appeals for this Circuit in a lengthy split opinion (Judge Williams dissenting), affirmed this court's grant of preliminary relief. National Wildlife Federation v. Burford, 835 F.2d 305 (D.C. Cir. 1987) ("Burford"). It first addressed certain preliminary matters such as the challenge to plaintiff's standing, the effect on absent third parties, plaintiff's failure to exhaust its administrative remedies, and laches. Burford, 835 F.2d at 310-18. Passing to the merits, the Court held that the plaintiff had met the conventional criteria for the grant of preliminary relief and sustained the injunction. It conceded that it was a "close case" but held that this court did not abuse its discretion in holding that the plaintiff had shown a likelihood of success on the merits. Id. at 319, 327.

On April 29, 1988, in a brief slip opinion, the Appellate Court denied defendants' petition for a rehearing. National Wildlife Federation v. Burford, Nos. 86-5239, 86-5240, slip op. (D.C. Cir. April 29, 1988) (per curiam). It noted the seriousness of the case and its belief that "some of the criticisms of the breadth and scope of the preliminary injunction offered in the vigorous dissent are not without force." Id. at 1. Commenting on the far-reaching effect of this court's action in placing the status of vast tracts of land on "hold" and the confusion arising from this unsettled state of affairs, it expressed its belief "that the disposition of these millions of acres should not continue to rest any longer than necessary on the foundation of a preliminary injunction which was entered on consideration of the brief affidavits and cursory materials presented to the court below." Id. (emphasis supplied). We were directed to proceed with this litigation "with dispatch." Id. This admonition was repeated by the Court of Appeals as recently as November 1, 1988, when it denied the defendants' emergency motion for a stay pending appeal. National Wildlife Federation v. Burford, No. 88-5291, slip op. (D.C. Cir. Nov. 1, 1988) (per curiam).

Present Posture

At issue is plaintiff's application for a permanent injunction. Pending before the Court are the motion of the defendants to dismiss and motions for summary judgment submitted by both parties. The matter had been extensively briefed.² Argument was held on July 22, 1988, at the conclusion of which the parties were directed to submit additional memoranda on the issue of plaintiff's standing to bring this suit. Transcript of July 22, 1988 at 91-2. All parties have responded.³

Standing

In its opinion the Court of Appeals, after applying the "injury in fact" analysis required by Section 702 of the Administrative Procedure Act, concluded that based on the allegations of the complaint, "the Federation has alleged facts sufficient to establish injury in fact to its members." Burford, 835 F.2d at 312. In so doing, it pointed out that it had to assume that the allegations of the complaint were true and must be construed in the light most favorable to the organization. Id. (citing Warth v. Seldin, 422 U.S. 490, 501 (1975)). More importantly, the issue of standing arose in the posture of defendant's motion to dismiss, which affected the degree of factual specificity required to be shown in order to establish the likelihood of personal injury to plaintiff's members. This distinction was emphasized in SCRAP,⁴ where a suit alleging injury to members based on their use and enjoyment of natural resources was held by the Supreme Court sufficient to survive a motion to dismiss. At the same time, the highest Court

³ Plaintiff, in addition to its memorandum filed August 22, 1988 has submitted additional evidentiary material, including declarations from four of its members. These submissions are untimely and in violation of our Order. We decline to consider them. See Federal Defendants' Reply to Plaintiff's Statement of Points and Authorities in Support of Its Standing to Proceed, at 1 n.1.

acknowledged that, on a motion for summary judgment, the plaintiff might have to show injury with greater specificity. See SCRAP, 412 U.S. at 689 & n.15. Our Court of Appeals has more recently spelled out the importance of this distinction. See Wilderness Society v. Griles, 824 F.2d 4, 16-17 (D.C. Cir. 1987) (Plaintiff's failure to show specificity of injury in response to defendant's motion for summary judgment precludes their standing, but case was reversed to permit plaintiff an opportunity for further discovery on this issue).⁵ The Court's affirmance of standing in the instant case must therefore be read in the context of the procedural posture of the case when that Court considered this issue. The dissenting opinion, while observing that "[a]t this point in the proceeding the issue of standing is largely academic" and that "the defendants appear to have conceded the bare minimum necessary for standing," emphasized that the "specificity required for standing allegations to secure a preliminary injunction will normally be no less than that required on a motion for summary judgment." Burford, 835 F.2d at 327-28 (Williams, J., concurring and dissenting). This is because plaintiff's burden of showing likelihood of success on the merits presupposes a preliminary finding that plaintiff has standing. See id. at 328. In light of the foregoing, we turn now to reconsider our earlier finding that plaintiff has standing to pursue this litigation. Plaintiff predicates its claim of standing on two types of injury, informational or procedural injury to it as an organization and environmental harm to its members, both caused by defendants' administration of the Land Withdrawal Review Program.⁶ Plaintiff's Memorandum in Support of Standing at 2.

