General Description etc.

The Little Giant Claim, located in the Copper Mountain Mining District Garapai County A. T. is situated on the west slope of the high hill overlooking the Middle or Main Fork of Chasis Creek near its confluence with the East & West branches.
The surface is steep and broken. There is some fir, iron & cedar timber in the vicinity of the Mine. The claim joins the Little Annie Mining Claim, popularly known as the Mitecall mine, on the East, the E. boundary of the Little Giant and the N. boundary of the Little Annie being identical. The ores of the Mine are Copper bearing, carrying the carbonates and oxide of this metal with iron & etc. The work done on Mine is in two open cuts, the measurements of which are given above.
And I hereby certify that the value of the improvements on the claim is not less than five hundred dollars and that they were made by the Claimant; to establish which facts I took the sworn testimony of disinterested witnesses.

March 19, 1875.
