NOTICE OF MINING RELOCATION.
Lode Claim.

To All Whom it May Concern:

This mining claim, the name of which is the Texas Chief Mining claim, situate on lands belonging to the United States of America, and in which there are valuable mineral deposits, was entered upon and located for the purpose of exploration and purchase by Anna McGowan Yoakan, the undersigned, on the 21st day of December, 1899.

The length of this claim is fifteen hundred feet, and I claim fifteen hundred feet in a southerly direction from the center of the discovery monument, at which this notice is posted, lengthwise of the claim, together with three hundred feet in width of the surface grounds, on each side of the center of said claim. The general course of the lode deposit and premises is from the North to the South.

The claim is situated and located in the Black Rock Mining District, in Yavapai County, in the Territory of Arizona, about 3 miles east of the Hassayampa river & ^{3/4} mile N.E. direction from McGowan Camp. On Spring Creek and adjoins ^{the} Copper Prince Mining Claim on the south.

The surface boundaries of the claim are marked upon the ground as follows: Beginning at monument of stone 3-1/2 ft. base 3 ft. high, at a point in a westerly direction eight feet from the discovery tunnel (at which this notice is posted), being in the center of the north end line of said claim; thence easterly 300 feet to a monument of stone, being the N.E. corner of said claim; thence southerly 750 feet to a monument of stone at the center of the east side line of said claim; thence southerly 750 feet to a monument of stone, being at the S.E. corner of said claim; thence westerly 300 feet to a monument of stone at the center of the south end of said claim; thence westerly 300 feet to a monument of stone, being at the southwest corner of said claim; thence northerly 750 feet to a monument of stone, being at the center of the west side line of said claim; thence northerly 750 feet to a monument of stone at the N.W. corner of said claim; thence easterly 300 feet to the place of beginning.

This relocation of the Texas Chief Mining Claim the original location of which was made by David Boaz on the first day of January 1890, and the notice thereof recorded in Book 28 of mines, pages 504 and 505, Mineral Records of Yavapai County, Arizona, is made by Anna McGowan Yoakan, widow, and only surviving heir of J.W. McGowan, to whom said Texas Chief Mining Claim was deeded ^{ed} by the locator David Boaz and it is made to overcome any defects of title by virtue of the fact ^{the} that said deed ^{that} is not now to be found nor does it appear of record and ^{the} further fact ^{that} no administration of the estate of J.W. McGowan has been had.

And this re-location is made without waiving or surrendering any of the rights of said Anna McGowan Yoakan secured to her as the widow and only heir of J.W. McGowan and the fact also that she has done or caused to be done the annual assessment work required by law to be done every year since the death of the said J.W. McGowan on said Mining Claim.

All done under the provisions of Chapter Six, of Title XXXII, of the Revised Statutes of the United States, and of an Act of the General Assembly of Arizona, entitled "An Act Concerning Mines", approved March 20th, 1895, and amended March 2d, 1899.

Dated and posted on the ground, this 21st day of December, 1899.