Admittedly, the decisions on standing are not a model of consistency. However, it is generally agreed that, in order to satisfy the "case or controversy" requirement of the Constitution and Section 702 of the Administrative Procedure Act, the plaintiff must both plead and prove that it or its members have suffered some actual or threatened injury as the result of defendants' allegedly unlawful conduct. These requirements have been summarized by the Supreme Court in Valley Forge Christian College v. Americans United for the Separation of Church and State, 454 U.S. 464, 472 (1982), as follows:

at an irreducible minimum, Art. III requires the party who invokes the court's authority to "show that he personally has suffered some actual or threatened injury as a result of the putatively illegal conduct of the defendant," Gladstone, Realtors v. Village of Bellwood, 441 U.S. 91, 99 (1979), and that the injury "fairly can be traced to the challenged action" and "is likely to be redressed by a favorable decision," Simon v. Eastern Kentucky Welfare Rights Org., 426 U.S. 26, 38, 41 (1976).

It is not disputed that an organization may have standing

to bring suit on behalf of its members.⁷ Plaintiff's claim of injury to it as an organization rests upon its alleged inability 1) to obtain information as to the federal defendants' Land Withdrawal Review Program and the actions completed under such program, and 2) to participate in the federal defendants' decision making. It claims that it, as an organization, is entitled "to see and use" the kind of information that would have been available had the federal defendants completed environmental impact statements. Plaintiff's Statement in Support of Standing at 2-3. In sole support of this position, plaintiff has submitted the declaration of Lynn Greenwall, its Vice President for Resources Conservation. An analysis of the Greenwall declaration shows, after a description of the plaintiff's organization and the nature and size of its membership, the plaintiff's educational program to inform its members concerning conservation issues and their financial support for this purpose, a bare claim that plaintiff's ability to meet the obligations to its members

has been significantly impaired by the failure of the Bureau of Land Management and the Department of Interior to provide adequate information and public participation with respect to the Land Withdrawal Review Program.

⁷ To do so, it must meet the three-prong test for representational standing set forth by the Supreme Court. Hunt v. Washington Apple Advertising Comm'n, 432 U.S. 333, 343 (1977). One of these requirements is that one or more of the organization's members has himself standing to sue.

It is apparent on its face that the Greenwall declaration is conclusory and completely devoid of specific facts. Plaintiff has the burden of proof on this issue and has failed to make a showing as to the existence of the elements essential to its case, i.e., its lack of adequate information and opportunity for public participation. See Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317 (1986). It has not done so. Its claim of informational and procedural injury to it as an organization is therefore without merit and provides no basis to support its claim of standing.⁸

Plaintiff's other claim of injury concerns alleged environmental harm to its members. Defendants do not challenge the fact that injury to the environment can support a claim of member standing, but rather they focus their attack on the particular showing of injury made in this case. Some useful guidelines have been set forth in Wilderness Society, 824 F.2d 4. Both Wilderness Society and the instant case concern vast tracts of land⁹ and do not involve allegations by a plaintiff that governmental action will be taken against it. Rather, they both

⁸ Although not required to do so, because defendants did not have the burden to disprove plaintiff's conclusory contention, defendants have advised plaintiff of the environmental documentation and the methodology employed and have made its extensive files containing such information available for plaintiff's inspection. The fact that no individual environmental impact statements were done in individual classification or withdrawal terminations adds nothing to plaintiff's claim of injury.

⁹ Wilderness Society involved the selection by the State of Alaska of 100 million acres of federal land and Department of Interior's change of policy to exclude submerged lands from the total acreage to be conveyed to Alaska. See Wilderness Society, 824 F.2d at 7.

concern conduct of a third party whose possible response will injure plaintiff. As was said in Wilderness Society:

The standing question in these three-party cases frequently turns not on the issue of personal injury but rather on so-called causation issues, i.e., whether the third-party's decision is sufficiently dependent upon governmental action that the plaintiff's injury is "fairly traceable" to that action and is "likely to be redressed" by an order binding the government. . . . [citing Allen v. Wright, 468 U.S. 737 (1984) and other cases] When personal injury is at issue in a three-party case, it usually depends upon how likely it is that the third-party's response to the challenged governmental action will injure the plaintiff at all.

