Tombstone District, Pima Co. A.D., July 2, 1878.

Notice of Location.

We the undersigned have this day located and do claim fifteen hundred feet (1500ft.) on the course of this ledge and three hundred feet (300ft.) on each side of the centre of the vein. Our claim commences at this monument and notice and runs fifteen hundred feet (1500ft.) in a westerly course to another monument of stone. The boundaries are more distinctly described as follows: -

Commencing at this monument and running three hundred feet (300ft.) in a <sup>(southerly)</sup> southerly course to a monument of stone; thence <sup>westerly</sup> westerly fifteen hundred feet (1500ft.) to N.W. corner monument; thence southerly by west centre end monument six hundred feet (600ft.) to S.W. corner monument; thence easterly fifteen hundred feet (1500ft.) to N.E. corner monument; thence three hundred feet (300ft.) north-erly to the place of beginning.

This mine is the first discovery of the Tombstone mine and is situated about five miles in an easterly course from William's Spring and shall be known as the Carbonate mine.
