currently of Vail, Arizona; BRIAN F. CORN currently of Oracle, Arizona; JOSEPH W. CORN currently of Tucson, Arizona; MARY ANN RUSSELL currently of Sahuarita, Arizona; and AMY M. MAKELA currently of Burley, Idaho.

ARTICLE III: PURPOSES

- (A) The Trustors have determined that it is their wish to provide funds for both GERALDINE F. CORN and RUSSELL M. CORN during their lifetimes as the primary purpose for this Trust and further, following the death of both Trustors, to provide for their children, grandchildren and their issue.
- (B) The Trustors also desire to facilitate the expedient transfer of property upon the death of either or both of the Trustor/beneficiaries and to provide a method for administering the assets of the Trustor/beneficiaries should either or both of them become physically or mentally unable to do so.
- (C) The Trustors will fund this Trust during their joint lifetimes by transferring property to the Trustees and may arrange for future funding on death of either Trustor by Will, by designating the trust as a beneficiary of certain policies or death-payment contracts, or any combination of such funding methods. Persons other than Trustors may provide other additions to this Trust, and Trustees may, in their sole discretion, accept such additions. The Trustees or successor Trustees shall hold, manage, invest and reinvest all property received and distribute income and principal to the designated beneficiaries according to the terms and conditions of this Trust.

(D) The Trustors declare that the primary beneficiaries shall be the Trustors and upon their death, the beneficiaries shall be family members as set forth herein.

ARTICLE IV: INTENT AND INSTRUCTIONS OF TRUSTEES

- (A) In the matter of monetary assets, whether cash, bank or credit union accounts, certificates of deposit, treasury bonds, bills or notes, IRA accounts, insurance policy settlements, stocks or bonds, deferred compensation funds, retirement benefits, death benefits from any source, or other not yet acquired monetary assets, the Trustee is to distribute funds from these sources as specified in the Trust and Will documents. When it is financially beneficial to allow accounts or other instruments of investment continue to maturity or to continue to draw interest or dividends, it shall be the decision of the Trustee, in consultation with other beneficiaries, to then allocate resulting interests or dividends, if not in conflict with other provisions of the Trust and Will documents.
- (B) CHARACTER OF PROPERTY. The following paragraphs shall govern the character of the property transferred to and withdrawn from the trust estate during the joint lifetimes of the Grantors:
- 1. Community Property. The Grantors declare and agree that the properties initially transferred to the Trustees as listed in Schedule A are all community property. Each item of property is designated as to its character.
- 2. Community Property Retains Its Character. Community property transferred to the Trustees, the proceeds thereof, and the income therefrom, shall retain its character as:

community property. Community property withdrawn from the trust estate shall be distributed to the Grantors as their community property.

3. Separate Property. Separate property of either Grantor which may subsequently be transferred to the Trustees, the proceeds thereof, and the income therefrom, shall retain its character as the separate property of the Grantor who made the transfer. Separate property withdrawn from the trust estate shall be distributed to such Grantor as his or her separate property.

ARTICLE V: POWERS RESERVED BY TRUSTORS

(A) During the joint lifetime of the Trustors, this Trust may be amended from time to time. and revoked in whole or in part, by an instrument in writing signed by both Trustors and delivered to the Trustees. During the joint lifetime of the Trustors, this Trust may be revoked in whole or in part with respect to either Trustor's interest by an instrument in writing signed by the Trustor whose interest is being revoked and delivered to the Trustees and the other Trustor. On the death of one Trustor, the surviving Trustor shall retain the above rights of revocation and amendment with respect to the survivor's Trust, but any other trust established by this Agreement shall be irrevocable and unamendable. From and after the death of the surviving Trustor, all other such trusts established by this Agreement shall be irrevocable and unamendable. No amendment shall substantially increase the duties and liabilities of the Trustees or change the Trustees' compensation without the Trustees' written consent.

GFC RMC

- (B) Trustors retain the right to transfer other property to the Trustees by lifetime transfer or by Will, and to make insurance policies or other pay-on-death contracts payable to Trustees, subject to acceptance by the Trustees or successor Trustees.
- (C) All rights under life insurance policies and other death-benefit contracts, the proceeds of which are made payable to the trust or Trustees, are retained by the Trustor who is owner of record, including the right to change beneficiary designation, borrow on, pledge as security for loans, exercise options and determine custody of the policies. The rights of any assignee of a policy made payable to this Trust shall be superior to the rights of Trustees. The owners of policies, therefore, have complete rights to transfer, cancel, or modify any such policies until and unless proceeds have been paid to the Trustees.
- (D) Trustors reserve the right to direct Trustees as to distributions of net income and principal during their joint lifetimes.
- (E) Trustors and the survivor of them reserve the following rights with respect to investments during lifetime and competency:
- 1. To direct the retention, acquisition and disposition of trust assets for investment purposes; and
- disposition of trust assets for investment purposes. Trustors or the survivor of them may exercise either right as to part or all of the trust assets by notifying Trustees of such intention and may release or reinstate the exercise of either right from time to time as to part or all of the trust assets.