824 F.2d at 11 (citations omitted).

The Court in Wilderness Society concluded its discussion of this problem with the following language which is particularly relevant to the facts of the instant litigation:

To sum up, whether an allegation of threatened injury suffices for standing turns on the likelihood of the occurrence of that injury. . . . [T]he court must ascertain whether the third party's response to governmental action will . . . affect the plaintiff's intended behavior. Where the alleged injury involves access to land in a three party case, as in Sierra Club, SCRAP, and the case at bar, the judgment regarding the likelihood of injury turns on whether the plaintiff's future conduct will occur in the same location as the third party's response to the challenged governmental action. Otherwise, the threat of injury would be too amorphous or uncertain; it would be no greater for the plaintiff than for any person simply opposed to the governmental action in question. In short, the issue in each case is whether the plaintiff has put forward enough facts to show that his intended behavior will be injured as a direct or indirect result of the challenged governmental action.

Wilderness Society, 824 F.2d at 12 (emphasis supplied).

Plaintiff rests its entire claim of standing to sue for environmental injury on the affidavits of two persons, i.e., Peggy Peterson and Richard Erman. Both of their brief affidavits were filed on May 22, 1986.¹⁰ Neither appears to be referred to in plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment filed on June 23, 1986, which does not consider the question of plaintiff's standing.

The Peterson affidavit claims that she uses federal lands in the vicinity of the South Pass-Green Mountain area of Wyoming for recreational purposes and for aesthetic enjoyment and that her recreational and aesthetic enjoyment has been and continues to be adversely affected as the result of the decision of BLM to open it to the staking of mining claims and oil and gas leasing. Peterson Affidavit, filed May 22, 1986. This decision¹¹ opened up to mining approximately 4500 acres within a two million acre area, the balance of which, with the exception of 2000 acres, has always been open to mineral leasing and mining. See Kelly Affidavit attached to Federal Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment filed September 4, 1986.¹² There is no showing that

¹¹ Termination of Classification No. W-6228 referred to in Federal Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment, Statement of Facts at 6.

¹² The Kelly Affidavit sets forth in great detail the voluminous process started in 1977 and concluded in 1984 that the BLM office in Lander, Wyoming followed in reaching its decision

Peterson's recreational use and enjoyment extends to the particular 4500 acres covered by the decision to terminate classification to the remainder of the two million acres affected by the termination. All she claims is that she uses lands "in the vicinity." The affidavit on its face contains only a bare allegation of injury, and fails to show specific facts supporting the affiant's allegation.

The Erman Affidavit is similarly flawed. Erman asserts that he uses federal lands, including those in the vicinity of the Grand Canyon National Park, the Arizona Strip (Kanab Plateau), and the Kaibab National Forest for recreational purposes and for aesthetic enjoyment. He further asserts that his recreational use and aesthetic enjoyment of federal lands, particularly those in the vicinity of the Grand Canyon National Park and the Arizona Strip have been and continue to be adversely affected in fact by the unlawful actions of the Bureau and the Department, with particular reference to the opening to the staking of mining claims and the failure of the Bureau and the Department to provide notice of their proposals to terminate classifications and other withdrawals and to provide opportunities for public involvement. Erman Affidavit filed May 22, 1986. The magnitude of Erman's claimed injury stretches the imagination. As the affidavit of J. William Lamb shows, the Arizona Strip consists of

to terminate Classification No. W-6228. It completely answers plaintiff's claims of inadequate land use plans, lack of conformance determinations and insufficient opportunities for public participation.

all lands in Arizona north and west of the Colorado River on approximately 5.5 million acres, an area one-eighth the size of the State of Arizona. Furthermore, virtually the entire Strip is and for many years has been open to uranium and other metalliferous mining. The revocation of withdrawal concerned only non-metalliferous mining in the western one-third of the Arizona Strip, an area possessing no potential for non-metalliferous mining. See Lamb Affidavit, attached to Federal Defendant's Motion for Judgment.¹³

Both the Peterson and Erman Affidavits are vague, conclusory and lack factual specificity. They do not and cannot show "injury in fact" with respect to the two specific areas in Wyoming and Arizona in the vicinity of which these affiants claim to be located. More important, standing alone, these two affidavits do not provide any basis for standing to challenge, as violative of the Federal Land Policy Management Act, the legality of each of the 1250 or so individual classification terminations and withdrawal revocations. It should be noted that plaintiff's claims of injury reach hundreds of decisions affecting 180 million acres spread over seventeen states. Since plaintiff lacks standing in the constitutional sense or as an "aggrieved party" under Section 702 of the APA, we lack subject matter jurisdiction and dismiss for lack of standing.

¹³ The Lamb Affidavit also details the history of the several withdrawals and classifications placed on the public lands comprising the Arizona Strip. These commenced in 1930 and were terminated in 1981 after the passage of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act, 43 U.S.C. § 1701, et seq.

Merits

In view of the position taken that this Court lacks jurisdiction for lack of standing, it is not necessary that we reach the merits of plaintiff's claim for injunctive relief. The dissenting opinion of the Court of Appeals has mirrored many of these problems in its discussion of our grant of preliminary injunction presented as it was in response to defendant's motion to dismiss.

