DESCRIPTION

This claim is situated at an elevation of 6800 ft., above sea level. The W. half is level bottom land suitable for agriculture, the soil being a black sandy loam. The E. half is rocky hillside covered with a heavy growth of yellow pine and suitable for pasture only. A small patch containing about 1 acre is planted to garden truck. A spring creek runs near the S. and W. bdys. of the claim, furnishing sufficient water for all purposes.

There is no evidence of minerals on the claim. Pinetop, an inland village, is the nearest post office and trading center. It is about 1/2 mile west of claim and is reached by a good wagon road.

CONFLICTS AND ADJOINING CLAIMS