 During periods when the right to direct retention, acquisition or disposition of any trust assets for investment purposes is selected to be exercised, Trustees shall have no investment responsibility with regard to such trust assets so selected. During periods when the right to approve or reject Trustees' recommendations as to the acquisition or disposition of any trust assets for investment purposes is selected to be exercised, Trustees shall submit recommended changes in those trust investments so selected for approval or rejection. Trustees are relieved from liability for losses to the trust estate which result from either Trustor's exercise of either right or which result from either Trustor's delay in responding or failure to respond to recommendations.

- (F) Any rights or powers reserved by Trustors are personal and shall not be exercisable by any guardian, conservator or other personal representative, nor pursuant to a Power of Attorney. This provision shall not prevent any transfers under Section (B) above by a person acting under a durable power of attorney for either Trustor or for both Trustors.
- (G) Trustors and each of them desire to exercise their rights and powers reserved with respect to this Agreement only during competency. Therefore, for purposes of this Agreement, Trustees shall not recognize an attempt by a Trustor to exercise powers and rights if he or she is unable to manage or give prompt attention or intelligent consideration to financial matters or matters pertaining to this Agreement. Trustees may rely on the written determination of Trustors' regular physician or physicians or treating physician with respect to this provision.

ARTICLE VI: DISPOSITIVE PROVISIONS

(A) Any income received by Trustees prior to the death of either Trustor shall be held or disbursed as directed by Trustors. In addition, Trustees shall pay to Trustors such portion or portions of principal, up to the whole thereof, as Trustors shall request in writing from time to time.

- (B) Until distribution of the trust estate, Trustees shall pay to or for the benefit of the beneficiaries quarterly, or so often as may be convenient, all the income of the trust estate.
- (C) In addition, the Trustees may pay to or for the benefit of the beneficiaries so much of the trust principal as the Trustees, in their sole discretion, determine is necessary for medical care, health, or education of such beneficiaries, or for their support in reasonable comfort or for the health, education or support in reasonable comfort of those dependent on the beneficiaries for support.
- (D) On the death of either Trustor, Trustee shall divide the trust estate into two (2) separate Trusts designated as "Survivor's Trust" and "Decedent's Trust".
- Surviving Trustor's separate property and surviving Trustor's community interest in trust property shall be allocated to Survivor's Trust. From the remainder of trust property, Trustee shall allocate to Survivor's Trust an amount equal to the balance of the trust estate reduced by the largest amount which could be allocated to Decedent's Trust without creating or increasing any federal estate tax obligation upon deceased Trustor's estate. Trustee shall distribute the balance of the trust estate to Decedent's Trust.
- 2. The determination of whether a federal estate tax could be created or increased under Paragraph (1) shall be made by reducing any tax calculated by the amount of the unified credit available to Deceased Trustor's estate. For calculation purposes, generation-skipping tax shall not be classified as estate tax.

- 3. In determining the amount of the pecuniary transfer to the Survivor's Trust under this section, the final determination of values in the federal estate tax proceeding in Deceased Trustor's estate shall control but, for purposes of allocation of property in satisfaction of the pecuniary transfer, values determined at the time of transfer shall be used. Only property which could qualify for the marital deduction shall be allocated to the Survivor's Trust.
 - (E) With respect to the Survivor's Trust:
- 1. Trustee shall pay the net income from the time of Deceased Trustor's death to or for the benefit of surviving Trustor so long as surviving Trustor shall live.
- 2. If, in the opinion of Trustee, surviving Trustor is in need of additional funds to provide adequately for his or her health, education and support in reasonable comfort, Trustee shall pay to or for the benefit of surviving Trustor such amounts from principal from time to time as it shall determine in its discretion to be necessary or appropriate for such purposes.
- 3. In addition, Trustee shall pay to the surviving Trustor such amounts from principal as he or she shall request in writing from time to time.
- 4. On the death of surviving Trustor, Trustee shall maintain this Trust and pay such benefits to the beneficiaries according to the same formula as set forth below.
 - (F) With respect to the Decedent's Trust:
- 1. Trustee shall pay the net income from time to time to or for the benefit of those whom Trustee may select among a group of individuals comprised of surviving Trustor, and the issue of Trustors living at the inception of Decedent's Trust in such amounts and proportions as Trustee may determine in its discretion. In selecting individuals or determining amounts, Trustee shall consider the respective needs of the individuals included in the group. Notwithstanding the directive to distribute income, Trustee may in its discretion accumulate all or any part of the net income and add it to the principal of this Trust.

2. If, in the opinion of Trustee, any individual described as a beneficiary under the previous paragraph is in need of additional funds to provide adequately for his or her health, education and support in reasonable comfort, Trustee shall pay from time to time to or for the benefit of such individual such amounts from principal as it shall determine in its discretion to be necessary or appropriate for such purposes. In determining the need of surviving Trustor for additional funds under this paragraph, Trustee shall consider the existence and availability of principal in the Survivor's Trust and, in determining the needs of any other beneficiaries, Trustee shall consider other funds known by the Trustee to be available for such purposes.