An Order consistent with the foregoing has been entered this day.

United States District Judge

National Wildlife Federation v. Burford; Publication of Court Order

ACTION: Notice of Publication of Court Order.

SUMMARY: On February 10, 1986, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia rendered a memorandum opinion and order in the case of National Wildlife Federation v. Burford, Civil Action No. 85-2238. The court ordered the defendant to publish the order in the Federal Register. In compliance therewith, the order is hereby published:

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Civil Action No. 85-2238

Order

Upon consideration of plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction, defendants' opposition and plaintiff's reply, and

Finding that a preliminary injunction is necessary to preserve the relative positions of the parties until the case can be decided on the merits, and further

Finding that the plaintiff has shown a substantial likelihood of success on the merits, and further

Finding that plaintiff will suffer irreparable harm if the requested injunction is not issued, and further

Finding that issuance of the requested injunction would serve the public interest, it is by the court this 10th day of February, 1986,

Ordered that plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction is granted, and it is Ordered that—

(1) Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys and those persons in active concert or participation with them are hereby enjoined from:

(a) modifying, terminating, or revoking, in full or in part, under the Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA), any withdrawal or classification that was in effect on January 1, 1981; or

(b) taking any action inconsistent with the specific restrictions of a withdrawal or classification in effect on January 1, 1981, including, but not limited to, the issuance of leases, the sale, exchange or disposal of land or interests in land, the granting of rights-of-

way, or the approval of any plan of operations:

(2) Terminations or modifications under the FLPMA of classifications and revocations or modifications under the FLPMA of withdrawals occurring since January 1, 1981, are hereby suspended until further action by this court;

(3) Nothing in this order shall be construed to prohibit or affect:

(a) The acceptance by the Department of the Interior of filings required to be made by Federal law;

(b) State election and conveyance rights afforded to the State of Alaska by § 906 of the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act, 94 Stat. 2371 or

(c) Native conveyance rights afforded to Alaskan natives by the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, 85 Stat. 688, and the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act, 94 Stat. 2371;

(d) The construction of the All American Pipeline project pursuant to a right-of-way grant issued by the Bureau of Land Management on May 17, 1985;

(e) Any transactions or other activity of the Frisco Administrative Site No. 2 S1/2SE1/4, Section 26, Township 5 South, Range 78 West of the Sixth Principal Meridian in Summit County, Colorado.

(4) Defendants shall forthwith cause a copy of this order to be published in the Federal Register and posted and made available to the public in defendants' offices in any State where the order might affect any person.

(5) Pursuant to Rule 65(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, plaintiff shall post security for this injunction in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(6) Nothing in this order shall be construed to affect any party's right to appeal this order.

(7) This preliminary injunction shall take effect upon publication in the Federal Register or on the fifth day after this order is filed, whichever day occurs sooner, and it is

Further Ordered that the parties shall appear for a status call on February 19, 1986 at 9:30 a.m., Courtroom No. 12, United States Courthouse.

Bureau of Reclamation
(INT-DES 86-3)

Stagecoach Reservoir Project, Routt County, CO; availability and Public Hearings—Draft Environmental Statement

Pursuant to section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, as amended, the Department of the Interior has prepared a draft environmental statement on a proposed development that would provide water for agriculture, municipal and industrial uses, hydroelectric power generation, fish and wildlife, and recreation. The draft statement was made available to the public on February 12, 1986.

The draft statement presents a recommended plan and four alternatives. The recommended Stagecoach Reservoir Project would consist of Stagecoach Dam, Reservoir, and Powerplant and related facilities located on the Yampa River about 17 miles south of Steamboat Springs. The alternatives include a smaller and a larger reservoir at the Stagecoach Damsite, a similar reservoir at a different site on the Yampa River, and a no action alternative.

The Upper Yampa Water Conservancy District has applied for a loan and grant under provisions of the Small Reclamation Projects Act of 1956 (Pub. L. 84-984), as amended, to finance about 50 percent of the project costs. The remaining costs would be financed through a loan from the Colorado Water Conservation Board and through District funding. Because the Bureau of Reclamation is processing the Federal loan and grant applications, it has prepared the environmental statement.

Copies of the statement are available for inspection at the following locations: Director Office of Environmental Affairs, Bureau of Reclamation, Room 7622, Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C. 20240, Telephone: (202) 343-4991

Property and Services Branch, Technical Publications and Library Branch, Engineering and Research Center, Code 960, Denver Federal Center, Denver, Colorado 80225, Telephone: (303) 236-5972

Regional Director, Bureau of Reclamation, Upper Colorado Regional Office, P.O. Box 11568, Salt Lake City, Utah 84147, Telephone: (801) 524-5580

Single copies of the statement may be obtained on request to the Director, Office of Environmental Affairs, or the Regional Director at the above addresses. Copies will also be available for inspection in libraries in the project vicinity.

