Lode Claim.

To all whom it may concern:

This mining claim, the name of which is the Baras Mining claim, situate on lands belonging to the United States^{of America,} and in which there are valuable mineral deposits, was entered upon and located for the purpose of exploration and purchase by Geo. C. Clark, a citizen of the United States, the undersigned, on the first day of March 1900. The length of this claim is Six hundred & Thirty feet, and I claim Three Hundred & fifteen feet in a North Westerly direction and Three Hundred & fifteen feet in a South easterly direction from the center of the discovery shaft, at which this notice is posted, lengthwise of the claim together with Fifty feet in width of the surface grounds, on each side of the center of said claim. The general course of the lode deposit and premises is from the North East to the South West.

The claim is situated and located in the Warren Mining District, in Cochise county, in the Territory of Arizona, about 1 1/2 miles in a South easterly direction from the Town of Bisbee Cochise Co. Arizona being of a wedge shape & lying between the Reindeer claim owned by C. A. Overlock on the South & the Erie Cattle claim owned by P. Johnson on North.

The surface boundaries of the claim are marked upon the ground as follows: Beginning at at a point in an Easterly direction ten feet from the discovery shaft (at which this notice is posted), being the center of the east side line of said claim; thence Three Hundred & fifteen feet to a monument and post, being the North east corner of said claim; thence Three Hundred feet to a monument & post at the center of the West side of said claim; thence 315 feet to a monument, being at the South West corner of said claim; thence fifty feet to a stone monument at the center of the South end of said claim; thence fifty feet to a stone monument, being at the South east corner of said claim; thence Three Hundred & fifteen feet to a stone monument being at the place of beginning.

All done under the provisions of Chapter Six (6) of Title XXXII, of the Revised Statutes of the United States, and of an Act of the General Assembly of Arizona, entitled An Act Concerning Mines " approved March^{20th} 1895, and amended March 2nd 1899.

Dated and posted on the ground this 1st day of March 1900
