Well it came back again, so.....

It's especially hard to research because they have a post office box only.

Treasury cancelled the refund check listed below. The funds are back on your original transaction. Determine why Treasury returned the refund check. Either start the three step refund process again to a corrected address or carefully follow the procedures on unclaimed money described in the Unclaimed Money Instruction Memorandum for the current fiscal year.

If this cancelled check refunded a Declining Deposit Account (DDA), the automatic cancelled check interface updated the DDA status and balance. The DDA will be in ready state to refund again. If you transfer to Unclaimed Money, you will have to go into DDA Management and manually close the DDA after you complete the transfer.

For more details regarding this cancelled refund check please refer to the Cancelled Refund Check Report.

Treasury cancelled the refund check listed below. The funds are back on your original transaction. Determine why Treasury returned the refund check. Either start the three step refund process again to a corrected address or carefully follow the procedures on unclaimed money described in the Unclaimed Money Instruction Memorandum for the current fiscal year.

If this cancelled check refunded a Declining Deposit Account (DDA), the automatic cancelled check interface updated the DDA status and balance. The DDA will be in ready state to refund again. If you transfer to Unclaimed Money, you will have to go into DDA Management and manually close the DDA after you complete the transfer.

For more details regarding this cancelled refund check please refer to the Cancelled Refund Check Report.