To obtain views and comments from interested individuals and organizations relating to the environmental impacts of the proposed project, Reclamation will hold a public hearing at 3 p.m. on March 14, 1986, at the Community Center, 12th Street, Steamboat Springs, Colorado.

Oral statements will be limited to 10 minutes each. Speakers may not trade their time to obtain a longer oral presentation; however, the person conducting the hearing may allow any speaker additional opportunity to comment after all scheduled speakers have been heard. Whenever possible, speakers will be scheduled according to the time preference requested. Speakers not present when called will lose their turn in the scheduled order, but will be given an opportunity to speak at the end of the scheduled presentations. Requests for scheduled presentations will be accepted until 4 p.m., March 12, 1986. Subsequent requests will be handled at the hearing on a first-come first-served basis following the scheduled presentations. Organizations or individuals desiring to present statements at the hearings should contact the Regional Director in Salt Lake City by letter or telephone.

Oral and written statements presented at the hearing will be summarized and responded to in the final environmental statement. Written comments for the hearing record from individuals unable to attend and from those wishing to supplement their oral presentations at the hearings should be sent to the Regional Director, Salt Lake City, to be received by April 14, 1986. Written comments received by this date will be printed in full in the final environmental statement.

Dated: February 12, 1986.

C. Dale Duvall,
Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF INTERIOR

Intention To Negotiate Concessions Contract, Glacier Bay Lodge, Inc.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of the Act of October 9, 1965

ACTION: Notice of availability of the final environmental impact statement.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to section 102(2)(c) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969, BLM has prepared a FEIS on a proposal by Arizona Public Service Company and San Diego Gas and Electric Company to construct and operate a 500 KV transmission system interconnecting their power networks. The draft and supplement were released in August 1980, and April 1981 respectively. The California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC) was a joint lead agency for the preparation of this combined environmental document. The document also complies with the requirements of the California Environmental Quality Act.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Stan Wagner, Arizona State Office, Bureau of Land Management, 2400 Valley Bank Center, Phoenix, Arizona 85073, Phone: (602) 261-4127.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The BLM and CPUC have prepared a combined environmental document on a proposal by Arizona Public Service Company and San Diego Gas and Electric Company to construct a 500 KV transmission line and ancillary facilities from the Palo Verde Nuclear Generating Switchyard near Phoenix, Arizona, through the Yuma, Arizona area to the Miguel Substation near San Diego, California.

The document analyzes environmental effects of the proposal in addition to alternatives of various route alignments, no action, energy conservation and load management, alternative generating sources, and other transmission systems and technologies.

A limited number of copies are available upon request to the Arizona State Director, 2400 Valley Bank Center, Phoenix, Arizona.

Public reading copies will be available for review at the following locations:

Arizona State Office, BLM, 2400 Valley Bank Center, Phoenix, Arizona 85073 (602) 261-3708;

Arizona: Termination of Classifications of Public Land

September 21, 1981.

1. During the period 1966-1970, the Bureau of Land Management in Arizona made a number of classifications of the public land under the authority of the Act of September 19, 1964, the Classification and Multiple Use Act.

Most of these actions classified public land for retention in Federal ownership for multiple use management, and segregated the lands from application or entry under some or all of the public land laws. Typically, these multiple use management classifications segregated the public lands from application for public sale, and agricultural entry under the Homestead, Desert Land and Indian Allotment laws. Some classifications also excluded land exchanges, state selections, and mining claims.

A second type of classification identified lands as suitable for disposal under a particular public land law or laws such as state selection, exchange or the Recreation and Public Purposes Act.

These classifications also segregated the lands from appropriation under the other public land laws including the mining and mineral leasing laws.

2. These classifications have been determined to be no longer necessary. The Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976 (FLPMA) prescribed that the public lands be retained in Federal ownership and managed for multiple use unless land use planning procedures identify specific parcels for disposal or special management. FLPMA also repealed many of the public land laws that the classifications segregated the lands against. Public land managers now have the discretion to determine through land use planning the suitability of public land for disposal. Also, the surface management regulations in 43 CFR 3800 give the public land manager new authority to protect surface resources during exploration and mining operations.

1. Pursuant to the Act of September 19, 1964 (43 U.S.C. 1411-16), notice is hereby given of the classification of the public lands described below for exchange to acquire privately owned lands within the Sitgreaves National Forest. These exchanges would be made under the authority of section 8 of the Taylor Grazing Act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1272) as amended by section 3 of the Act of June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1976; 43 U.S.C. 315g). As used herein "public lands" means any lands withdrawn or reserved by Executive Order No. 6910 of November 26, 1934, as amended, or within a grazing district established pursuant to the act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269), as amended, which are not otherwise withdrawn or reserved for a Federal use or purpose.