3. Distribution of Trust Estate

a. On the death of surviving Trustor, Trustee shall distribute all income and principal to the children of Trustors and their issue as follows: One-sixth (1/6) shall be distributed to STEVEN N. CORN, or, if he fails to survive both Trustors, to his lineal descendants who survive both Trustors per stirpes; one-sixth (1/6) shall be distributed to DANIEL R. CORN, or, if he fails to survive both Trustors, to his lineal descendants who survive both Trustors per stirpes; one-sixth (1/6) shall be distributed to BRIAN F. CORN, or, if he fails to survive both Trustors, to his lineal descendants who survive both Trustors per stirpes; one-sixth (1/6) shall be distributed to JOSEPH W. CORN, or, if he fails to survive both Trustors, to his lineal descendants who survive both Trustors, to his lineal descendants who survive both Trustors, to his lineal descendants

RUSSELL, or, if she fails to survive both Trustors, to her lineal descendants who survive both Trustors per stirpes; one-sixth (1/6) shall be distributed to AMY M. MAKELA, or, if she fails to survive both Trustors, to her lineal descendants who survive both Trustors per stirpes;

b. In the event that any beneficiaries are to receive this lump sum distribution according to this Trust and they are under the age of twenty-one (21) years, Trustee shall hold such property for such beneficiary until such beneficiaries attain the age of twenty-one (21), and to make distributions to such beneficiaries according to the terms set forth above as are necessary for health, education, and welfare of such beneficiaries, until outright distribution upon a beneficiary attaining twenty one (21).

ARTICLE VII: DISTRIBUTION OUALIFICATIONS

- (A) Trustees are not to recognize any transfer, mortgage, pledge, hypothecation, assignment or order of any beneficiary which anticipates the payment of any part of the income or principal. The income and principal of the trust estate shall not be subject to attachment, garnishment, creditor's bill or execution to satisfy any debt, obligation or tort of any beneficiary nor shall any part of the trust estate pass to a Trustee or receiver in any bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding initiated by or against any beneficiary.
- (B) Distributions of income to a beneficiary shall be made in convenient installments, but in no event less often than quarterly. In Trustees' sole discretion, distribution of income or principal to the beneficiary may be:

Page 10 of 18

- 2. Deposited in any bank to the credit of the beneficiary in an account carried in the beneficiary's name, either alone or jointly with others; or
 - 3. Expended for the benefit of the beneficiary; or
- 4. Paid to someone who has undertaken the responsibility, legally or voluntarily, for the support and maintenance of the beneficiary; or
 - 5. Paid to the guardian, parent or custodian of a minor beneficiary.
- (C) Trustees' discretion to distribute principal to any beneficiary shall include authority to pay expenses of last illness, funeral or burial expenses of the beneficiary after death. Any discretionary right to use principal shall include the right to exhaust principal.
- (D) In the event the total trust assets of all trusts created by this document falls below ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS ($100,000.00), the trust may be terminated in the sole discretion of Trustee and distributed to the beneficiaries in the proportion set forth above.
- (E) Trust assets consisting of residential real estate may be occupied by a beneficiary as part of his or her benefits. It is envisioned that the Trustors shall remain in their residential real property during their lifetime and upon their death, the Trustees shall determine whether to maintain residential real property, lease or rent such residential real property, or permit any of the subsequent beneficiaries to reside in such residential real estate. During the competency of the beneficiary, other than the original Trustors, such beneficiary residing in said real estate shall have the responsibility for and Trustees shall have no responsibility for, taxes, assessments, insurance coverage, maintenance and general upkeep of such property and payment of any of these costs and expenses and Trustees are relieved from liability for losses resulting from the failure of such beneficiary to meet his or her responsibility. However, Trustees shall make reasonable inquiries as to whether such payments have been made.

- (F) Any beneficiary of this Trust Agreement shall, in addition to other rights conferred by law, have the right at any time within nine (9) months after the death of the first Trustor to renounce in whole or in part any interest, benefit, right or power granted to such beneficiary by this Agreement. Any such renunciation shall be made by written instrument executed by such beneficiary or that beneficiary's guardian, conservator or personal representative and delivered to Trustees.
- (G) If any trust created by this Agreement is still in existence twenty-one (21) years after the death of all persons listed in Article II above and their descendants who are living upon the date such trust first became irrevocable, all shares shall immediately vest in the persons that are entitled to the income and in proportion to their income interest, or if such interests are indefinite, then to the income beneficiaries in such equitable proportions as Trustees shall determine.

ARTICLE VIII: POWERS AND DUTIES OF TRUSTEES

Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the following powers are set forth, by way of illustration of the extent of powers granted and not by way of limitation, to be exercised from time to time by Trustees in their discretion:
