Carbuncle

Notice of Location.

Know all men by these Presents That I the undersigned have this day located Fifteen hundred (1500) linear feet of this vein or lode, bearing precious metals, with all dips, springs, angles and variations, with surface ground Three hundred (300) feet on each side of the center of vein, with all mineral deposits contained therein and all Timber growing within the limits of said claim, and all Water and Water Privileges thereon or appurtenant and thereto, under and according to the provisions of the United States Mining Laws under which it is located.

This claim commences at this monument and notice placed upon the vein, and this monument containing the notice is the north west corner monument of the "Carbuncle" claim and is also the south west corner monument of the Cross claim.

This Carbuncle vein or claim or deposit runs in a southeasterly direction from this monument fifteen hundred feet and covers what is known as the Lehigh Spring in Copper Basin.

The exterior boundaries are built of stone and are three hundred feet on either side of the initial monument which stands in the center of the claim on the North and 300 feet on either side of the end center monument on the south end of the claim.

This vein or deposit may be more generally described as situated in Copper Basin Mining District, in Yavapai County, Arizona, and lies north of the so called Government Road which passes through Copper Basin, and adjoins the cross claim at the north end of the Carbuncle

Dated on the ground this 26th day of September, A.D. 1882, and shall be known as the Carbuncle claim