2. Publication of this notice has the effect of segregating the described lands from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws, including the mining and mineral leasing laws, except private exchanges.

Mining Claim(s) Declared Null and Void
Ab Initio

Pursuant to the requirements of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976, 43 U.S.C. 1744, and the implementing regulations in 43 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) 3833.1-2, notice(s) of location for the above-named mining claim(s) were filed for recording in the Arizona State Office of the Bureau of Land Management on October 13, 1988. Said mining claims were located in July and August 1988.

The location notice(s) and accompanying map(s) show the claim(s) to be located on the following land:

Gila and Salt River Meridian, Arizona

T. 6 S., R. 26 E.
sec. 1, S $\frac{1}{2}$ SE $\frac{1}{4}$
sec. 12, NE $\frac{1}{4}$

T. 6 S., R 27 E.
sec. 7, SE $\frac{1}{4}$
sec. 18, N $\frac{1}{2}$, SE $\frac{1}{4}$

The above-described lands were classified on March 14, 1968 under Serial Number A 450 for Private Exchange, which segregated the lands from mineral entry under the General Mining Laws. Effective October 7, 1981 the classification terminated and the lands were restored to entry.

Reversed by IBLA

Although the classification terminated on the above date, the National Wildlife Federation has sued the Bureau of Land Management for taking actions to revoke and restore classifications that were in effect on January 1, 1981. On February 14, 1986, a Federal District Court Preliminary Injunction was issued (National Wildlife Federation v. Burford, et al., Civil Action No. 85-2238) which enjoins BLM from accepting new claims on these lands and from taking further action to approve plans of operation.

The BLM has been issued the following instructions: If a mining claim is located after February 14, 1986, on lands subject to the lawsuit that were closed to the mining laws, the claim is null and void ab initio, and is to be rejected by an appealable decision. The filing fee is to be returned.

Therefore, the subject mining claims are hereby declared null and void ab initio. Your $95.00 recordation fee will be refunded via U.S. Treasury.

An appeal from this decision may be taken to the Interior Board of Land Appeals, Office of Hearings and Appeals, in accordance with the regulations in Title 43 CFR, Parts 1 and 4, and the enclosed Form 1842-1. If an appeal is taken, the notice of appeal must be filed in the Arizona State Office of the Bureau of Land Management, mailing address, P.O. Box 16563, Phoenix, Arizona 85011, street address 3707 N. 7th Street, Phoenix, Arizona 85014, within 30 days from receipt of this decision. Do not send the appeal directly to the Board. The appeal and case history file will be sent to the Board from this office. Within 30 days after filing the notice of appeal, file a complete statement of the reasons why you are appealing. This must be filed with the U.S. Department of the Interior, Office of the Secretary, Board of Land Appeals, 4015 Wilson Boulevard, Arlington, Virginia 22203. If you fully stated your reasons for appealing when filing the notice of appeal, no additional statement is necessary. Additionally, within 15 days after each document is filed, the regulations require the appellant to serve copies on the Field Solicitor, U.S. Department of the Interior, 505 North 2nd Street, Suite 150, Phoenix, Arizona 85004. To avoid summary dismissal of the appeal, there must be strict compliance with the regulations.

If no appeal is taken, this decision constitutes final administrative action of this Department as it affects the mining claim(s). No appeal, protest or petition for reconsideration will be entertained from this decision after the appeal period has expired. Please note: Your 30 days in which to file an appeal starts the date you receive this decision.

Mining Claim(s)

MINING CLAIMS DECLARED ABANDONED

The Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA) of 1976, 43 U.S.C. 1744, and the implementing regulations in 43 CFR 3833.2, require an annual filing for all mining claims recorded with the Bureau of Land Management (BLM). FLPMA provides that failure to file evidence of annual assessment work or a notice of intention to hold by December 30 of each year shall be deemed conclusively to constitute an abandonment of the claim and it is void by operation of law. The constitutionality of Section 314 of FLPMA was upheld on April 1, 1985, by the United States Supreme Court in United States v. Locke et al., 471 U.S. 84, 129 (1985).

The BLM records do not show receipt of either an affidavit of annual assessment work performed or a notice of intention to hold for the claim(s) listed on the enclosed sheet(s) for the 1989 assessment year.

If you did timely file an affidavit or notice of intention to hold with the BLM during 1989, please furnish a copy which shows receipt by the BLM Arizona State Office, (dated and time stamped) during 1989.

Your proof must show the required document was timely filed with the BLM during 1989, otherwise it will not be accepted. The evidence must be received in this office no later than 30 days from receipt of this decision. language providing that "mineral lands" were not conveyed. United States v. Union Pacific R.R., 353 U.S. 112 (1957). There is no comparable language stating that the "subsurface estate" was reserved and did not pass to the railroads.

Instead, the ROW Acts do convey to the railroad "substantial surface and subsurface rights." Kansas City Southern Ry. v. Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., 476 F.2d 829, 835 (10th Cir. 1973) (construing a railroad ROW that was an easement). The railroad's subsurface rights include:

the right to excavate drainage ditches; to construct beneath the surface supports for bridges and other structures; to erect and maintain telegraph lines and supporting poles with part of the poles beneath the surface. . . .

476 F.2d at 834. MCI's burial of a fiber optic line at a depth of 36 to 40 inches makes no greater use of the subsurface estate than these clearly allowed uses. Additionally, the incidental use doctrine allows the construction of warehouses and manufacturing plants which have foundations, basements, pipes and wires reaching far deeper than 36-40 inches below the surface. It is legally impossible to draw a distinction between these subsurface incidental uses which Interior has allowed without a FLPMA permit and MCI's incidental buried fiber optic line use. See section II.B, supra.

Most importantly, case law confirms that a railroad may authorize incidental, below ground uses of its ROW. Himonas v. Denver & R.G.W. R.R., 179 F.2d 171, 174 (10th Cir. 1949), stated that a person could acquire an irrigation ditch and flume

Ab Initio

Pursuant to the requirements of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976, 43 U.S.C. 1744, and the implementing regulations in 43 Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) 3833.1-2, notice(s) of location for the above-named mining claim(s) were filed for recording in the Arizona State Office of the Bureau of Land Management.

Date Located

August 8 and 9, 1988

Date Filed

October 13, 1988

The location notice(s) and accompanying map(s) show the claim(s) to be located on the following land:

Gila and Salt River Meridian, Arizona

T. 7S., R. 26 E.
sec. 12, E $\frac{1}{2}$, SW $\frac{1}{4}$

The subject mining claim(s) are invalid and are hereby declared null and void ab initio. The Bureau of Land Management public records show the lands were not open to location of mining claims at the time of location.

The land has been patented without a reservation of minerals to the United States. Therefore, the lands are not subject to location under the general mining laws.

"Land which has been patented without a reservation of minerals to the United States is not available for location of mining claims, and mining claims located on such land after it is so patented are null and void ab initio," Ariel C. MacDonald, et al., 52 IBLA 384 (1981).

"Mining claims located on lands which are closed to mineral entry are null and void from their inception as a matter of law, and no property rights are created thereby. Therefore, no contest proceeding, notice, or hearing is required preliminary to a decision holding that such claims are invalid." John A. Ross, Maxine Lidke, 73 IBLA 16 (1983).

An appeal from this decision may be taken to the Interior Board of Land Appeals, Office of Hearings and Appeals, in accordance with the regulations in Title 43 CFR, Parts 1 and 4, and the enclosed Form 1842-1. If an appeal is taken, the notice of appeal must be filed in the Arizona State Office of the Bureau of Land Management, mailing address, P.O. Box 16563, Phoenix, Arizona 85011, street address 3707 N. 7th Street, Phoenix, Arizona 85014, within 30 days from receipt of this decision. Do not send the appeal directly to the Board. The appeal and case history file will be sent to the Board from this office. Within 30 days after filing the notice of appeal, file a complete statement of the reasons why you are appealing. This must be filed with the U.S. Department of the Interior, Office of the Secretary, Board of Land Appeals, 4015 Wilson Boulevard, Arlington, Virginia 22203. If you fully stated your reasons for appealing when filing the notice of appeal, no additional statement is necessary. Additionally, within 15 days after each document is filed, the regulations require the appellant to serve copies on the Field Solicitor, U.S. Department of the Interior, 505 North 2nd Street, Suite 150, Phoenix, Arizona 85004. To avoid summary dismissal of the appeal, there must be strict compliance with the regulations.

If no appeal is taken, this decision constitutes final administrative action of this Department as it affects the mining claim(s). No appeal, protest or petition for reconsideration will be entertained from this decision after the appeal period has expired.

NOTICE OF TRANSFER OF INTEREST - MINING CLAIMS

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Pursuant to 43 CFR 3833.3, notice is hereby given that an interest in the mining claims and/or mill sites described on Exhibit A attached hereto was transferred by name change on June 2, 2014, from Freeport-McMoRan Corporation to Freeport Minerals Corporation, a Delaware corporation (successor by merger to Freeport-McMoRan Corporation, a New York corporation, which was previously known as Phelps Dodge Corporation). The address of the current owner is set forth below:

Freeport Minerals Corporation
c/o Land & Water Department
333 North Central Avenue
Phoenix, AZ 85004

The mining claims and/or mill sites subject to this transfer are described on Exhibit A, attached hereto and by this reference incorporated herein.

Enclosed are copies of the (i) Certificate of Merger reflecting Freeport-McMoRan Corporation's reincorporation in Delaware, filed with the Delaware Secretary of State on December 31, 2013; and (ii) Certificate of Amendment of Certificate of Incorporation reflecting the name change of Freeport-McMoRan Corporation to Freeport Minerals Corporation, filed with the Delaware Secretary of State on June 2, 2014.

Enclosed is our check payable to the Department of the Interior-Bureau of Land Management in payment of the transfer of interest charge of $10 per claim or site, for a total of $12,450.00.

AFFIDAVIT OF CORPORATE SECRETARY

I, Douglas N. Currault II, hereby certify that:

1. I am the duly elected and acting corporate Secretary of Freeport-McMoRan Corporation, a New York corporation (the "Corporation"), and that, as such, I am authorized to execute this Affidavit on behalf of the Corporation. This Affidavit has been prepared for the purpose of inducing the Bureau of Land Management to convey certain mining claims held in the name of Phelps Dodge Mining Company to the Corporation.

2. On September 21, 1988, the Board of Directors of the Corporation established an operating division known as "Phelps Dodge Mining Company." Phelps Dodge Mining Company was never a separate legal entity and it used the Corporation's federal tax ID number (13-1808503) throughout its existence.

3. On March 19, 2007, the Corporation was acquired by Freeport-McMoRan Copper & Gold Inc.

4. On April 15, 2008, Phelps Dodge Corporation changed its name to Freeport-McMoRan Corporation. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of the Certificate of Amendment of Certificate of Incorporation filed with the New York Dept. of State on April 15, 2008, which certificate effected the name change of Phelps Dodge Corporation to Freeport-McMoRan Corporation.

5. On April 15, 2008, immediately following the corporate name change set forth in item 4, above, Phelps Dodge Mining Company ceased to exist as a separate operating division of the Corporation. Its business continues to be carried out by the Corporation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the official seal of the Corporation this 2nd day of September, 2010, at Phoenix, Arizona.

Under Section 805 of the Business Corporation Law

I, Douglas N. Currault II, being the Secretary of Phelps Dodge Corporation, a corporation formed under the laws of the State of New York (the "Corporation"), to effect the amendment of the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, do hereby certify as follows:

1. The name of the Corporation is Phelps Dodge Corporation. The name under which the Corporation was formed was Copper Queen Consolidated Mining Company.
2. The Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation was filed with the Department of State of the State of New York on August 10, 1885. A Restated Certificate of Incorporation was filed with such Department on May 1, 2007.
3. The Certificate of Incorporation is hereby further amended in accordance with Section 801 of the Business Corporation Law to change the Corporation's name.
4. Article FIRST of the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation as amended and supplemented to date, relating to the corporation name is hereby amended to read as:

"FIRST: The name of the Corporation is Freeport-McMoRan Corporation."

5. In accordance with the applicable provisions of Section 708 and Section 807 of the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York, in lieu of a meeting and vote of the board of directors, the sole director of the Corporation has given written consent to approve this Certificate of Amendment and to recommend that the sole shareholder of the Corporation adopt this amendment of the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation.
6. In lieu of a meeting and vote of the sole shareholder, the sole shareholder of the Corporation has given written consent to adoption of this Certificate of Amendment in accordance with the applicable provisions of Section 615 and Section 803 of the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York.

Under Section 805 of the Business Corporation Law

I, Douglas N. Curraut II, being the Secretary of Phelps Dodge Corporation, a corporation formed under the laws of the State of New York (the "Corporation"), to effect the amendment of the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation, do hereby certify as follows:

1. The name of the Corporation is Phelps Dodge Corporation. The name under which the Corporation was formed was Copper Queen Consolidated Mining Company.
2. The Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation was filed with the Department of State of the State of New York on August 10, 1885. A Restated Certificate of Incorporation was filed with such Department on May 1, 2007.
3. The Certificate of Incorporation is hereby further amended in accordance with Section 801 of the Business Corporation Law to change the Corporation's name.
4. Article FIRST of the Certificate of Incorporation of the Corporation as amended and supplemented to date, relating to the corporation name is hereby amended to read as:

"FIRST: The name of the Corporation is Freeport-McMoRan Corporation."

5. In accordance with the applicable provisions of Section 708 and Section 807 of the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York, in lieu of a meeting and vote of the board of directors, the sole director of the Corporation has given written consent to approve this Certificate of Amendment and to recommend that the sole shareholder of the Corporation adopt this amendment of the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation.
6. In lieu of a meeting and vote of the sole shareholder, the sole shareholder of the Corporation has given written consent to adoption of this Certificate of Amendment in accordance with the applicable provisions of Section 615 and Section 803 of the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York.
